REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Auditor General: DAVID STANTON, of Beaver Co.

Surveyor General: ROBERT B. BEATH, of Schuylkill.

How It Looks. From our stand-point it looks as though Elk county had just stepped upon her political turn-table. She has been hopelessly under carpet-bag and ring rule for the past few years, until the carpet-baggers have become so arrogant in their demands, and so expensive in their habits, that the better class of old-time Democrats-those who have stood the brunt of the battle for years, show decided symptoms of revolt-in fact, begin to feel that they cannot, and will not, longer submit to such tyranni--cal dictation. There are two classes of citizens who should, and we know many of them do, begin to comprehend the situation in its true light; and many of them will, we trust, have independence enough to act upon their convictions-although it is a terrible ordeal to classes, the first is composed of those tide of travel sets strongly to Staten who pay the taxes. It is very hard for Island. She was accustomed to make

pass through to be styled "malcontent," "bolter," "renegade," and kindred hard names, by those who are fattening at the public crib, and depending upon this style of argument to keep the Democracy in the ranks, that the crib may continue to yield to them its luscious nourishment. Of these two them to see where they get their money back. They know they are taxed heavily. They see by the annual report published by the Auditors that there is some $20,000 lying in the treasury. They can't help thinking it costs a great deal to run this small county. on board at the time, according to the As the tax collector comes around, they pay with a shrug and a slight twinge, and go on about their business. But the collectors come so thick and fast, and heavy, that every time the patient feels a little sharper pang, until at last he feels that amputation has become necessary. This is the first class who have discovered that something is wrong. The second class is like unto the first, only larger. It comprises all the people of the county regardless of party proclivities, except the two or three favored individuals inside the magic circle, who dispense the patronage, mainly to themselves, but throw a few scattering crumbs to the recipients the dead. As to the numbers killed, of their bounty stationed at useful points and since dead, the morning papers disthroughout the county. These crumbs agree, as the following will show: are so meagre that they do not exactly satisfy these useful hangers on, but are Star says "58 deaths and a frightful only sufficient to cause them to lick their chops, and with low, smothered growls, cast longing eyes toward the grand centre where the self-satisfied fellows of the slate and pencil luxuriate. So of this second class it can only be said that the two or three enjoy perfect bliss, and are happy. Those who enjoy the small pickings are like Colonel Wilcox's Irish-French waiter at the th-ly so, sir-r."

Thinking Democrats can see no reason, now that their party has taken its "new departure," buried all its dead as safe to kindle fire with as gunpowder; issues, and stepped upon the Republi- while no woman in her senses would can platform, why they should longer bring the latter explosive near a lighted support out of the public treasury the of equal power on smouldering embers, Ring and its few favored adherents, for thereby causing an explosion, or else a The "good of the party." NEW YORK city is controlled by the Democracy by the aid of murderers and thieves. Should the Democracy be placed in power in the National Government, these same ruffians would also try to control its destinies, by riot, rapine and murder. The people should remember these facts.

THE McCANDLESS LETTER.-The following is the letter of Col. McCandless declining promotion to a Brigadier Generalship. It is dated at No. 520 Walnut street, July 30, 1865, and addressed to Gen. L. Thomas, Adjutant General of the United States army:

"SIR-I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a communication from the Secretary of War, dated the 21st instant, ment readopt the original intention of prosecuting this war for the restoration of he Union, I, together with hundreds of officers and thousands of men-at present out of service-will be found ready and willing to return. Until such time, I consider the post of honor to be the private

Your obedient servant, WM. McCANDLESS."

Comment on the above is unneces sary. The soldier element of the State will take him at his word and allow him to occupy "the private station." It is amusing, however, to contrast the above declamations with his present position on the "new departure."

Terrible Disaster.

New York, July 31st.-Yesterday this city was shocked as never before as the news spread of the dreadful. death dealing explosion of the boiler of the Staten Island ferry-boat Westfield, while crowded with passengers, and resting in her dock at the foot of Whitehall street. The boat is known as "the extra boat," and is used on Sundays and on holidays, or at hours when the three trips on Sundays, starting at 11 oclock, 41 and 71 p. m., from the Whitehall landing, coming between the regular boats, which make hourly trips. She was to start on her first trip yesterday, and was two or three minutes be hand her time when the boiler exploded. There were from 200 to 250 passengers statement of officers and the tickettaker. Most of the passengers were congregated almost directly over the No. 25 November term 1870. blowing from the South. The explosion took place a few minutes before half-past one. The number of killed and wounded will never be known. Many more were drowned than is believed, and grappling for bodies in the stream is still going

A large number of those slightly wounded also went directly home, and is, therefore, no authentic list of the victims of this dire disaster. LATER.
