AGENTS FOR THE ADVOCATE.

The following named persons are authorized agents for the Advocate-to receive subscriptions, advertising or Job work, take pay therefor and give receipts.

Wilcox. - A. T. Aldrich, J. L. Brown. Kane.-FRANK W. MEECE. Johnsonsburg .- ISAAC HAGAN.

St. Marys.-CHAS. McVEAN. Centreville.- HOMER B. LEACH, Maj. BURKE. Caledonia.-W. P. SMITH, B. A. WEED. Bennezette .- John C. Bard, J. W. Brown.

Shawmut .- Jour Farren. Spring Creek .- A. W. Invin. Highland .- LEVI ELLOTHORPE. Horton.-D. C. OYSTER, N. M. BROCKWAY.

Snow .- Last Monday snow fell here to the depth of nearly two feet.

RELIGIOUS .- Services at the court house, Sunday morning at half past ten o'clock, by Rev. L. Little.

THANKS .- Our thanks are due D. B McCreary for a copy of the Adjutant General's report for 1868

No use for doctors except for surgical opera -it is a perfect health restorer.

Sociable. - The Good Templars' Sociable will be held at W. S. Services' residence next Thursday evening. A general invitation is extended.

DENTAL,-John Sager dentist, of Warren Pa., will be at the Hyde House on Monday. Jan. 18th, 1869. All those desiring any work in his line will do well to give him a call.

Snow Prow .- We think the snow play that made paths through the streets on Monday, after the heavy fall of snow, is quite an improvement on the way of making paths hereto-

Corner. - The court this weekt has been almost exclusively engaged in trying an important land mit. William need, vs. Breeden & Bradley, involving about $100,000 worth of lands. We will give full proceedings next week.

SELECT READINGS.—The select readings given at the court house on Wednesday evening by Prof. Rufus Adams of Philadelphia. were excellent, and those who did not attend misse ! a good treat.

f'Ir will be noticed by Dr. Stebbin's card in another column that he will prolong his stay in this place until Friday of next week. Those requiring the services of a reliable dentist should not fail to avail themselves of this opportunity.

GET A HOME. -- Get a home, rich or noor, and learn to love that home, and make it happy to wife and children by your beaming presence; learn to love simple pleasures, flowers of God's own planting, and music of his own-the bird, wind, and waterfull. So shall you help to stem the fide of desolation, poverty and despair that comes upon so many through the scorn of little things. Oh, the charm of a little home; comforts dwell there that shun the gilded halls of society. Live happy in your little home, and look to God for a grander one. -State Guard.

POLITENESS.-A polite behaviour can never be long maintained without a real wish to please; and such a wish is a part of good nature. No Ill-natured man can be long well-bred. No good natured man, however unno ished in his manners, can ever be essentially ill-bred. From an absurd projudice in regard to good nature, some people affect to substitute good temper for it; but no qualities can be more distinct. Many good-tempered people as well as many fools, are very ill-natured; and many men of first rate genius, with which perhaps entire good temper is incompatible, are perfectly good natured.

WHO ARE INTELLIGENT. - Education in colleges or Academies does not necessarily make one more intelligent than another, as many of our most intelligent men never entered either as

Many of the ablest men in the pulpit, the forum or the press, had very few advantages when young; many men graduate from institutions of learning, and fail miserably when pitted against the self educated man in any of the upper walks of life.

Intilligence arises from early training, and the boy who sees his futher read a newspaper is very apt to desire to do the same. It was just such stimulus that Henry Clay and Horace Greeley had; when young, and this fired them to acquire knowledge and "knowledge is power."

A USEFUL WORK .- Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, have sent us the advance sheets of their American Newspaper Directory, and from an inspection of them we are satisfied that their plan is a good one, and that they are about to produce the most perfect work of the kind ever given to the public. It aims at giving an accurate list of newspapers in the United of her books of poems, which had been in States and British colonies, their politics, relig press for some months before she was ion and circulation as far as can be ascertained. although in the latter particular they can only state the claims of publishers, leaving others to judge of the justness of the claims. It will also give a list of towns in which newspapers are published, their population, general commerciacharacter, &c. It will be a very valuable book tween three and four hundred pages.

DEMOREST'S MOSTRLY FOR FEBRUARY,-This admirable parlor magazine receives large additions to its list of subscribers, with every returning holiday season, because of it popularity as a Christmas and New Year's gift, and it undoubtedly deserves them, for it is always M. welcome and seasonable. No better investment can have been made for the New Year than a subscription of the small sum required to secure its monthly visits. To housekeepers, mothers of families, and all those who wish to know how to do woman's work it will prove a reasury of wealth and knowledge. $3 Yearly. Published at 838 Broadway, New York.

ITS GOOD EFFECTS ARE PERMANENT .- In this it differs from all hair dyes. By its use luxurient growth is guaranteed, natural color and gloss are restored. One trial will cause you to NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE, say this of Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved new style Hair Restorer or Dressing in one bottle. Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar.

-At Lackawanna, Luzerne county, a oy named Daniel Boone (no doubt a de- $10,00. cendent of the historical Daniel,) thirteen years of age, while skating on the ice near the residence of his parents, heard his mother scream, and immediately repaired to the spot when he observed a wildcat about attacking her. Quick as a flash he darted into the house, secured a loaded gun contained therein, and returned just in time to put a load of buckshot into his cat. ship as it was about to make the fatal spring. Not killing the animal at the first shot, the lad followed it, and reloaded as he ran, fired two more rounds into its body and then dispatched it with the butt of the gun. The animal is said to be the largest of its species in this country.

-A short distance below Barryville, Wayne county, on the line of the Delaware and Hudson Canal, a large mass of rock has been for some time regarded with auxious eyes by the company. Fears were entertained that it might some day, during the season of navigation, be precipitated into the canal. It was finally determined to take time by the forelock, and disloge the mass in the winter season, and accordingly on Friday last the thing was accom. plished. Twenty-five Regs of powder hav. ing been deposited in a fissure, and well tamped with the sand, the match was applied, and at one blast the immense body, known as "Hanging Rock," was hurled from its foundation. About half of the mass lodged in the bed of the canal, and egashill, made its way into the river. The the Publishers. rock was of the following dimecsions: 91 feet long, 81 feet high, and 32 feet thick: 127 Bowery, New York, P. O.
