AGENTS FOR THE ADVOCATE.

The following named persons are authorized agents for the Advocate to receive subscriptions, advertising or job work, take pay therefor and give receipts.

- Wilcox.—A. T. ALDRICH, J. L. BROWN, KANE.—GEO. THOMAS, L. KANE. St. Marys.—CHAS. McVEAN. Conneville.—JAMES GREEN. Caledonia.—R. A. WELLS. Benzenette.—ERASMUS MARY. Spring Creek.—A. W. IRVIN. Highland.—LEVY ELLIOTTHORPE. Horton.—D. C. GYSTER, N. M. BROCKWAY. New York.—S. M. PETERGILL & CO. 27 Park Row. G. O. P. ROWLER & CO., 40 & 41 Park Row.

We will be up to time next week.

The weather, though cold, is extremely pleasant for November.

Locals are as scarce here this week as red-headed barber's wives.

H. S. Thayer, Esq. has just moved into his new dwelling house, on Mill street.

Subscribe for the ADVOCATE and you will hear from your friends every week and know "whose every man's dog belongs to."

Powell & Kime are still receiving new goods. If they have not the article on hand called for by customers, they immediately order it.

A friend of ours the other night discovered a fellow stealing his coal. The thief, observing our friend, but thinking himself unobserved, stole away.—E.

EX-MAYOR, Wm. Adams, of Allegheny, Pa., formerly mayor of that city convicted of passing counterfeit twenty dollar notes on the Shoe and Leather Bank of New York, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 and to undergo an imprisonment of seven years in the western penitentiary.

APPLES.—It is no trouble to get a good eating apple this fall, as fruit has matured early; but first class cooking apples are scarce. W. C. Healey has just received what every body wants in the apple line. He has something that will make a pie, something good to eat now and some that will keep until spring, which he sells by the bushel or barrel at living rates.

HUNTERS.—Four or five young men from the eastern part of the state, arrived in town on Tuesday morning fully equipped for a deer hunt. After breakfasting, at the Hyde House, they started for Shawmut, footing it up the track, in the best of spirits, being assured that deer are plenty there. Every deer they capture, kill or take will be very dear to them. We wish them luck.

On Thursday night the New York Central Railroad Transfer Freight House at Buffalo was destroyed by fire together with numerous freight cars, many of them loaded with freight. Loss $500,000. The new edition of the School Laws of Pennsylvania is ready for delivery. School directors and controllers will be supplied by the County Superintendents of their respective counties. Any person can get a single copy by Addressing the School Department at Harrisburg, and enclosing ten cents for postage.

A very careless man in Scenectady threw a kiss to his little daughter in the street. Another man's wife stood in range, and thought the kiss was meant for her; so she made a similar demonstration. Her husband just then, unluckily, came upon the scene and witnessed the transaction. He was very mad and his anger caused him to thrash the father of the aforementioned little daughter. The result is an assault and battery case, which bids fair to furnish food for gossip in Scenectady for some time to come.—E.

The members of the Forty second Congress already elected number 222, divided as follows: Republicans, 128; Democrats, 94. Five States, Connecticut, California, Georgia, New Hampshire and Texas are yet to vote for representatives, and the probabilities are that they will elect 8 Republicans and 13 Democrats. This will give the Republicans a good working majority in the next House—137 to 107.

RETURNS, Nov. 14.—A desperate and bloody fight took place in the woods on Mount Holly, eight miles from this place, on Saturday last, between a gang of French woodcutters, 17 in number, and three officers, who were endeavoring to arrest them. The Frenchmen were armed with axes, and cut and peat two of the officers in a brutal manner. The Frenchmen escaped to the mountains, but this morning, 13, were arrested, and are now undergoing examination.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 14.—During an affray in a lager beer saloon, last night a man named George Meyer was beaten so badly that he will probably die. Louis Rabold and George Kuhn, residents of New York, were arrested for the assault, and committed without bail.

The wife of ex-Alderman Thurston was thrown from a wagon this morning, and fatally injured.

RICHMOND, Nov. 14.—The court of appeals, to-day, declared unconstitutional that part of the enabling act, empowering the decisions of the same court, when it was composed of military appointees. Only two judges dissenting.

THE ARMY RETIRING BOARD.—The board for examining the records and efficiency of army officers, organized under the act of Congress of July last, of which Gen. Hancock is President, has not yet got to work, owing to the non-arrival of one of its members, General McKenzie, of Texas. The rapidity with which officers are going out under the provisions of the act allowing a year's pay will probably reduce the number of supernumeraries to one hundred and fifty by the 18th. of January. As the latter number will be required to fill the vacancies occasioned by casualties during the year, it is thought that the President will recommend to Congress the propriety of examining those remaining in service at that time from the operation of the Act mustering them out.

EXTENSIVE FIRE.—On Wednesday night the reflection of what appeared to be a large conflagration was visible in a direction north west from this place, and gave rise to many speculations as to what it might be. On Thursday we received information that it was a large quantity—estimated to be in the neighborhood of 1,000,000 feet—of lumber, belonging to Messrs. Hesser & Hileman in Clearfield county. The lumber alone was consumed, as the mill had been removed to some other point some time since. It was evidently the work of an incendiary, as there appears to have been no buildings inhabited near the spot. It was insured for $20,000.—Phillipsburg Journal.

A HISTORIC CRAFT.—The Detroit Post says: The Revenue cutter Andrew Johnson while on a cruise northward from Milwaukee, on the 27th of October, rescued the stranded schooner Harriet Ross, and towed her to North Bay. The Harriet Ross is undoubtedly the oldest vessel afloat on the lakes, and has a historic interest, as in 1812 she was flagship to Commodore Perry, on the lake. Since then she has been lengthened and rebuilt several times, and is now a staunch craft, supplied with an excellent outfit, and having a carrying capacity of over 150,000 feet of lumber.

R. W. Huddleson remarked at breakfast this morning that he recently shot a bear somewhere up the creek that weighed over 600 pounds; but Isaac Reed immediately destroyed all interest in Huddleson's achievement, by deliberately telling of one he had killed several years ago near the same spot, which, weighed, when dressed, over 2,800 lbs., giving the day and date and all the particulars in the most minute and serious manner. Hob said not another word, but shovelled in the fried bread in threatening silence.—Forest Press.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY is warranted to cure Catarrh in its worst stages. The most painful cases are speedily relieved by it, and stoppages, offensive discharges, and tainted breath all yield to its wonderful curative powers. "Cold in the Head," dizziness and thin watery discharges are removed, the head cleared, the air passages opened, and relief and comfort afforded by its use. It contains no strong irritating, poisonous or caustic drugs. Sent by mail on receipt of sixty cents. Address R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by most druggists everywhere.

LAMP EXPLOSION.—On Saturday evening last, as Mr. O. Woods, an actor he of the Scribner House, was about to leave the building with a lighted lantern, it suddenly blazed up, and soon exploded, leaving it an entire wreck. Mr. Woods was fortunate, however, in getting the blazing mass outside of the building before it burst, thus saving a very probable conflagration.—Bookville Republican.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Paddy Quinn, who formerly kept a saloon at Sorg's corner, met with an accident a short time ago which resulted fatally. He had been below Benzenette during the day, starting for Burke's at Caledonia. He stopped at Os Johnson's to inquire the way, and, being told, it was supposed he went on. In the morning he was found in a stall in Johnson's barn almost trampled to death. It is supposed he lost his way and went into the barn to pass the night and go on to Caledonia in the morning. He died in a few days after he received his injuries.—Gazette.

The Jamestown Journal says that Earnest C. Hoyt met with a very narrow escape of his life yesterday (the 7th inst.) afternoon while out hunting. He called at Griffith's Hotel, about 6 o'clock while on his way home, for the purpose of warming. As he ascended the steps the trigger of his gun came in contact with one of the steps and caused the musket to discharge. Part of the contents struck him in on the right side of the head, tearing away a part of the ear and fracturing the skull. The wound is not considered dangerous.

QUARTERLY MEETING. At Centreville commencing Wednesday evening Nov. 23 and continuing during the next day. Rev. Jos. Leslie, of Cory, the Presiding Elder will be present and conduct the services.

MARRIED.

CLLINS—HORTON.—At the residence of the bride's father, on the 9th of November, 1870, by the Rev. Mr. Lanning, of Keating, Pa., Mr. JOHN H. COLLINS, of Keating, to Miss EMMA M. HORTON, of Ridgway.

They have our best wishes, and we hope that their future may be as sweet and rich as the wedding cake received by us.
