Terrible Tragedy.

[From the Noshville Bauner, May 14.]

One of the most sanguinary deeds growing out of jealousy, and one of the highest exhibitions of female courage we have seen any account of for many a day, occurred a few days since near the the East Tennessee line, in the edge of North Carolina bordering on Blout county. The account, which we abreviate from the several reports, seems miraclous and extravagent. The parties represented are said to be credible and rescetable.

It appears that the wife of James Daveuport became jealous of a young girl named Kate Jackson, represented as being quite handsome and lovable. Quarrels and contentions were fierce and frequent between the two ladies aforesaid.

On the day of the fatal collision it appears that Miss Kate Jackson, in company with her married sister, Mrs. DeArmand, passed the residence of the Davenport family. As soon as the sisters were discovered on the road, the Davenports six in number, comprising the mother, three daughters, two of them grown, and two sons, the eldest about eighteen years old, rallied in force, and set out in vigorous pursuit of the defenceless sisters. The trail was continued was continued until the sisters had nearly tion be accorded to this end of the District. | with prompt settlement, and those who re- | daughters similarly armed, who demanded ceived their saleries suddenly disappeared. The heroic Kate was thus, at the onset of the engagement, left to defend herself. She railied and maintained her line by indiscriminantly hurling upon the attacking party such finity missiles as came oppertune to her. This point attained, and being still beseiged, she again discharged a shot, and another of the Davenport boys wilted .-Then the Davenport girls rallied and made a desperate charge upon her with clubs and stones, infleting serious wounds, but not pen-knife, measuring about six inches in
