Gold was going up beautifully, and everybody was making fortunes. I never heard anything like the rumors on the street. Fisk, Jr., made seventy millions in half an hour. Morrissey made twenty millions. Vanderbilt's account hadn't been added up vet. Everybody rushed into Wall street and made fortunes.

I got interested myself and went to broker and told him to buy me a hundred millions at current rates.

He said he wanted a margin.

It was just my luck, I had ordered in coal that day and paid for it, and given Mrs. O'Lanus the rest of the money to buy flannel and things for the house. Gave the broker all I han, four dollars church one Sunday, passed a number of specimens of "Young America" amusing and twenty-five cents, and told him to buy all he could on that margin, and I'd try and themselves with a game of marbles, mixed raise some more. > MATE OF ILL BREEDING .- There is no better test of ill dreeding than the practice of interrupting another in conversation, by peaking or commencing a remark before another has fully closed ; no well-bred person ever does it or continues conversation long with one who does. The latter finds an interesting conversation abruptly waived closed or declined by the former without suspecting the cause. A well-bred person will not even interrupt one who is in all respects greatly inferior. It is amusing to persons priding themselves on the gentility of their efforts to appear to advantage in many other respect, so readily betray all in this respect.

This anecdote is as good as it is old : A college professor encouraged his geology alues ta a laptor to array tour anou at stained, with their collections thinking to impose on the doctor. Taking up the specimens ; the professor remarked : "This is a piece of baryta from the Cheshire mines." Holding up another : "This is a piece of fieldspar from the Fortland quarries and this," coming to the brick, "is a piece of impundence from some member of this diass.

TEXAS .- Texas is the last of the "err ing sisters" to come home again. She is already on the way. On the 22d of February two U. S. Senators were elected-Morgan C. Hamilton, for the terms ending in 1871 and 1877, and J. W. Flanngan, for the term ending 1875.

The Thirteenth, Fourtcenth and Fifteenth Amendments of the National Coustitution have been ratified nearly unanimously in both Houses, most of the Democrats voting for them, with the Republi cans.

The Legislature is divided thus : Senate-Republicans, 18; Democrats, 12-House-Republicans, 53 : Democrats, 37 Republican majority on joint ballot, 23. There are two colored men in the Senate and eight in the House, all Republicans.

DOMESTIC AMUSEMENT .- As a back, in cury. Indiana, a few weeks since, was passing a farm house, the passengers were startled by screams within, and the driver reined up his borses, exclaiming, "I believe the old tellow is killing his wife this time." So he jumped off his seat, ran in and pushed open the door, and shouted ; "What are you about here ?" UNIQUE LOVE LETTER.

Au examination of some old letters that remained in a Confederate post office, brought to light this unique love letter The writer had evidently been taunted b, her lover with being "cold,' and she vin dicated herself very triumphantly in the following modest but sufficient infimation of her desire :

MARRIED.

My DEAB: You say I am cold toward you. Well, now let's prove who's the cold est. Let's you and me get-oh, I hate to write it; look at the top of the letter and you'll find it. Yes, that's it-let's me and you get-oh, you understand me.

Affectionataly yours, ever.

A FEW days ago, a member of the Peunsylvania Legislature, on his way to Harrisburg, stepped up to the ticket office of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, in this city, and, by way of a joke, asked the agent for a ticket to Paradise. knowing, at the same time, there was no station by that name on the read. The agent, who is a smart fellow, handed the Legislator a Bible, which he had in his office for his own use, saying at the same time : "Here, sir, is your ticket and route com bined, which I furnish gratis." 'The Legislater happening to be an easy going man. and seeing the joke, threw down $3.20, say ing, "I guess, Mr. H., I will take a ticket for Harrisburg this time." - Sunday Mer.

In the days of Western immigration, an intelligent Irishman, known as Pat Doogan, settled on the Kentucky side of the Ohio river, where he built a little dock and sup plied steamboats with wood. INDIANS.

OMAHA, March 10 .- A letter from Fort Laramie states that much genuine alarm exists among the white settlers regarding the Sloux Indians. They are reported to be encamped in large numbers on Powder river, ready for war, and threatening vengeance for the execution of one of their tribe at Fort Laramie last fall.

A SINGULAR legal controversy has origi. nated from the recent fire in Somerville, Mass, growing out of the cutting of the fire engine hose which laid across the Fitchburg Railroad, by the passing train. The loss by the fire was $25,000, and suits were brought against the Fitchburg Railroad Company for 322,000, which amount they claim would have been saved but for the cutting of the hose,
