NASBY.

Mr. Nasby, from ..... Quiet Retreat at the Corners, Addresses an Epistle to a General Circular, in which He Suggests Many Things.

POST OFFICE, CONFEDERIT X ROADS (which is in the State uv Kentucky), Nov 10, 1868.

To Ulysses S. Grant, General, and President Elect :—Sir:—The elecshun is over! The die is cast, uv which die the Democracy hev the most uv it. Frankly we admit that we are beaten. I studied the elecshun returns carefully, and I hav come to that conclooshun. Red'uce carried Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinoy, Connecticut, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, and California, and Virginny, Texas and Mississippi bin allowed to vote, the result would hev bin different. But we didn't, therefore we submit. We might resist, but ez we hevn't the strength to do it, we bow cheerfy to the will uv the people, and recognize you ex our Chief Magistrate, in the place of A. Johnson, deceest.

Now the question is, agitate us is wat do you intend to do? That's wat I want to know, and that's wat Deekin Pogram, Capt. McPeller and Isaaker Gavitt is demandin in thunder tones. Wat do you intend to do? Are you a goin to adopt the merciless policy uv the extreme Radicals, or are you goin to adopt a conshitooy policy.

I presoom that you don't understand the situashun in the South. I allus presoom that shood you visit the corners, you wood find here two classes of people, whose tastes, habits, inclinashuns and interests vary widely. On one hand are the original Kentuckians, uv which Bascom, Deekin Pogram, Capt. McPeller and Isaaker Gavitt are brite and shinin specimens, and on the other there is Pollock, the Illinoy storekeeper, Joe Bigler, who was a Confedrit soljer, but who has backslid into abolishmism, ten to twenty families uv Northerners who have bought land hereabouts, and the niggers wich were freed by Linkin and the Congotoosheut Amendments.

These two antagonistic elements are perpetually at war, and the result is a chronicle onpleasantness which hev seriously retarded the growth uv this seckshun. The fault is uv course with Pollock, Bigler, the northern farmers, and the niggers. The original Kentuckians desire peece—they long and hunger and thirst for it. But these other curses won't let us have it. The Northern farmers wood come here and buy land and continyooally irritate us with their presence; they won't adopt our habits and customs, but persist in keeping up their own, and ez we know 'em to be Republicans, the site uv one on our streets perdooces a speshis uv frenzy on our citizens wich hez at times resulted seriously to them. They hold prayer meetins at each other's houses, they take Northern newspapers wich wood pizan the minds uv our people but for the blessed fact that our people don't read to any alarmin extent, and they hev established skools among the nigger children, and are teachin them to be above the speer to wich nacher and our theology assigned 'em. Beacom told me that they had never spent four dollars all told at his bar. How kin he live in peace with sich? The niggers won't work for us unless we pay 'em, and then the result is our farms are runnin down. Such little is predooced by us, and the old original Kentucky stock is gettin to be a speshly a sort ez your eyes over rested onto.

Now in regard to us wat are you a goin to do? Are you a goin to perfect us or them? Are you goin to bring your power to bear on their side or ourn? Is Deekin Pogram's niggers to be pertected in their insolent refoosal to submit to his guidance and direcshun, or are they to be left with him to be dealt with as he chooses? Is the citizens uv the Corners to hev the rite, wich is theirs, to chastise these beings in their own way—to redooce 'em to their nateral level ez they see fit, or are they to be hampered by soljers and sich, and be forced to the humiliashen uv seein em ekal in all respects? In short, shel we under your administrashun, be the free and happy citizens we had and feather our northern settlers ez we hev been doin, or not? That's the question which our people ask, and on yoor answer depends the support uv yoo. The Corners can be reskooed to your administrashun, or it kin be driven into an attitood uv defiance.

It hez bin said that you are a sphinx. Wat a sphinx is I don't know, nor is ther any one in the Corners who does. But it must be suthin else or yoo wodent hev been so called. The great question is, "are yoo again to continyooe to play sphinx?" Are yoo again to continyooe in the groove into wich yoo hev sot yoorself, or are yoo again to flop out, and fling yoorself into our arms? That's the question that's agitatin me and the Corners ez well.

Ef I remember aright, the concludin sentence uv yoor letter uv acceptance was, "let us hev peace?" I want peece and so duz the Corners. How is this peece to be attained? Easy enuff. Let Deekin Pogram hev his niggers to manage and control in his own way, and he'll be at peece. Continyoo Elder Pennibacker—who hez a distillery—in the offices of Whisky Inspector, Assessor and Collector uv Internal Revenue, which he now holds, and he'll continyoo at peece. Yoo kin thus pacify these classes. Don't say that perhaps the other classes mite object? Possibly they wood. It's ther objection that hez made all the trouble thus far. Had they not objected, all wood hev bin at peece now. The niggers, like the eel, hev been pooerful bein skinned, and more of it won't hurt em. Put think uv that old man Deekin Pogram! Look at his gray hair, his furrowed cheeks, and his tottrin steps! He is to be forced in his old age to stane his hands with labor for the nessary sustenance wich, hence Beacom quit trustin, kin only be got with cash! Is niggers to wear better clothes than me? Shal Isaaker Gavitt, who wuz never yoost to work, be brot to it in the flower uv his youth?

We don't ask you to interfere in our behalf—we only ask you to be at peece yoorself and keep hands off! Sheathe the sword and let us hev peece. Withdraw everything in the shape of soljery—stick to the Presidency and nothing else, and we will take care uv the rest.

That are other things which you must do to restore happiness and peece to their distracted country. There can be no peace so long as the Blairs are out uv offis. The Blairs must hev places. A government without a Blair into it is not legal. Linkin failed to command the respect of the Blairs, and where is Linkin? Johnson! let the Blairs go, and what an awful Example is he! Don't be afraid that they won't take offis under you. They ain't partikeler—they'd as soon run yoor administration ez anybody's. Yoo can gin the support uv the Blairs! That Boon is within yoor reach. And likewise yoo kin get others ez necessary. Breckinridge is a good man, Rosey is waitin, Fuller is waitin. Ross uv Kansas, and Doolittle—in fact all that noble army uv martyrs which followed the politikel torchoons uv A. Johnson, stand ready to support yoo, on condishun that you support them. Take them U. S. Grant—Take them. Don't despise my advice. Think uv Lavin the Blair family knockin at yoor door for four years! End it now and forever.

For myself it isn't necessary to speek. I am almost at the end uv a eventful life. Disappointment hez don its work, and in a little time I shall go hence. I am a victim uv irregular habits—wunst when in a Abolish hastee I wuz deprived of licker for ten days, and wunst by mistake I swallowed camphene for whiskey. My constitushen never has undermined. I hev but a few years more at best and it don't matter where I drag them out. But if my path may to the toomb good be smoothed by a continyooance in the Post Offis at the Corners, it would be a favor wich I shood appreshate. I shood then be at peece. Likewise wood Bascom, at whose bar I hev an unliquidated account, and the citizens, all uv whom hold my notes uv hand for small amounts, be at peace in the soothin hope uv get. tin suthin at some fucher day. I cekky yoor consideration—let us hev peece. Her indicated how it kin be done—will yoo follow that path or not? It is for you too choose.

SIMON DERR,
At his Stove Works,
No. 70 & 72 cor. Norwegian & George Sts.,
POTTSVILLE,
Is sold at a lower price than the same class of stoves not manufactured here can be sold for in this market. Also a large stock of other Cooking and Heating Stoves, Heaters for Churches and private dwellings, Ranges, Cast Iron Sinks, &c. Also a full assortment of Tin Ware, Tin Roofing, and Sheet Iron Work. Also Iron Railing, Water Pipes, Wash Kettles, and a variety of work done in the Foundry to which special attention is paid. All in want of stoves should bear in mind that those manufactured by me can be kept for repairs at less expense and be more promptly attended to than such as are brought here from other places, which in many cases, when out of order, must be sold as old iron, owing to the difficulty of obtaining the necessary parts when wanted.
Twenty years practical experience in this business, and other advantages, enables me to sell at the very lowest prices. SIMON DERR.

It requires no friction straps, clutches or brakes of any kind. Started, reversed or stopped instantly, and at any point of revolution by the simple movement of a single lever.—Having no keys, gibs, set screws, or other adjustable parts, which in Coal Breakers require the knowledge and constant care of an experienced engineer, can be put in the hands of the most inexperienced persons. ROLLING MILL FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers for sale the "MOUNT CARBON ROLLING MILL," located at Mount Carbon, near Pottsville, Schuylkill County, Pa.
The Mill contains 4 double puddling furnaces, 3 heating furnaces, 1 train 15-inch rolls for puddled iron, 1 merchant bar iron train 9 stands 7 rolls 12 inches in length by 24 inches diameter, and all other machinery for the manufacture of the above description of iron.
The plate and puddling mills are propelled by a vertical engine of 800 horse power; the bar mill by a horizontal engine of 60 horse power, and the remainder of the machinery, such as shafting, shears, fan, &c., by 2 engines of 60 and 10 horse power respectively.
The Mill buildings which cover an area of over 20,000 square feet, are all of stone, as are the furnaces and machinery they contain; of recent construction, built in the most substantial manner, and covered with slate. A switching from the Reading Railroad, which immediately adjoins, serves for the convenient discharge of coal, metal, &c., and for shipment. Underlying contiguous and appurtenant to the Rolling Mill, are 187 acres of coal lands and woodland, also an office, iron house, 21 good and convenient dwelling houses and an excellent barn. Part of the land, if laid out in town lots, would meet with a ready sale. A capacious reservoir near the Mill, affords to the boilers an abundant supply of pure spring water. There is also an excellent stone quarry on the premises. For the successful prosecution of the manufacture of iron, the location is such as is rarely surpassed. Coal of the best quality is raised in the immediate vicinity.—The facilities of transportation are ample—either by the Reading Railroad and its numerous connections, or by the Schuylkill Canal. The large quantity of iron consumed in the coal region, affords an excellent home market, and an abundant supply near at hand.
