SAVE SOMETHING.—If your income is five dollars a day, spend but four. If it is one dollar, spend eighty cents. If it is but ten cents, spend nine. If it is three potatoes, save half a potato for seed.

Some ladies suffer dreadfully with the headache and this causes their hair to fade. Nature's Hair Restorative is a sure remedy for the ache and will restore the color of bleached, gray or faded hair.

"The dearest spot on earth," has at length been located. It is at the store that does not advertise.

Poverty, like other bullies, is formidable only to those who show that they are afraid of it.

Reading furnishes us only with matter of knowledge. It is thinking that makes what we read our own.

Daddy, I want to ask you a question: "Well, my son?" "Why is neighbor Smith's liquor shop like a countertail bill?" "I can't tell, my son?" "Because you can't pass it."

PROSPERITY FOR 1872. FIFTH YEAR.

A Representative and Champion of American Art.

THE ALDINE.

An Illustrated Monthly Journal claimed to be the handsomest Paper in the World.

"Give my love to the artist, workman of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admiration for beauty, as it has always been for usefulness."—[Henry Ward Beecher.

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or tawdry interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white.

Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—absolutely without competition in price or character.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of a small number specially reserved for binding, the edition of 1871 is already exhausted, and it is now a scarce as well as a valuable book.

NEW FEATURES FOR 1872. The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to the enterprise, wherever it has been introduced, has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American public would recognize and support any sincere effort to elevate the tone and standard of illustrated publications.

That so many weakly wickered sheets exist and thrive is not evidence that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patron, and his paper is rather indicative of his own than of the taste of the country. As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publisher would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American artists.

W. T. Richards, Granville Perkins, James Smiley, Wm. Hart, F. O. C. Darley, R. B. Pigeon, Wm. Howard, Victor Neblig, Frank Board, George Smiley, Wm. H. Wilcox, Paul Dixon, Aug. Will, James H. Brand, J. Dixon.

These pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense, by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE should be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

Literary Department. Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, too much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings it is only necessary to state, that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been intrusted to Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, who has received assurance of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

The Volume for 1872. will contain nearly 300 pages, and about 250 fine engravings. Commencing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautiful tinted plate on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece.

The Christmas number for 1872 will be a splendid volume in itself, containing fifty engravings, (four in tint) and, although retailed at $1 will be sent without extra charge to all yearly subscribers.

A Chromo to every Subscriber was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and reproduced, at great expense, the beautiful oil painting by Sims, entitled "Dame Nature's School." The chromo is 11 x 13 inches, and is an exact fac-simile, in size and appearance, of the original picture. No American chromo, which will at all compare with it, has yet been offered at retail for less than the price asked for THE ALDINE and it together. It will be delivered free, with the January number, to every subscriber who pays for one year in advance.

TERMS FOR 1872. One Copy, one year, with Oil Chromo, $5.00 Five Copies, " " " " " " 20.00
