THE PEOPLE'S ADDRESS

"Awake, Arise, or be Forever Fallen!"

TO THE HONEST VOTERS OF ELK CO.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—The time for action is here! We have placed in the field, for all the county offices, men peculiarly fitted for the various positions for which they are respectively named.

For County Treasurer—HEZEKIAH HORTON, of Horton township. For County Commissioner—A. T. ALDRICH, of Jones township.

For County Auditor—A. W. GRAY, of Jay township. For County Judge—RANSOM T. KYLER, of Fox township.

Now is the time to teach designing office-hunting men that the day has gone by when a nomination is equivalent to an election! Now is the time to burst the iron bands of Party! Now let us have the People to assert their rights, and make known the majesty of their power through the ballot-box on Tuesday next!

Remember that the REGULARS, with a keen eye to personal aggrandisement, are ever vigilant—active—unscrupulous! Remember that BEER is already flowing as freely as the waters that trickle down our hillsides! And money is used without stint! To defeat them is no easy task. If we succeed, we must WORK! WORK! WORK!!! If we do our duty, victory is surely ours! And, from this time forth, politicians and parties must heed the wholesome lesson that the office must seek the man, and not the man the office!

Then, Fellow-Citizens, we entreat you, devote a few days to the good of your county! We have only one short week! Let us do our duty!

By order of the People's Convention. JESSEE KYLER, G. D. MESSENGER, E. J. MILLER, H. A. PARSONS, JR., J. POWELL, Committee.

Ridgway, Pa., Oct. 7, 1873.

Also in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An act relating to elections and for other purposes," approved April 16th 1869, it is enacted that the 14th section shall be so construed as to prevent any militia or borough officer from serving as Judge, Inspector, or Clerk, at any general or special election in this Commonwealth.

Also that in the 61st section of said act it is enacted "That every general or special election shall be opened between the hours of six and seven in the forenoon, and shall remain without interruption until seven o'clock in the evening when the polls shall be closed.

ing such election, and within two years paid a State or County tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, but removed therefrom and returned, and shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. And whereas, The Congress of the United States, on the thirty-first day of March 1870, passed an act entitled "An act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and for other purposes," the first and second sections of which are as follows:

Be it enacted, etc., That all citizens of the United States who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote at any election by the people of any State, Territory, district, city, county, parish, township, school district, municipality, or other territorial subdivision shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of color, race, or previous condition of servitude; any constitution, law, custom, usage, or regulation of any State or Territory, or by or under its authority, to the contrary, notwithstanding.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That if, by or under the constitution or laws of any State or the laws of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such constitution or laws persons or officers are or shall be charged with the performance of duties in furnishing to citizens an opportunity to perform such prerequisites, or to become qualified to vote it shall be the duty of every such person and officers to give all citizens of the United States, the same and equal opportunity to perform such prerequisite and to become qualified to vote without distinction of race, color or previous condition of servitude; and if any such persons or officers shall refuse or knowingly omit to give full effect to this section, he shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars, to the persons aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action on the case, with full costs and such allowance for counsel fees as the court shall deem just, and shall also for every such offence be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction thereof be fined not less than five hundred dollars or to be imprisoned not less than one month and not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

And whereas, It is declared by the second section of the VI article of the Constitution of the United States, that "This Constitution of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land * * * anything in the Constitution or laws of any State, to the contrary, notwithstanding."

And whereas, The Legislature of this Commonwealth, on the 6th of April 1870, passed an act entitled "A further supplement to the act relating to elections in this Commonwealth," the tenth section provides as follows:

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained on the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners, unless he first produces a receipt for the payment within two years, of State or County tax, assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence either on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such tax, or on failure to produce such receipt shall make oath of the payment thereof; if he claims to vote by being an elector between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years he shall deposit on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make proof of his residence within his district as required by the act, and that he does verily believe from accounts given him, that he is of the age aforesaid and give such other evidence as is required by the act whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be registered in the alphabetical list by the inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by the word "tax," if he shall have been admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word "age," if he shall have been admitted to vote by reason of age, shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make like notes in the list kept by them.

In all cases where the name of persons claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the commissioners and Assessors, and his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the inspectors duty to examine such persons on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall not be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof thereof, by at least one competent witness who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided within the district, for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make the due proof, if qualified, of his residence and payment of taxes aforesaid, in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.
