The Preparations of the Democracy for the Fall Campaign-Mr. Nasby Assists in Arranging the Detail.

HARP UV ERIN S'LOON, SIXTH WARD,) NEW YORK, July 30, 1870.

The time heven arrived to begin preparashens for the fall campane, preparashens for the fall campane wuz actgally begun. The General Committee for the Yoonited States met three weeks ago in Noo York, and decided upon the tactics to be employed to make certin the carryin uv the next Congress by the Dimocrisy. Not bein a member uv the Committee, I wuzn't present at the conference, and consekently can't say precisely wat they decided onto, but ez a member uv the workin committee I know all about it, for I helpt to execoot their orders.

Some time previous a cirkler hed bin ishood, rekestin the Dimocratic Central Committees all over the country to send in all sich property ez flags, banners, transparencit and sich, us wich they mite be possessed, all of wich wood be altered to meet the exigencies uv the times, at the expense uv the General Committee. It wuz my dooty to assist the chareman uv the Workin Committee to arrange this mass uv properties that they mite be properly altered.

We found on hand the following materladies doorin the years from 1856 to 1866.

Ez soon cz the artists hed finished their work I packt them and thankt that a tejus work wuz off my hands, but little did I antisipate the sea of trouble into which I had pulaged myself and the committe. I hed two assistants to direct the boxes, and the committee sent us a demi-1863, inskribed, 'The king nigger lover, and john uv likker for refreshment. PETROLIUM V. NASBY. (Which wuz Postmaster.)

C couple of the best connudrums we ev er heard were perpetrated the other day in a social circle of gentemen, one of whom had a very bald head: One gentleman asked :

Gave it up. 'Because it is a great white bear place.'

Hardly had the laugh subsided on this, when another asked,-'Why is his head like heaven?' This was worse to get at than the other, and the answer came,there.'

AN ARKANSAS FATHER'S ADVICE TO His Son .- Bob, you are leaving home for me out of the game and go it alone. The up with, like small trumps, but you must have the bowers to back them, or they ain't worth shucks If luck is agin you 'Do with em?' he answered, 'change the pretty strong, don't crave and look like a sick chicken on a rainy day, but hold up you. I've lived and traveled around some. 'The Horris Greelys kissen the nigger Bob, and I've found out that as soon as wimmin, wat shell be done with them?" I folks thought you held a weak hand, they'd all buck agin you strong. So when you'r sort'r weak, keep on a bold look but play cautious; be satisfied with a pint. Many's face, and for an inskripshen write 'The era the hand I've seen 'em euchre cause they

And another thing, Bob, (this was spoken in a low tone) don't go too much on the women, queens is kinder poor cards, the more you have of them the worse for you; you might have three and pary a trump. I don't say discard them all, if you get hold of one that is a trump its all good, and there's sartin to be one out of four. And above all wot don't belong to you, nor 'slip cards or no fun in the game, it is a regular 'cutthroat.' So now, Bob, farewell, remember wot I tell you and you'll be sure to win; and if you don't surves you right if you get skunked.

How TO TREAT SLANDER .- We once heard a story told of two men who started one morning for a whole day, s journey, They soon became seperated, the one only trouble was concern for his laggard companion. He thought sure some evil must have bsfallen him.

Long after dark, his fellow companion arrived. When asked the cause of his delay, he repled :

'I was obliged to stop at every other house to whip off the unmannerly dogs that barked at me. Didn't they bark at you?" 'Yes,' replied the other, 'but I did not stop to whip them. I simply told them that they were ill-bred curs, and drove on.'

We are generally losers in the end, if we stop to refute all the back bitings and gossiping we may hear by the way. They are annoying, it is true, but not dangerous, so long as we do not stop to expostulate and scold. Our characters are formed and sustained by ourselves, by our actions and purpose, and not by others. Always bear this in mind, that, 'calumnies may usually be trusted to time and the slow but steady

THE LATEST SERPANT STORY .- A VERY pronounced fish story comes from Barry county, Michigan, where, we are 'told,' a monster resembling a snake is residing in Harwood Lake. It is represented as being about twenty feet long, and from five to seven inches in diamster. It has been looked at his book; but such was his faith seen a number of times-ouce, last summer, by a Sweede, who supposed it to be the devil. The other day his snakeship was seen again by a boy, who was fishing at the time, and had quite a string of fish lying on the bank. The boy says the snake came out of the water, and, with one gulp, swallowed fish, string, and all, and then came for him; and he, not particularly wishing for such an associate, made tracks for a more congenial companion. 'It is said' that the teeth of this serpant are three or four inches long.

A wedding couple at Vincennes went to a hotel and said that they would like a room, "Why is Mr,-'s head like Alaska?" All but didn't care about supper, as they had brought provisions enough with them to last several days. The affable clerk wept at their tranquility.

A ruralist at Newport, seeing a lady driving and her groom with folded arms behind, thought 'that nigger must pay that Because there is no dying or parting nice-looking girl a pile to drive his carriage has been the absorbing theme among the

A Drop of Oil.

The sewing machine went hard, and would not do its work well, despite all of sister Amy's efforts. She had oiled it thoroughly she thought; had attended properly to to the tention and all that; and still it was preverse.

Brothor Will came and looked over her shoulder, and knit his brow, as was his custom when in a puzzle. At last, turning back the machine be glanced over the works and asked .-

'Did you oil it here, Amy'?'

'Why, no, I never thought of that.' A drop of oil was applied, and in another minute the slender needte was flying through the work like a fairy. No more hard work to turn the wheel. That one drop of oil on a dry spot in the machinery made all right.

There are many other places where a a drop of oil works just as great wonders. Cold mornings, when tempers are apt to reached his destination before the sun had get frosted, as well as toes and finger-tips, work we had to do, and with recklis stoo- sunk behind the Western hill, where he there is no magic like a few cheery words, pidity directed the boxes at random. So when any one is angry and ready to do and say many rash things, just give them a soft 'answer.' You know what the Bible says about such answers.

If Bridget is hurried and cross, just give her a little timely help. Make her fire blaze up brightly for one thing, and see if her temper does not soften.

All day long as you mix with your mates at shool or at home, you will find plenty of oil; and oh, how it will cheer and brighten the way for yourself and all about you! - The Child's World

WOULD SING IT .- A story is told of an old clergyman who has the most unbounded faith in Watt's hyms book. He was fond of saying that he could never open any page without finding an appropriate hymn. A mischievous son of his thought it would be a good joke to test his father's faith. So he took an old song and pasted it on one of the pages of the book, over a hymn, so nicely that it could not be easily detected. At church, on Sabbath morning, the minister happened to open at that very page, and commenced to read :

"Old Grimes is dead," There was a sensation in the audience. He in Watt's hymns that he undertook it again, commencing with the same line. There was another sensation in the audience. Looking at it again, and then at the congregation, and then at the choir, said he, "Brethern, it is here in the regular order in Watt's hymn book, and we will sing it anyhow."

A GREAT DISCUSSION. -The great discussion at Salt Lake City, between Dr. Newman and Orson Pratt, on the question: Does the Bible sanction Polygamy? is in ful! blast, The wily Mormon leaders resorted to varous subterfuges to evade the discuscussion, but the beligerent Doctor was determined not to be circumvented and accepted the debate on their own terms rather than be foiled. The arguments on both sides have been quite forcible, and notwithstanding at least nine-tentus of the vast audiance was composed of infatuated Mormons, Dr. Newman was several times applauded. The debate took place in the famous new Tabernickle, capable of compeople. - Ex.
