

WHAT OF CUBA?—Quesada, the leader of the insurrectionary Cubans, has arrived in the United States. His presence here is variously interpreted.

YERGEN, the representative, we are told, of the best blood of Mississippi, breaks jail like a common felon, and flees the State with a halter around his neck.

THE MONTANA INDIANS.—The latest information from General Sullivan relative to Montana Indians is dated Helena, February 26, and states that the Gros Ventres and Assiniboines, hearing that the Piegons were at war with the whites, had started a large war party for the Piegons camps to retaliate on them for stealing all their horses when they were smitten with the small pox last fall.

ACCIDENT ON THE P. & E. R. R.—Thursday's Dispatch says, the 4 o'clock express going east on the P. & E. Road, met with an accident last night about one mile this side of Irvineton.

A J. Dobbias was somewhat injured.—Like the Dispatch, we have not obtained the names of the others.

MURDER.

A most cruel murder occurred on Saturday morning at Phillipsport, a small village in Sullivan county, New York. The author of the deed is the wife of a common laborer named Daniel Tice, residing in that village, and the victim is her youngest child, about two years old.

The family of Tice consisted of himself and his wife and two children, the eldest a boy, and the other a child two years old. It appears that Tice and his wife have for a long time lived a very quarrelsome life, and on the morning of the murder, before he went to his work, they had an altercation, during which his wife threw a tea-pot at him and then picked up two or three glass bottles and hurled them at him also.

After he had gone the tolling of a bell was heard, whereupon the frenzied mother told her oldest boy that it would toll for him next. She then bade him to go out doors and feed the hens, which he did.

She again applied the knife to the throat of the poor little victim and finished the brutish work she had commenced.—The report we received says its head was nearly cut off. When the horrible deed was completed the oldest boy came, and the murderer commanded him to run immediately to the nearest neighbors and tell them she had killed her child.

She says she killed the child to spite her husband. She was taken in custody and placed in a room at one of the village hotels, where she is now lying sick, and at the present writing is not expected to live.—She is supposed by some to be insane, although others are sanguine in the belief that her insanity consists only in her allowing her unbridled passions full sway.

THE ONEIDA DISASTER.

The Tribune publishes Yokohama correspondence on the Oneida disaster. The writer says the whistle of the Oneida was blown and three guns fired, still the captain on the Bonbay says he neither saw nor heard a signal, yet the Steward of the Bonbay on arrival at Yokohama asserted the Oneida had been run into and to the water's edge. But the worst of the story is the evidence of the British Lieutenant, that Capt Eyre told him he had cut the whole quarter of a damned Yankee frigate and served her bloody well right.

SPAIN.

MADRID, March 14.—The duel between Montpensier and Henry de Bourbon creates intense excitement. The letter written by the latter branded Montpensier as a Jesuit, conspirator, and called him a bloated French pastry cook. The Prince won the choice of weapons and ground, and the right to the first shot.

The Duke's first shot missed, the second slightly wounded the Prince, and the third proved fatal, the ball entering the Prince's forehead and killing him instantly. The Duke exclaimed, "My God! what have I done!" and swore to protect the Prince's children.

The funeral of Prince Henri de Bourbon, who was killed in a duel on Saturday by the Duke de Montpensier, was solemnized to-day. No public demonstrations were made.

BOHNER ATTEMPTS TO ESCAPE.—Something of an excitement was created in Huntingdon on Friday last by a desperate attempt of Bohner to effect an escape.

A SAD OCCURRENCE.—A bright little girl of thirteen, at Germantown, while endeavoring to master a difficult lesson at her home a few evenings ago, was suddenly seized with brain fever and fell helpless upon the floor. Many "bright little" children are severely injured, if not killed outright, over study.

MODELS FOR THE NEW FIFTY CENT NOTES have been completed. The side is the same as the old ones. A Vignette of the late Hon. E. M. Stanton, pronounced a most excellent likeness, and executed by one of the best engravers in the United States, will ornament the left end of the note.

AN ODD INDIVIDUAL.—We find the following account of an odd genius who lives in Monmouth county, in the last number of the Monmouth Inquirer:

There lives in a certain part of Ocean township, in this county, an individual who may truly be styled an eccentric character. He is worth several thousands of dollars, the house in which he lives, and some real estate. He is about seventy years of age, is a bachelor, and lives alone.

The man is an inveterate chewer and smoker of tobacco, is filthy in his habits, wears his clothing till it almost drops from his body, and never thinks of having it washed. But the strangest part of the story, in our opinion, remains to be told.

He gathers his knowledge from reading all the leading papers of the day he can get hold of. Not being disposed to subscribe for city papers, he goes round from place to place, wherever he can borrow a newspaper, and reads it from beginning to end.

No distinction is shown by him in regard to the choice of his companions, and black and white people are alike his associates. It is rarely the case that a man who is fond of reading, and who spends almost his entire time over our metropolitan journals, is ever drawn into such miserly habits.

The meanest robbery we ever saw recorded occurred near Cleveland a few nights since. The victim was just on the verge of matrimony. By strict economy he had managed to lay up a snug little sum of money with which to foot the bills incident to that important event.

LISBON, March 15.—The regular mail steamer from Rio Janeiro arrived here to-day, with later advices from the allied army. Lopez had retreated northward to a point near Meranda, in Matto Grosso, a province of Brazil.

GOLD IN IOWA. Nuggets of considerable size have been found upon the farms of several persons in the vicinity of Colfax. A hired man in the employ of one of the above farmers discovered some small nuggets among the sand and gravel that were thrown out from a well.

Dunkirk, which has long maintained the reputation of "the oldest Democratic town in Western New York," has elected a Republican President, Justice, and entire Board of Trustees. Good for Dunkirk!

BANK ROBBER.—The Waverly National Bank, of Waverly, N. Y., was robbed early on Sunday morning last. The door of the safe was blown off with a charge of powder. The loss to special depositors is said to be large, while that of the bank is small.

NO HUMBUG.—I had recently the pleasure of examining the working of the Iron City College, and was surprised at its thorough practical organization. Any young man, no matter what his vocation in life may be, will be greatly benefited by a course of study here.

Full—Some of the boys at the "hop" last night.

Fresh Fish—At J. R. Baird's every Thursday.

Powell & Kime are almost giving away goods to make room for a new stock.

H. S. Belnap came clear from Indiana to buy a wagon from S. Jackson.

Paupers—From 3 to 5 now on our township and a prospect for the number to be increased, at least one more.

Because—We are behind, this week, and short of reading matter, because we had to get up the Treasurer's sales and were short of material.

Talk about strawberries in New Orleans, but we are going to have some maple sugar when the sap begins to run.

We see by our exchanges that the snow storm has been general east and west of us, delaying the trains on nearly all the railroads east of us. The mail from the east was ten hours late on Wednesday.

CHEAP SOAP—We did not believe that soap could be sold for ten cents a bar that would take the dirt off a printer's hands, until J. R. Baird gave us three or four bars, assuring us that it was the very best for washing clothes, as well as printers. It is certainly the best soap for the price we have used. He sells Gowans & Beard's Marble Soap, for the Toilet or Laundry, for ten cents a bar, and other toilet soaps cheap in proportion.

A STATUE has been placed in the yard of one of our old citizens of this place.—From the prominence of the figure and its position, we think it is intended to represent one of our lords of town, but various opinions are entertained. Some think it should have an apron on, and others think it should bear in its grip a piece of the valuable mineral of our county; but as many are visiting this statue every day, they can easily decide who it was intended to represent, so that we have nothing to say about it, only that it is a well executed piece of work.

The sculptors of this, we believe, are from Boston, and are highly commendable for their skill and ingenuity in accomplishing this noble work. And it is no wonder that the work was well executed, as the sculptors have much experience and have never been known to soil their hands with any other labor.

REGISTRAR'S NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that the following accounts have been filed in my office and will be presented at the next Term of Orphans Court of Elk County, for confirmation:
