DELINQUENTS.

Most of the subscribers to the Advocate, seem to forget that it costs money to publish a newspaper. Very few have paid for the paper, notwithstanding we requested them so to do-through the paper and by sending bills. Every delinquent must send the money, or we shall be compelled to stop their paper. Hereafter no subscribers name will be put upon our books until they have paid for the paper. Gentleman, delinquents we need the money. and trust you will not besitate to send it without dela;

ARE YOU VACINATED !- Dr. Krumme has just received reliable vaccine virus, and is prepared to attend to all calls in that line.

Sociable.-The Good Templars' sociable will be held at H. F. Overholtzer's residence next Thursday evening A general invitation is extended.

Jon PRINTING of every description done promptly at this office, and in a style unequalled in this section of the State. Entire satisfaction guaranteed.

Mone Economical, remarkable certainty of prompt action, in fact every good quality is guaranteed for Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair restorer or dressing, (in one bottle. Every Druggist sells it, Price one Dollar.

MALL Pox.-This disgusting disease is ba in decent parts of the county, and it solvisable to adopt everything possible to the contagion. It will be seen that Dr. Krumme is prepared to vaccinate and it would be well to attend to that duty without

J. C. Jackson .- Dr. Jackson will be in this county as follows: At Wilcox, Wednesday, Feb. 24th; at the Hyde House in Ridgway Thursday Feb. 25th, and at the Alpine House, in St. Marys, Friday Feb. 26. Invalids desiring his services should remember the time, and call early as possible.

Masonic .- The members of Elk Lodge, in a spirit of enterprise worth of imitation, have etc. erected a beautiful and commodious Hall in this place, and propose to dedicate it in a becoming manner. The dedication services will take place on Thursday, Feb. 25th by the R. W. D. D. Grand Master, Geo. Metzger, and other Grand Officers. Several Lodges in this section of the State have been invited, and a large gathering of Masons is expected,

In the evening there will be a social party at the Hyde House.

DUTIES OF POSTMASCERS -Much trouble would be saved if portmasters were more generally familiar with their duties Postmasters should remember that when a paper remains dead in the office for four consecutive weeks, it is their duty to send the publisher of the paper a written notice of the fact-stating if possible the reason why the paper is not taken. The returning to the publisher of a paper marked " not taken," " refused," or " uncalled for," is not a legal notice. Postmasters who fail to comply with the law in this respect are liable for the time said papers remain dead in their office.

TEE March Numbea of that ever-welcome family visitant, Demorest's Magazine, has just appeared in our sanctum, bright, beautiful, and interesting, as an elegant display of the early spring fashions and an entertaining collection of handsomely itlustrated tales and sketches can render it, and numberless cuts, descriptions and hints all relative to matters important to the fair sex. This is undoubtedly one of the best, largest, and most useful journals of fashious now issued in this country, whether relative to the household or society, and every woman will find it an earnest, faithful friend. $3,00 yearly. Publicat ion office, 838 Broadway, New York.

-The volcanoes Vesuvius and Etna have Store heretofore been supposed to be entirely independent of each other. But recently it appears that the cessation of eruptions in one has been the signal of activity in the other. On Novemer 26th the lava stream from Vesuvius stopped flowing, and on November 27th Etna began throwing out flames.
