Political Notes.

The Cleveland HEBALD thinks the committee of States requires that Ohio Democratic papers should omit all refference to the "bloated bondholders," for fear of wounding the feelings of the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, who is "bloated with several millions of dollars of that sort or property."

The Harrisburg TELEGRAPH says: "Wm. A. Galbraith, of Erie, slides into the chair lately occupied by the champion of "coffee pots" and "congratulatory proclamations" over "brilliant defeats." Not quite; after looking the thing all over, he concluded it wouldn't pay to have charge of Asa's dollars, and so he peremtorily declined.

The Somerset Wing says the copy of the Harrisburg Parrior that contains the announcement of Packer's nomination, also proclaims an offer of several of the Champersburg Democracy to bet $1,000 to $800 that he (Packer) will be elected. A decent respect for public opinion should have induced these fellows to have carried their share of the spoils home, before thus flaunting the wages of their iniquity in the face of the world.

Why didn't the Democrats nominate Hancock! This is one reason: A leading Democratic politician of New York wrote his party friends in Pennsylvania, that if they nominated and elected Gen. Hancock Governor or the State, it would place him head and shoulders above Hoffman as the next Presidential candidate. And as Wall street didn't want that, therefore you see the milk in that cocoa-

It is wonderful how the Democracy are given to playing what may be called a political game of ten pins. They set up a good man for office and then knock him over with a platform. McClellan was badly damaged in this way, notwithstanding he tried an epistolary specific of his own; Rosecrans gets upon his legs with a splendid war record only to be bowled down by a platform of repudiation. And now here is Asa Packer, and his twenty millions, a respectable man killed, beyond the hope of a resurection by a platform based on the resolutions of '98.

'It is wonderful how soon the Democrats try to steal Republican thunder, or rather Republican lightning. which makes no noise at all. They have nominated Judge Packer for to save one of his twenty millions. Not only that, but he was an original tanner. And soul is marching on. Now let Geary put on his best fighting gear, and tan the North Stonington tanner lively.

It is laughable to see Democracy fishing around for campaign epithets. "Bloted bond-helders" used to be applied to all Republicans with an unction. But having nominated a $20,000,000 candidate, that gun is spiked. You see it makes a difference whose ox is gored. What will the epitheters do for epithets?

THE Democracy in Convention, passed a resolution declaring that "our soldiers and sailors must be gratefully remembered," and then nominated Packer over the two soldier candidates! That's modern Democracy!

THE heroes of "the White Star" and all "the boys in blue" can have no feeling for Asa Packer. They might have followed Hancock, but they cannot rally to a man who never had any sympathy with them.

"Who are the Democratic candidates?"said an enthusiastic Democrat. "Packer and Price," was the reply. "What Price?" "Two hundred thousand dollars," said the Cass man from Harrisburg.

THE Democracy like the soldiers hugely. They give them nominations in all cases where they can't elect them. They like Gen, Hancock, but they like Packer and his $20,-000,000 a good deal better.

GEN. Hancock declined, says the Democracy. Of course he did, but not till he found out that Packer would kick him out if he didn't. The better part of valor is discre-

THE Democracy can see no reason why Geary, the brave soldier, should be elected. Of course not. But they can see just, 20,-000,000 reasons why Packer should.

THERE is to be an eclipse of the sun in August. The eclipse of Packer and Persh-

The Democratic Platform.

As a matter of record we print below the resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Harrisburg, on Wednesday the 21st. They are the production of Francis W. Hughes, of Schuylkill county, one of the most ardent sympathizers of the rebels and bitter haters of the Union during the war. The seventh resolution, in reference to "our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory," is an insult, coming from the source it does, to every Union sol-dier who followed the flag.

The Democracy of Pennsylvania in Convention met, do unanimously declare:

 The federal government is limited in power to the grants contained in the Federal Constitution; that the exercise of doubtful Constitutional powers is dangerous to the stability of our government and the safety of the people, and the Democratic party will never consent that the State of Pennsylvavia shall surrender her great right of local self-government.

2. That the attempted ratification of the proposed fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution by the Radical members of the late legislature, and their refusal to submit the same to a vote of the people, was a de-liberate breach of their official duty, and an outrage upon every citizen of the State, and the resolution making such ratification should promptly be repealed, and the amendment submitted to the people at the polls for acceptance or rejection.

3 That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is opposed to conferring upon the ne-gro the right to vote, and we do emphaticaly deny that there is any right or power in Congress or elsewhere to impose negro suf-frage upon the people of this State in op-position to their will.

4. That reform in the federal and State governments, and in the management of their financial affairs, is imperatively demanded.

5. That the movements now being made for the amelioration of the condition of the laboring man has our most hearty co-opra-

6. That the legislation of the late Republican Congress, "outside of the Constitution," the disregard of the majority therein of the will of the people and the sanctity of the ballot-box, in the exclusion from their seats in Congress of representatives clearly elected, the establishment of military gov ernments in States in the Union, and overthrow of all civil governments therein, are acts of tyranny and usurpation that tend directly to the destruction of republican government and the creation of the worst forms of despotism.

7. That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory, must be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution. 8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized citizens at home and abroad; the as sertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example and encouragement for people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights.

9. That the present internal revenue and taxing system of the government is grossly unjust, and means ought at once to be adop ted to cause a modification thereof.

Packer and the Post.

The Hartford Post gets off the following notice of the way Packer was born into politics. Evidently its editor was on the spot. He has heard Woodward's dismal oratory. He must know that Packer begins with the biggest kind of a P or the Democracy would not have been so enamored of his pile as to make him a candidate:

A little more than a year ago, in the sweltering heat of the purgatorial Tammany, we flag borne by General John W. Geary. No first heard of Asa Packer. The full-voiced true patriot will be found idle or indifferent Perrin was calling the roll of States. Mr. to such a contest. Personal griefs, like per-Eaton, on behalf of "the sterling and gal- sonal preferences, should all be made to give lant Democracy of my little Commonwealth,' way. Every Republican is bound by the de-Governor who is as reticent as Grant, and had named the Hon. James E. English as a cision of his party, and especially so when can't make a speech of over twenty-five lines candidate for the Presidency; Maine had that party has proved itself so devoted a to save one of his twenty millions. Not only nominated Gen. Hancock; Ohio had named champion of the rights of the whole people Pendleton; the serene Tilden had broached the best butt of the season in Sanford E. not only that, but he was raised on the farm Church; New Jersey had set up Joel Parker; of one John Brown. Verily, John Brown's and Pennsylvania was called. At once there body lies mouldering in the ground, but his rose upon the damp vision of that reeking auditory, a human form with both hands full of manuscript. "It was not the "ancient mariner" nor did he "fix" anybody with "the glittering eye." It was Judge Wood-ward of Pennsylvania; and he "fixed" the whole crowd with one of the most dismal obituaries that ever followed a politician home. Judge Woodward read his whole heap of manuscript through. He described tion assembles at Harrisburg to make a nomi-his man before he named him. Twenty nation for Governor. Gen. G. W. Cass has minutes description-think of it-in manuscript-read slowly and deliberately-intoned at that-to an audience of seven or eight thousand-every man a rivulet of perspiration-all impatient for a ballot-in an atmosphere blue with blasphemy and reeking with rum—just think of that man standing on a beach in Tammany Hall amid such surroundings, drenched in his own sweat, reeling off a couple of columns of biographical stuff, and tying on the end of it all, name of Asa Packer of Pennsylvania." was two miles of slow match to one fire-cracker at that. When concluded, there did not arise "-So wild a yell As all the fiends of Heaven that fell Had raised the banner cry of hell."

No, there did not. It was too warm yell-for Asa Packer; so nobody yelled. few smiled-some in their seats-others at neighboring bars. It pains us to say, that in the buzz that went all around the reporters' tables, when the gifted Woodward sat down, the only clearly distinguishable sentence was the conundrum that leaped from desk to desk with a very large H, 'Who in H is Asa Packer?"

We do not often quote from Brick Pomeroy; but as that redoubtable champion of the unterrified' was one of the chief engineers of the Convention that assembled at Harrisburg last week and nominated Packer, we udge that what he says will be acceptable to our Democratic readers. On the Irish question, Brick writes thusly:

A gentleman well known in political cir-cles writes from one of the leading cities of Ohio, asking this question:

Why is it so many Irishmen, naturally Democratic in their sentiments as they are strong in their love of liberty, are leaving the Democratic party?'

Our friend asks a plain question, we will give a plain answer. It is because the Democratic party of the United States has been placed in the keeping of August Belmont, the American Agent of English interests.

In heart Mr. Belmont is not a Democrat. August. The eclipse of Packer and Pershing don't come off till October. No post-ponement on account of weather.

The Democracy declare that Packer will make a splendid run. He ought to. He's used to it. He made a splendid run to Europe! country in preference to all others. Try again.

APPALLING ACCIDENT.-The Lewistown TRUE DEMOCRAT SAYS: On Wednesday of last week soon after the one o'clock whistle blew for the men to commence work at Freedom Iron and Steel Works, the whistle blew an alarm. On reaching the cupola room, it was found that the bar upon which rested the supports of the bottom of the cupola which was in use, and which at the time contained five tons of molten iron nearly rendy to run out, had broken, James A. Junkin, furnace builder, and George Bearly, his helper both of this place who were eugaged in making repairs under the cupola, had been caught in the plunging mass of the molten iron and cinder, and terribly burned. Mr. Junkin ran out of the cupola room, followed by Mr. Bearly, their clothes in flames. Some men at work in the rear of the engine house first saw them, and did all they could to smother the flames and relieve them of their burning clothes. Physicians were sent for at once, and in the meatime everything was done that was possible to relieve the sufferings of the injured men. They were removed to their homes during the afternoon, and Mr. Bearly, the surface of whose body was burned to a crisp almost from head to foot, died the same down, lingered until monday, when death ended his sufferings. Mr. Junkin was aged about 42 years, and leaves a family. Mr. Bearly was son of Daniel Bearly aged 26, and unmarried. Mr. Junkin had taken out a life insurance policy for $1000 only in February last. The cupola bottom was secured in the manner in general use, and was considered secure by those in charge of the cupolas, who are careful and experienced men, and had examined the supports during the morn-ing. No possible blame, therefore, can be attached either to the workmen or the company. As evidence of the general prudence and carefullness which characterized the man- on the right hand with the plump and agement at Freedom, it is worthy of mention that this is the first serious accident which

ever occurred at these works

Never have the Republicans of Pennsylvania had a fairer chance for a great victory than in the present struggle. The Democra-cy are hopelessly demoralized. Heretofore they felt at least that they had an equal chance for carrying Philadelphia; but now this strong reserve utterly fails them. The Registry law by the Supreme Court checks their systematic frauds, while their local ticket here is not only distasteful to honest men among them, but has been repudiated by a number of the Democratic ward organizations. If they lose the city, as they must, how can they carry the counties of the interior? They have also lost their nationality entirely. Upon no one issue can they make a stand. Beaten upon every point by the Republicans, they cannot rally against more and Mr. Weed, at Saratogo, has the fifteenth amendment with the great body of the Southern Democracy in its favor, and rushing bodily into the Republican ranks. If they talk about negroes in office, they will be pointed to negroes elected by their own friends. If they demand economy in the public service, the record of Geary and Grant, who have already paid off millions of the national debt and of the debt of Pennsylvania, will be spread before them. If they attempt to prove themselves friends of the protection of home industry, the free-trade platforms of the Democrats of Ohio and New Hampshire will be quoted against them. Thus they are at once demoralized and sectionalized. They have lost their prestige by defeat on all the leading doctrines of their faith, and they have lost the right wing of their party, the Democrats of the South.

What, then, is the duty of the Republicans? It is to close the ranks and follow the and of the honor of the country. When the campaign is fairly opened the faithful stewardship of the great Republican party will present a brilliant contrast to the rebellion. inconsistency, and utter absence of all real statesmanship of the false Democracy .-Phila Press.

Before the nomination of Packer, the editor of the Selinsgrove Times, a radical Democratic paper, wrote as follows:

"This day the Democratic State Conventhe inside track, but a large ring of demagogues who go there uninstructed as delegates will try to cheat him out of the nomination. They are for the man, and that man may be any man who promises them the most offices or money. These men generally favor Packer, because he is very wealthy, and they expect to make him come down with the 'dust.' It is by no means his good qualities they are after.'

We have not learned what the editor's sentiments are now. Doubtless he goes with A SMOKE STACK the crowd for Packer and his "dust."

The rumor of an alliance between France Austria, and Italy, as against Prussia and the Pope, bears upon its face gross features of doubt. Prussia was but lately in agreeable diplomatic relations with Rome-relations not to be vitally disturbed by the doctrines of Syllabus so long as they do not actually militate against Prassia-but it is not a plausible speculation that the ultra Protestant King William is willing to lend troops to the Pope in case the French evacuate Rome. An act so entirely at war with the progressive and Prussian sentiments of Germany, would not, at all events, be seriously contemplated by Count Bismarck.

Austria, which has seen without a tear the Bishop of Linz in jail, is now excited over the release of a nun. For the charge of de-claiming against the iniquity of civil mar-riage and secular education the Lord Bishop was boxed up at his own choice; for what special reason the nun, twenty years cloistered, was set free we have no means of judg-But the slow Austrians are growing agitated.

While the Democrats of Maryland and Kentucky are preparing to show the freed-men that they have always been their friends, in order to get their votes, the Democrats of Pennsylvania are preparing to show the colored people of this State that they have always been their enemies, and intend to remain so to the end. The Spanish authorities, speaking through the telegraph, say that there are 32,000 reg-ular troops in Cuba, and 4,000 volunteers, whereas but lately there were 8,000 volun-teers in Havana, exclusive of thousands in Mantanzas and elsewhere. The Rebels state that they have 6,00 men—innocently adds our Spanish telegrapher. This will never do.

THE editor of the Green Bay ADVOCATE, rinted in the only Democratic district in Wisconsin, would have a happy time if he was in Pennsylvania. They would "read him out of party," sure as a gun. Speaking of the "inevitable darkie," he says:

"The whole subject is a dead issue, and in passing from theory to practice, we are glad it is so near a solution. If the African race in the Southern States were on a par with the colored people as we find them amongst us, we should have little fear of the result We have no more prejudice against a man on account of the color of his cont. We have watched with interest the course of life of the colored people of this State, and so far as we have been able to determine, they are qualified to vote, and are clearly entitled to that privilege. They are industrious, temperate, law-abiding, and intelligent."

In 1863, when the Democratic party shood olidly for peace, and were preparing to pronounce the war for the maintenance of our Government a failure, General Rosecrans, from the tented field, wrote thus: 'Whenever they (the rebels) have the powcrisp almost from head to foot, died the same evening. Mr. Junkin, whose injuries were the Southern people, and they would also chiefly confined to his legs, from the hips drive us. Trust them not. Were they able they would invade and destroy us without mercy. Absolutely assured of these things, I am amazed that any one could think of peace on any terms. He who entertains the sentiment is fit only to be a slave; he who utters it at this time is moreover a traftor to bis country, who deserves the contempt of all honorable men.'

> THE NEW CURRENCY.-The new ten cent currency is getting into circulation. It is about the same size as the last issue, but handsomer. The face is ornamented comely head and bust of a Goddess of Liberty-known as such by the conventional cap, but in other respects looking like a young Juno, or Diana, or Bellona. The free hair and healthy aspect of this protectress of our freedom are delightful to see. The words "United States, ten cents, receivable for all United States stamps," and the seal of the treasury department (in red) fill the left of the new issue. The back contains the legend of the old stamps, on a larger and more elaborate ground of lathe work. Two companies had the execution of this issue -the American company doing the face. and the National the back. Fifteen, twenty-five and fifty cents notes of the new patterns will follow.

> LET US HAVE PEACE.-The reconcilia tion reported yesterday between Mr. Fillgiven rise to a rumor that an effort will be made to bring about a similar meeting between Mr. Weed and the Hon. Horace Greeley. Though Mr. Greeley speaks in the most bitter terms of Mr. Weed, Thurlow, it is said, has lost his enmity. and has expressed a desire to have a peaceable settlement. It is reported that a prominent gentleman, an ex-Governor, is to go to New York, for the purpose of making proposals to Mr. Greeley. It is predicted that these veteran editors will soon be brought together, and an amicable adjustment of all their differences affected. So mote it be.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills, For all the purposes of a Laxative

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally ly adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reasons, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Billious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Billious Colic and Billious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gont, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system, With such change those complaints the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Bropsy and Bropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy. As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and howels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sin :— I have been frequently requested to comeet my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice ar and of my appropriate sphere. I have in all cases desired; but with a clear proof in ratious instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Ir. Hoofand's German Hillers, it depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debitity of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who mifer from the above causes.

ODD'S NERVINE DID IT. NEW LONDON, CONN., April 26, 1869.

REMEMBERED FRIEND:—I thought it well to wait another week before writing, to see if I continued to improve, as I have been doing for some time, under the treatment of the new medicine, and am happy to tell you that I am getting better—even faster than when you were bere. I commenced the use of DODD'S NERVINE without anybody advising me to it. When I began with it I could only walk from my bed to the chair. My trouble has been extreme pain in the head, and has lasted over three years. All the medicine I have here-togore taken has failed to give any relief. I am now able to go up and down stairs, and am daly improving. I consider the NERVINE the best medicine I ever found, and shall continue its use, for I am confident of entire recovery. I have taken only three bottes and would not be without it on any account
