MONEY-MATTERS are somewhat close here at present.
J. H. WILBER has on hand a splendid lot of toys for the holidays.

G. L. McCracken has purchased G. A. Rathbun's house on South street.
O. G. RICHARDS, of trout-fishing and picture-enlarging fame, is in town.

SERVICES in the Court House next Sunday, morning and evening, by Rev. H. A. Patton.
Six cases of small pox are reported at Wilcox. We would suggest to every person the propriety of getting vaccinated.

S. A. RYDE, West End, is prepared to take pictures all styles and sizes. Now would be a good time to have your picture taken.
THE new bridge across the Clarion river at this place is in course of construction. The bridge is to be built of iron and will be a great improvement on the old wooden structure.

THERE is some talk of having street lamps from the depot bridge to the new bridge across the Clarion. To Mr. W. H. Schram belongs the honor of starting the project, and we hope it may be carried through.
We notice by last week's Democrat that C. W. Barrett, formerly of the St. Mary's Gazette, has taken editorial control of that paper, and will in the future guide its destinies. Curt starts out with a good show of advertisements and a good paper. Success to you Curtis.

GOOD DAY FOR STAMPS—Last Monday postmaster Hazerty cancelled 690 stamps. That's considerably ahead of St. Mary's, but we believe the Cam-roton Herald man is waiting for a good opportunity to tell what Emporium can do in the stamp line, we think this will be a good chance for him to try his hand.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK—for December, 1871.—This excellent Lady's Book has been received for December, and is as usual filled full of choice reading matter; the engravings are superb, and the general appearance neat and jaunty. Now is the time to make up clubs. For club rates etc., address L. A. Godey, Philadelphia, Pa.

HUNTING ON SUNDAY.—If you intend hunting on Sunday, stop and read the following section of the act of April 21st, 1869, and be admonished by it:
Section 7. There shall be no shooting, hunting or trapping on the first day of the week, called Sunday; and any person offending against the provisions of this act shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding twenty-five or less than five dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail where the offense was committed not less than ten days nor more than twenty-five days for each offence.

WHY THE DIFFERENCE?—An Act of Assembly requires the County Commissioners to publish annually a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the county. The same law requires borough, township and school officers to publish a similar statement. Yet few comply. But let the Commissioner, for only one year, omit their duty upon this point, what gigantic frauds would be developed in the imagination of the taxpayer. If the County Commissioners dare not violate the law, why do the borough and township officers persist year after year in doing so?—Clearfield Republican.

NEARLY A TRAGEDY.—Last Tuesday, 22d inst., Jacob Miller a resident of this place shot a man, whose name we have not learned, in the leg with a load of buck-shot. Jacob said he was "foolin'" with the gun when it went off. The man that was shot is boarding at Millers and at the time of the accident "all hands" were under the influence of "the ardent."

PETER'S MUSICAL MONTHLY for December is to hand, containing nineteen choice pieces of Vocal and Instrumental Music, all of which can be had for 30 cents. It seems hard to believe that so much can be furnished for such a small sum, but we know that it is. It comes regularly every month, and contains nothing but good Music. Bound volumes for 1871 are offered, post-paid, for $5. They come elegantly bound in crimson cloth, gilt sides and edges, and are guaranteed to contain $50 worth of choice Piano Music, (some 200 pieces) It ordered per express, $4.50 will secure it. We would advise all those seeking Holiday Presents to bear this work in mind. Music is always a proper present to a lady, and in no other shape can the same amount of good music be bought. It is published by J. L. Peters, 599 Broadway, New York.

Bill.—Hal! hal! hal! Good morning, John; how dy'e do, anyway?
John.—I'm 'all O. K.' but-but-see here, where the duced did that coat come from? Nothing like that in this 'ere town, is there, Bill?
Bill.—Why, yes sree; of course there is. Down to Horton & Miller's; and just look at Jake's boots! They are—

Jake.—Yes; yes; you bet they are something just knoby; and, Pete, just look at his fancy neck tie!
Pete.—Say what 'yer a mind ter boys, that Horton & Miller's store is a snorter, now I tell yer it and! We boys just made it lively while we were there; an—

John.—We are bound to purchase our little duds where we can do the best, and Horton & Miller's is the identical spot; and, John, I'd advise you to just gin 'em a call and see 'how it yerself.' The last seen of John was a tremendous streak of dust left behind him by the effects of his No. 10's making tracks for the new clothing store.

DWELLING BURNED—LOSS OF LIFE.—The Brookville Republican of the 22d inst says: We have learned the particulars of a sad affair that occurred in Millstone township, Elk county, on last Friday morning, by which the dwelling of Mr. John S. Champion was burned, causing the death of an infant child about five months old. Mrs. Champion and her brother, Mr. Jacob Shaffer, were absent from the house measuring some potatoes at a cave near by, when Mr. Shaffer heard a noise at the house, and coming in sight saw smoke coming from the roof. He hurried to the house, passed in through the flames and carried out the infant in the cradle, and then returned and rescued two older children who had taken refuge from the fire under the bed. The two latter were uninjured, but the infant died about two hours after its rescue, having doubtless inhaled the flames. Mr. Shaffer was considerably burned in his effort to save the children, but not seriously. Mr. James Shaffer, brother-in-law, who has made his home with Mr. Champion, lost all his books and papers, and a considerable portion of his clothing; among the former were his discharge from the army and pension papers, a loss that will be hard to replace. Mr. Champion was a member of the 105th regiment, and it is due to him that he receive some substantial remembrance from his old comrades and friends in this his great affliction and misfortune. It is thought the fire was caused by a spark lighting the paper with which the walls were lined, and conveyed by the paper to a lamp sitting on a stand near by, which exploded and set the whole structure on fire. Mr. Champion lost all his household effects, not saving even the clothing of his family.

Beauty is worse than wine, it intoxicates both the holder and the beholder. With poor people, when coal is high the fire is low. Colds should be warmed over frequently, and sore throats taken in before sundown. See the sack open before you buy what is in it; for he who trades in the dark asks to be cheated. A Californian says he raised beets this year, so large that some of his pig-a-tunnels through the centre of some of the largest specimens, without disturbing the outside. A burglar was once frightened out of his scheme of robbery by the sweet simplicity of a solitary spinster, who, putting her right-capped head out of the window, exclaimed, "Go away! ain't you ashamed?"

THE great unknown—people who never advertise.
TOWARD Forty Thousand bottles of Nature's Hair Restorative were sold from Jan. 1st to June 1st, which fact tells its own story. Its so clean, and looks so nice that the ladies are all delighted with it. See advertisement.

THE ADVERTISER'S GAZETTE, a book of over 100 pages, sent by mail to any address for 25 cents. Published by Geo. P. Rowell & Co., Advertising Agents, No. 41 Park Row, New York. The Washington Standard says: "It puts the advertiser on the track of saving money by judicious outlay, and gives information and advice that the oldest and most experienced, as well as new beginners, may find profit in perusing."

TREATMENT OF SMALL POX.—The Bellefonte Republican says: We clip the following from an old paper and give it for what it is worth. To us it looks reliable and we therefore call the attention of our Physicians to it.
A great discovery is said to have been recently made by a surgeon of the British army in China, in the way of an effectual remedy for small pox. The mode of treatment is as follows: When preceding fever is at its height, and just before the eruption appears, the chest is rubbed with croton oil and tartaric ointment. This causes the whole of the eruption to appear on that part of the body to the relief of the rest. It also secures a full and complete eruption, and thus prevents the disease from attacking the internal organs. This is now the established mode of treatment in the English army in China, and is regarded as a perfect cure.

PITTSBURGH FEMALE COLLEGE—WINTER TERM.—Many of our readers will be interested in the announcement that the winter term of the Pittsburgh Female College will commence on Monday evening, December 11. Among the requisites of a good school are good buildings, a well selected course of study, a full and competent Faculty, and judicious and faithful oversight. The College possesses all these, and much more in an eminent degree. The buildings are large, beautiful, tastefully fitted up and well furnished. The course of study has been selected with great care. The Faculty numbers twenty-two experienced teachers. The Literary department is well supplied, and there are special teachers for all the ornamental branches. There are four music teachers, native teachers of French and German, teachers of drawing, painting, needlework, waxwork, &c. The college justly challenges comparison. The management, too, is what every judicious parent must heartily commend. The officers are not content simply to accept the tuition fees, but earnestly labor for the health and comfort and solid and substantial improvement of all committed to their care. A kind but careful and thorough discipline is exercised, and honest and reliable reports sent to parents monthly. Added to all this the prime idea of the school is not to make money. The aim of the trustees is a select school of the highest grade, where charges for board and tuition shall be within reasonable limits. And notwithstanding the college has no peer in the State, and that few equals anywhere the total charges for boarding, light, furnished and carpeted room, first church string and washing, are but two hundred and one dollar per year—less than any school in the United States affording equal advantages and accommodations. If you have daughters to educate send to the President, Rev. I. C. Peshing, D. D., Pittsburgh, Pa., for a catalogue, and do not go farther to fare worse. The chief recommendation of many schools is their exorbitant charges, and yet there are a kind of double dunces who estimate the value of schools, as of all things else, by their charges, and who are only happy when paying treble prices.

BY virtue of a writ of Habeas Corpus issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Elk County, and to me directed, I will expose to sale by public vendue or outcry, at the Court House in Ridgway, on MONDAY, DECEMBER 11th, 1871, at one o'clock, p. m. All that certain tract of land situated in the Village of Centreville, county of Elk and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a stump the north east corner of a lot formerly belonging to Jacob McCauley, known as the school house lot, thence along the Miles brook and Snatchport to spike road, forty-eight feet to a post, thence by land of Wm. McCauley a westerly direction, one hundred and twenty-six feet to a post, thence a westerly course, forty-eight feet to a post, the corner of said Jacob McCauley's or school house lot, thence a northerly course along said lot, one hundred and seventy-six feet to the place of beginning containing thirty one perches more or less. Said lot is improved and fenced, and has a good and comfortable dwelling house, one and one-half stories high erected thereon. Seized and taken in execution as the property of Wm. A. By, defendant, and C. K. Early, terre tenant, at the sale of Jerome Powell, administrator of J. C. Chapin deceased, now for use, and to be sold by D. C. OYSTER, Sheriff, per C. H. McCauley, Dep'ty. Sheriff's Office, Ridgway, Nov. 18th, 1871. v1n31m3.

LEAVING THE EAST and arriving in Chicago or Indianapolis, how shall we reach the West? The best line is acknowledged to be the C. & Q. joined together with the B. & M. Railroad by the Iron Bridge at Burlington, and called the Burlington Route.
The Main line of the Route running to Omaha, connects with the great Pacific Roads and forms to-day the leading route to California. The Middle Branch, entering Nebraska at Plattsmouth, passes through Lincoln, the State Capital, and will this year be finished to Fort Kearney, forming the shortest route across the Continent by over 100 miles.
Another branch of the B. M., diverging at Red Oak, falls into a line running down the Missouri through St. Joe to Kansas City, and all Kansas Passengers by this route to Kansas, see Illinois, Southern Iowa, and Missouri, and by a slight divergence, can see Nebraska also.
Lovers of fine views should remember the Burlington Route, for its towers "high gleaming from afar"—its tree-fringed streams—its rough bluffs and quarries—its corn-oceans stretching over the prairies further than the eye can reach.
Land-buyers will be sure to remember it, for they have friends among the two thousand who have already bought farms from Geo. S. Harris, the Land Commissioner of the B. & M. R. R. at Burlington, Iowa, or among the four thousand home-steaders and pre-emptors who last year filed claims in the Lincoln land office, where "Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm."
