PETER HOUGHTAILING is putting the Court House in readiness for court next week; this reminds us that some of our subscribers are in arrears, and informed that the old covies who that next week will be a good time to formerly held control here, have been come and settle up. A word to the wise is sufficient.

SMASH UP .- James Wilber had been riding ont, last Sunday, and was they make a slip, as in the case of our taking the horse and buggy back to the Hyde House barn. As he was turning James with the Mc who was nominated into the ine, leading to the barn, his in spite of them. "Do you mind that horse became frightened and run; now?" "Understand me!" H. J. Bowers, on the first inst., while at work in the bark woods near Eagle valley, met with a painful and nearly fatal accident. He had layed his axe down by the side of the tree he was peeling, when, by some mischance, he slipped and fell, the axe striking him in the back and inflicting an ugly wound about three inches long. Dr. Bordwell dressed the wound and reports the patien as doing well

FINGER SAWED OFF .- Last Saturday, 28th ult., P. H. Leach, of Sinnemahoning, this county, while taking off the sap of a log in a new bolting machine which he had just put up, at Wheeler's Mill, Mill Creek, this county, had the fore-finger of his right hand cut off, and the second finger slightly sawed. It seems he reached over the saw to get a piece of the slab, which had dropped off, when his finger was caught by the Carpet-bag Rule.

Our Democratic friends have much to say about carpet-baggers and their baleful influences in Dixie. We outsiders looking quietly at the workings of the Ring are led to ask, who are its controlling spirits? We have been insuperceded by recent importations from Clearfield, who now elect delegates, pack or buy conventions, and nominate whomsoever they please, save infer, old friend, the successful lumberman, people of Elk so ignorant, or so blindly to nominate and elect any wan who suits them, and who will send grist to their mill in St. Mary's? If they are, then they must foot the bill to the tune of $2.40 per yard for earth excavation; 3 per cent. for collecting, and 3 per cent. for disbursing their taxes. But we do not believe the people of Elk are so thoughtless or so thankless as to throw aside the men who for years have proven true and tried leaders, to take up with novices who owe what little success they have had to the very men they spurned in their recent

Snooks has a Ratificashun Meeting.

On the nominashun of Judge I tell you I'm a Democrat to the back bone, and when I heard of the nominashun of the Hon. G. Spikes I throad my hat and seys I'll have a ratificashun meeting on this. So I gets Peter Punch to tak our old cow bell and go down town and mak noiz about it: so he took a 2 galon jug (a favorite Democratic campaign document) on his back and started down town, and I got the cart and oxen and went after a load of pitch pine nots. I had a darned big lod now I tell you it made old buck nip and pur rately "up to time to keep up with the bull, but they tetched them in. By the time I got thar the whole town was on hand and course he took 2 drinks to our 1. After we made our bonfire we called on Spikes, the large number of families, both in our nominee, to mak us a speach. So town and country, but more especially he got on the cart | and took off his cap, | the station awaiting the arrival of his in the latter, that subscribe to no paper and give it a magestic wave and then the meetin was opened. He seys, "felof families are thus growing up in ut. er citizens, hic, I am hic, Democrat hic, to the back bone hic, I fought the Republicans, hic, through the onplesant slaughter, hie, and I'll do as you all want me to. I'll give everyone of yes a license in Scratchville, hic. Here the crowd called him to order, as another 2 galon jug had arrived, and past the and he got 3 of the votes that was counted to our nomine, but we had to agorn for the fire water wuz out of the jug and the pine nots all gone. So we agorned until after eleckshun. More JOHN SNOOKS.
