THE NEW LUNATIC ASYLUM .-- The Commissioners to choose a site for the mew Lunatic Asylum in the Northwest have decided in favor of Warren. Three farms near that town-the Eldred, dent Dem Amarın and Berry farms-containing 329 sares, costing $38,000, were chosen. The Girard people are very mad, because that place was not chosen, and propose to defeat all appropriations next winter for the new institution.

HOME-TALENT CONCERT .- Our good people will please keep in mind that about weeks hence they will be treated to some grand entertainments at the school building. The proceeds will be used for purchasing an ergan of which the school is very much in need. Al must agree that an organ will be a worthy addition to our educational furniture, for its value is manifold. Prof. Courses has sole charge of the musical part of this entertainment and he brings to his aid the best talent of our village. The other part, that of theatricals, declamations, tableaux, &c., is under the control of the teachers of the school. The regular course of school duties is not being disturbed; these efforts are ex-
