Our village is loft destitute of snow The Rev. Wm. Sampson will preach at

Wilcox on Sunday, Jan. 28d. The P. & E. R. R. Time table will be found corrected on our inside.

R. P. Saltsman, Esq , is lying quite ill at his residence at Portland.

We learn from L. J. Blakely, Esq., that the Railroad and Mining Gazette is soon to be revived again.

The man that was caught cutting wood in our town, a few days ago, bas not been tried yet, but if be continues in this business, we think it will go hard with him.

A muskrat in visiting the underground apartment of Mr. Hegerty, was caught in the act of their. A sharp contest ensued, but the rat had to succeasib. It being out of season to kill now, who pags the fine.

THE Laucaster Examiner says: The days of miracles have not passed away. We are assured that the whiskey seized at Good's distillery in Peques township some how or other, mysteriously, was converted into water a few days after the sale. Who knows mything slour al?

The heavy rains of Saturday and Monfears were catertained that it would demuch damage; but the water has passed off and we have suffered but little loss as far a-

A Mr. Tate, of Clearfield county, killed a hog last week, twenty, mouths old, that weghed 611 pounds when dressed. Its length was S feet S inches and girthed 6 fort 2 inches.

PATENT ALARM .- We were shown, a few days ago, a new Patent alarm on a cheap scale invented, we believe by a gen theman of Elmira, N. Y. It is a tin tube resembling a flute, with figures from I to 7 about an inch arart marked on one side : the tube contains a sperm candle which is lighted when you retire, and inserted to the child. hour you wish to "get up," We can't exactly explain it, but Mr. Holes, who has had experience in all kinds of alarms and keeps them constantly on hand for sale, understands this and says it is the cheapest and best for lumbermen in camps.

DONATION VISIT -The friends of Rev. William Sampson, will pay him a visit at the M. E. Parsonage, in Ridgway, on Saturday evening, Jan. 29th inst. Mr. S. is laboring among us faithfully and acceptably, and it is hoped a proper appreciation may be shown on that occasion. A. cordial invitation is extended to all.

Committee of Arrangements: -Mrs. Dr. Bordwell, Mrs. Grove G. Messenger, Mrs. James Love, and Mrs. R. V. Kime.

The Committee will meet at the residence of R. V. Kime, Esq., on Tuesday evening, Jan. 25th.

INSANE -Y esterday morning, says the Erie Dispatch of the 15th., John Authony, proprietor of "Anthony's Hotel," near the Union Depot, was taken to Pittsburg by a of personal friends, for remo-Dixmont Hospital, to treated for insa nity. He has been insane at intervale for several weeks, and about a week ago, in one of his fits, attempted the life of one of his boarders, and finally severely injured himself. The fit was upon him, but in a mild form, when he was removed yesterday, and it needed considerable coaxing to get him on the train. Before he would start needed at Pittsbugh to testify at court in a steady, unpoetical, sensible young man, ily recover from his sad affliction.

OUR CHINAMAN.

Amelia Eliza says I must say something about our Chinaman that Mr. John Y. Fos ter engaged for us on his recent visit to Cali-

This Chinaman came to the villa about a week ago in good order.

The ticket Mr. Foster & Co. tied to his pigtail with our street and number on it, was a capital idea. It expedited his delivery, and he was just passed along from one city to another to his right destination, Amelia Eliza is delighted with him, and she tells all her lady friends that she means to have another like him just to do upostairs work. Of course these ladies were shocked at any such novel institution as a he-chamber maid. But they all sang another song when she shewed them a bed that Chang had made up. To-day Chang offered to braid her hair for her. She was a little startled at this proposi-tion, and asked me if she should let bim

I said, certainly. So Chang came into the sitting room and went to work, but the poor fellow had a terrible fright when he discovered that her back hair was an entirely distinct affair from her other scalp covering.

He looked at me as much as to say-"Is this your work ? Did you pull all this out at the root? Is this the way American gentlemen treat their wives?"

I explained to him that it was not her own hair, but had been purchesed down in Newark. That that was the style among all the ladies now. I am afraid that I was a little hard on the ladies in general. As a washer he's a success on anything but his own hands and face. He irons well, but Eliza had to show him

When she showed him, she did as most amateur laundressess do-spit on the iron to see if it be hot enough.

When Chang wants to iron he always comes to her with the same iron to be spit

ELK COUNTY GAG LAW.

The Legislature of the Commonwealth at its last session passed a law in and for Eik County, Pa., to aid the physicians of that county in obtaining their bread and butter, and compelling the people to employ them or have no physiccian. Although I believe this law to be unenstitu tional, I do not wish to place myself in the hands of the physicians of that county, DRAFTS OR FOST-OFFICE ORDERS neither do I wish to pay the license of $400 dmanded for the privilege of visiting my numerous patients in said territory. I will say to the sick and afflicted residing in the $1,50 a bottle, or $11 per dozen. Sent by excounty of Elk, that who see fit to meet me at my appointments at Emporium or Driftwood, Pa., I will agree to furnish proper treatment at at much less than the usual price, and will also deduct from such reduced price the amount of railroad fare
