Letter from Ohio. CINCINNATI. ORID. ]

DBAR ADVOCATE:

Some folks den't believe in a state of letter a very startling instance of just ratribution for misprinting, was given made it that pious man had made a from Cincinnati. "missionary" out of his boy. . Again, last week, I announced my willingness to have the Royal North American politican slaughtered, and I read in print my sniety to have the R. N. A. Repubonce a good man noted for his vigorous mode of expressing himself, whenever his anger passions rose up. This gentle youth hazled ashes in a cart; and one day his tail board came out at the foot of whill and the more he climbed the hill the faster came the ashes out of his eart. Of course he was fellowed by a crowd of young reprobates, who anxiously waited the moment when he would discover the accident. When he got to the hill top and saw how things were, he rolled up his sleeves; took a good long breath; the muscles of his manly face twitched in agony; his lips moved,but just as the crowd was at a fever heat of anticipalion, the stricken man heaved a sigh and in a voice choked with emotion, gasped out "Boy's! "Taint no use; I cant do it justice."

HARD TIMES AHEAD.

seem inevitable during the coming winter. Already the Station Houses are crowded nightly by people asking for lodging. The majority of them, the people say, are well dressed and respectable; but who have lost their rooms or boarding places by reason of the stopping of so many large manufactories. The usual class well known to the Police as "Lodgers" who sleep in the Market Houses and Lumber Yards in the warm weather, and in the Station Houses in the winter, have not as yet applied in any numbers at the Stations Over 500 men were discarged from two factories last Wednesday; and the same degree. To-day the failure of the Gay lord Pipe company is reported. Some of the more sanguine people look for better times and resumption of all the factories very soon; but it would be wiser to be ready for the worst. It talking of the resumption of specie payments at a time like this. The Sceretary proposes resumption by commencing to pay out silver at all Government Demay be requested. Horace Greeley's plan for resumption was by resuming "The way to resume" he said "is to resume." It may be pardonable in me to suggest that the time and the mode of specie resumption will be determined by the inflexible laws of money and trade and cannot be determined by Treasury or other regulations. The Government can assist, but not control, COURT BUSINESS.

ions of all the Courts, which will have a steady sitting until next June or July, as the business may require. The Criminal branch of the Common Pleas has quite a bloody calendar, interspersed with many other crimes of bloody nature. Since last March five men have been indicted for murder in the first degree; and as Cincinnati has not all of the teuderness of New York. There is a lively prospect of verdicts of guilty and execution of sentences. This feeling is not shared, however, by the prisoners; each one of whom has hopes of acquittal. The first on the list is John Henning who stabbed William Schmidt in a saloop. He occupies his time in decorating the walls of his cell, and is seemingly, perfectly unconcerned. . The second is george Charter, who on April 28th, most brutally beat William Cooke (while he was asleep) over the head with a shove!, until he died. Both were in the employ of some Circus. Number three is named Daniels, who for love of a sixth street "street walker," in broad day light and during market hours, walked up to John McDennott, as he stood at Dry his stand in the market, and drawing a pistol he shot his rival dead. Number four is Charles Fox who was employed as a private policeman in a saloon. The victim was a young man named James O'Keefe, between whom and his mur-derer existed, it is said, a rivilery icr. the affections of one of the gandy cre. . tures who sing at the low concert saloous of which, I am sorry to say Cincinnati has her full share. Number five is Dennis Carly, of whose murder of Neville I have already written. With the exception of Carly and Neville who are Irish boro, the bloody list of slayers and victims is make up of Americans. Besides these are several notorious abortioniats who follow the ostensible trade of "Clairvoyantes." One of themfuture punishment; add of those folks the biggest devil in the lot-Madame you are undoubtedly one. In a recent Sidney Augustine Frazer, has been happily convicted; though it took considerable trouble to accomplish the desirable you in the history of Deacon Smith on ends- Men, who should have been the printer who couldn't read his man- ashamed of themselves, (but who, doubtuscript. It doesn't seem to have been less had special reasons,) took the greatof any effect. For instance, week be- con interest in her defense. She had fore last I spoke of a printer "trying to the very ablest counsel in the State. tell the truth and making a 'miserable and it is but fair to them to say failure" and it read in the ADVOCATE a | they did their part faithfully. Several "seasonable failure" and when I spoke of her class yet remain to be tried; and of the old Presbyterian who made a with their conviction it is hoped their minister of the boy, those unruly type devilish trade will disappear; at least are dull just at present. Pantomimes and sensational plays are the rage. Last week the Georgia Minetrels, composed of Simon Pure negroes were at Pike's licans made way with. Now there was Opera House. They drew excellently; and it is said are the best Minstrel Troupe now traveling; not excepting the Acolians. Perhaps their fame has not completely died out in the hills and valleys of old Ellick. As the Constitutional Convention-probably called the Con-Con .- sits in this city November 1st, perhaps Amusement stock may look up. It is composed, as is usual, of solemn old pumps who have as much idea of a joke as life is anything but a joke, perhaps the Con. Coners are at least half night in wrapping themselves up in ponderous wisdom and discussing questions with the gravity of owls. I think though, a Convention is like a comic paper, a joke once in a while improves

> Dan Rice exhibited in Covington, last week, but did so poorly that he had to pawn his watch to pay for License. He was on a jolly spree, and in explanation, said he didnt care for money; he had enough; but, as he was in his native place he couldn't help getting a little high, and so had got strapped; he said he intended to run for Congress again. Does anybody know just how many native places Dan has on hand?

THE CRY IS STILL THEY COME! Just when the folks at Columbus will get through counting the votes cast at the late election, is more than I can say. After much trouble they footed up that the Demorcats had carried the Governor and the Legislature; and the ballance of the State nau gone to the deviation of the Bernard Bould of the Republicans had it—but yesterday iture factory which it was thought would iture factory which it was thought would iture factory which it was thought would be news came that Daugherty—a St. Mary's Boro'—F X Raberbush J B Butsch Joseph Wintelder Edward publican, for Attorney General, by some 235 majority. Of course 1 don't object to the whole Democratic ticket being elected, but I would just like to know when to quit celebrating. The Times, Republican says some of the Republicans seems like laughing in the face of Death out in the "Western Reserve" voted for for the Secretary of the Treasury to be Daugherty through a "stupid blue der," which is a new way of explaining a loss. It seems to me the Democrats had better do all their rejoicing now; for if they lay in an extra stock of old Bourbon to positories and Sub-Treasuries, when it jubilate over their success in the next Presidental campaign, they'll lose the interest on their investment, and will have to use thewhiskey at a wake instead of a jubilee. The Rapublicans are now trying to get up a row in the Democratic Legislature, hoping to have Thurman set aside and Governor Allen sent to the Senate, but as this little game would make Lieut. Governor Hart, Republican the Governor, it is hardly probable it will succeed. It would not surprise me, The fall has brought with it the sesshowever, to see Pendleton-"Gentleman George"-loom up against Thurman, but he can't win. Thurman has twice carried the State under difficult circumstances, while Pendleton has invariably been whipped. Then the Democratic Committee wanted to coalesce with the Liberals, and give up the party name and machinery. Thurman flatly refused them permission to do so (He owns the party now). His devise was to "blow the horn and rally the boy's"; and, it must be admitted, he and "old Bill allen" blew a strong blast. I don't believe the story, but it is vouched for, that a lot of dead men who had known Bill Allen a couple of hundred years ago, came back to vote for the old
