CHRISTMAS comes on Saturday this year.
Where's our turkey?

DEER HUNTING just now is very brisk in these parts. The deer, however, as a general thing, fare better than the hunters.

DIED—In this place, on the 6th instant, Francis Stein, infant son of T. H. and E. E. Rhines, aged 9 weeks and three days.

The roads for the greater part of this week have been in good sleighing order. Old "weatherists" tell us there will be no general thaw before Christmas.

REV. WM. SIMPSON will preach at Centerville on Tuesday evening, November 30. At the Graveyard Schoolhouse on Wednesday, December 1st—Evening six and a half o'clock.

Our new devil is a bright one. The other day whilst working at case, he innocently asked, "Where's them things what look like a base-ball bat?" The boy wanted an exclamation point.

COL. TATE, late of the Lycoming Standard, has sold his interest in that paper to his late partner, Andrew Hopkins, Esq., by whom the paper will be conducted in the future.

Both Republican and Democratic journals throughout the State are advocating the repeal of the law authorizing borough and township elections to be held in the fall. Spring elections are preferred.

We were favored with a call on Saturday last by DEAN, of the Altoona Tribune, who is visiting our mountains to try his rifle at the deer. If he succeeds in killing deer as well as he does in printing a good paper he will do dear well.

The local of the ADVOCATE was on Thursday last, with other members of the craft typographical, made the recipient of a Thanksgiving dinner from Mr. John G. Hall and his amiable lady. Our thanks, in the stereotyped language of the novelist, may be more easily imagined than described, for the kindness extended.

CLARK WILSON, Esq., whose fortunes we believe have been connected at different times with a greater number of journals than any other man in this State, has lately started a newspaper at Lawrenceburg, near Parker's Landing, at the mouth of the Clarion river. The paper is called the Northwestern Independent, and wears a neat typographical appearance.

LET HER GO.—The young lady who rises early, rolls up her sleeves and walks into the kitchen to get breakfast, or assist in doing so, and afterwards, with cheerfulness and sunny smiles, puts her house in order without the assistance of mother, is worth a thousand parlor beauties, who, for want of exercise, complain of ennui and lounge in luxurious ease. The former will make a good wife, and render home a paradise; the latter is a useless piece of furniture, and will, to the annoyance of the household, go whining to the grave. Let her go.

A YOUNG man of one of our neighboring towns a few days since started deer hunting. He started in the morning, taking some lunch, and also a quart or whiskey to keep the cold out and stimulate him on his way. After traveling in the woods for some time, he imagined himself moving at a rapid rate, perhaps thirty miles from where he started. Wanting some nourishment, he looked for his lunch, but found that it was gone. As night was coming on, he thought he had better camp, concluding that he could not take the back track of the thirty miles he had traveled during the day, so he tarried for the night, and found himself next morning on the side hill, half a mile from where he started the day before.

MISCELLANEOUS.
A GREAT REMEDY
THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES
Dr. Wishart's Pine Tree TAR CORDIAL.

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar by which its highest medicinal properties are retained.

It is the only safeguard and reliable remedy which has ever been prepared from the juice of the Pine Tree. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system. It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs.

Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation.

It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted, with the positive assurance of its power to cure the following diseases if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure:— Consumption of the Lungs, Cough, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Blind and Bleeding Piles, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, &c.

We are often asked why are not other remedies in the market for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, and other Pulmonary affections equal to Dr. L. Q. Wishart's Pine Tree Tar Cordial. We answer—

1st. It cures, not by stopping cough, and by loosening and assisting nature to throw off the unhealthy matter collected about the throat and bronchial tubes, causing irritation and cough.

2d. Most Throat and Lung Remedies are composed of anodynes, which allay the cough for awhile, but by their constringing effects, the fibers become hardened, and the unhealthy fluids congregate and are retained in the system causing disease beyond the control of our most eminent physicians.

3d. The Pine Tree Tar Cordial, with its assistants, perfectable, because they remove the cause of irritation of the mucous membranes and bronchial tubes, assist the lungs to act and throw off the unhealthy secretions, and purify the blood, thus scientifically making the cure perfect.

Dr. Wishart has on file at his office hundreds, and thousands of Certificates, from men and women of unquestionable character who were once hopelessly given up to die, but through the providence of God were completely restored to health by the Pine Tree Tar Cordial. A physician in attendance who can be consulted in person or by mail, free of charge. Price of Pine Tree Tar Cordial $1.50 per bottle, and $11.00 per doz. Sent by Express on receipt of price. Address L. Q. WISHART, M. D., No. 232 North 2d Street, Phila. Pa. May 21, 69m3v1n27.

J. S. BORDWELL, M. D.
ELECTIC PHYSICIAN.

The word electric means to choose or select best medicines from all the different schools of medicine; using remedies that are safe, and discarding from practice all medicines that have an injurious effect on the system, such as mercury, antimony, lead, copper, &c.

I lay aside the lance—the old bloodletter, reducer or depletor, and equalize the circulation and restore the system to its natural state by alteratives and tonics. I shall hereafter give particular attention to chronic diseases, such as Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Catarrh, Neuralgia, diseases of the throat, urinary organs, and all diseases peculiar to females, &c.

CATARH I treat with a new instrument of a late invention which cures every case. TEETH extracted without pain. Office and residence South of the jail on Centre St. Office hours from 7 to 8 a. m.; 12 to 1 p. m.; 6 to 7 p. m. Dec. 23'67-ly. J. S. BORDWELL.

Special Notices
TO CONSUMPTIVES.
The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the description used, free of charge, with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure Cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the description is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost him nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address: REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings County, N. Y. v1n20yl.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED

CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cause (without medicine) of SEMINATORIAL LOSS, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. 25¢ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 5 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
