The bill to provide a relief fund for employes in the executive Departments of the government was reported with amendments by Mr. Shermam, from the Finance Committee.

The bill was taken up, on motion of Mr. Drake, and dscussed for one hour by Messrs. Conkling. Davis, Morton, Drake, Tipton, Howe, and Howell.

The question turned upon the propriety of levying compulsory contribuions upon government clerks to defray funeral expenses of deceased associates, and for other puposes. It was objected that the proposed legislation could have no binding efficacy, and was belittleing to the clerks.
