THE NEW FINANCE BILL.

Washington, D, C., June 22, 1874. The approval of the Finance bill by the President to-day, was a disappointment to many of the extreme inflationists in both houses, who were very confident that it would be vetoed. The measure fails to meet the views of those opposed to increase in the volume of currency, but they say it is better than no legislation, and will partially revive trade and commerce.

The bill as it was approved by the President is as follows:

An Act fixing the amount of United States notes, providing for a redistri-bution of the National Bank Currency and for other purposes.

Section 1. That the act entitled "An act to provide a national currency secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3, 1874, shall be hereafter known as "the national bank act."

SEC. 2. That secttion 31 of "the national bank act" be so amended that the several associations therein provided for shall not hereafter be required to keep on hand any amount of money whatever, by reason of the amount of their repective circulations; but the moneys required by said sections to be kept at all times on hand shall be determined by the amount of deposits in all respects, as provided for in the said section. SEC. 3 That every association organized, or to be organized, under the provisions of the said act, and of the several acts amendatory thereof, shall at all times keep and have on deposit in the Treasury of the United States, in lawful money of the United States, a sum equal to five per cent, of its circulation, to be held and used for the redemption of such circulation; which sum shall be counted as a part of its lawful reserve, as provided in section 2 of this act and when the circulating notes of any such associations, assorted or unassorted, shall be presented for redemption in sums of $1,000 or any multiple thereof, to the Treasurer of the United States, the same shall be redeemed in United States notes. All notes so redeemed shall be churged by the Treasnrer of the United States to the respective associations issuing the same, and he shall notify them severally on the first day of each month, or oftener at his discretion, of the amount of such redemptions; and whenever such redemptions for any association shall amount to the sum of $500, such association so notified shall forthwith deposit with the Treasurer of the United States a sum in United States notes equal to the amount of its circulating notes so redeemed. And all notes of national banks, worn, defaced warded to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption as provided herein. And when such redemptions have been so reimbursed, the circulating notes so redeemed shall be forwarded to the respective associations by which they were issued; but if any of such notes are worn mutilated defaced or rendered otherwise unfit for use, they shall be forwardedto the Comptroller of the Currency, and destroyed and replaced as now provided by law: provided, That each of said associations shall reimburse to the Treasury the charges for transportation and the costs for assorting such notes; and the associations hereafter organized shall also severally reimburse to the Treasury the cost of engraving such plates as shall be ordered by each asscciation respectively; and the amount assessed upon each association shall be in proportion to the circulation redeemed. and be charged to the fund on deposit with the Treasurer: And provided farther. That so much of section of said national-bank act requiring or permitting the redemption of its circulating notes cept as provided for in this section, is hereby repealed. Sec. 4 That any association organized under this act, or any of the acts of which this is an amendment, desiring to withdraw its circulating notes, in whole or in part, may, upon the deposit of law-ful money with the Treasurer of the United States in sums of not less than $9,000, take up the bonds which said association has on deposit with the Trea- Kittaning Point, where the Pennsylsurer for the security of such circulat ing notes; which bonds shall be assigned to the bank in the manner specified in the nineteenth section of the national bank act; and the outstanding notes of this interesting series is the Old said association, to an amount equal to Aqueduct on the Conemaugh River, in the legal tender notes deposited, shall which shows the ruins of a great stone be redeemed at the Treasurer of the United States, and destroyed as now provided by law; Provided, That the his war trappings and ugly features. amount of the bonds on deposit for eir- Our Pet shows as handsome a female culation shall not be reduced below face, with as perfect a profile as has regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. cause the charter numbers of the association to be printed upon all national bank notes which may be hereafter issued by him.

SEC. 6. That the amount of United States notes outstanding and to be used as a part of the circulating medium shall not exceed the sum of $382,000,000, which said sum shall appear in each monthly statement of the public debt and no part thereof shall be held or used as a reserve. Sec. 7. That so much of the act entitled "An aet to provide for the redemption of the 3 per cent, temporary-loan certificates, and for an increase of National bank notes," as provides that no circulation shall be withdrawn, under the provisions of section 6 of said act until after the fifty-four millions granted in section 1 of said act shall have been taken up, is hereby repealed; and it shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the Currency, under the directions of the Secetary of the Treasury, to proceed forthwith, and he is hereby authorized and required from time to time, as applications shall be duly made therefor, and until the full amount of $51,000 000 shall be withdrawn to make requisitions upon each of the national banks described in said section, and in the manner therein provided, organized in States having an excess of circulation to withdraw and return so much of their circulation as by said act may be apportioned to be withdrawn from them, or, in lieu thereof, to deposit in the Treasury of the United States lawful money suffi. cient, to redeem such circulation, and upon the return of the circulation required, or the deposit of lawful money. as herein provided, a proportionate amount of the bonds held to secure the circulation of such association as shall make such return or deposit shall be surrendered to it.

SEC, 8. That upon the failure of the national banks upon which requisition for circulation shall be made, or any of them, to return the amount required, or to deposit in the Treasury lawful money to redeem the circulation required, within thirty days, the Comptroller of the Currency shall at once sell as provided in section 49 of the national cuirency act approved June 3, 1864, bonds held to s cure the redemption of the circulation of the associations which shall so falt, to an amount sufficient to redeem the circulation requited of such association or associations, and with the proceeds, which shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States, so much of the circulation of such association or associations shall be redeemed as will equal the amount required and not returned; and if there be an excess of proceeds, over the amount required for such redemption, it shall be returned to the association or associations whose bonds shall have been sold. And it shall be the duty of the Treasury, assistant treasurers, designated depositaries and national bank depositaries of the United States, who shall be kept informed by the Comptroller of the Currency of such associations as shall fail to return to the Treasury for redemption the notes of such associations as shall, come into their hands until the anount required shall be redeemed, and in like manner to assort and return to the Treasury for redemption, the notes of such national banks as have failed, of gone into voluntary liquidation for the purpose of winding up their affairs and of such as shall hereafter so fail or go into liquid .-

SEC 9. That from and after the passage of this act it shall be lawful for the Comptroller of the Currency, and be is hereby required, to issue circulating notes, without delay, as applications therefor are made, not to exceed the sum of $55,000,000, to associations organized, or to be organized, in those States and Territories having less than their proportion of circulation, under an apportionment made on the basis of population and of wealth, as shown by the returns of the census of 1870; and every association hereafter organized shall be subject to, and be governed by Grand Central Stone mutilated or otherwise unfit for circu'a the rules, restrictions and limitations, tion shall, when received by any assis- and possess the rights, privileges, and tant treasurer or at any designated decribed by law as to national banking associations, with the same power to amend, alter, and repeal provided by "the national bank act;" Provided, That the whole amount of circulation withdrawn and redeemed from banks fransacting business shall not exceed $55,000,000, and that such circulation shall be withdraw and redeemed as it shall be necessary to supply the circulation previously issued to the banks in these States having less than their ap-portionment; And Provided further That no more than $30,000,000, shal, be withdrawn and redeemed as contemplate during the fiscal year ending June

A COLLECTION of thirteen excellent pictures, all fine works of art, embellish the July ALDINE, which is the finest publication in the world for the drawing room. The pictures in the ALDINE are new, beautiful, interesting, and exquisite as gems of art, Mr Thomas Moran opens the July number with an appropriate and full-page tinted picture-'A Storm in the Mountains," which is elsewhere than at its own counter, ex- full of the midtummer splendor and action of a July thunder-storm. David Neal contributes a full page picture of Watt and the Kettle, it being a copy of his famous painting now on exhibition at the Royal Academy, London. Young steam power. Three charming pictures of Penasylvania scenery are contributed by John Hows, a full page picture showing the great Horse Shoe Bend at vania Railway crosses the Allegheny Mountains. Another picture is Kettle Run, Altoona, a wild, gloomy looking brook in a deep woods. The last of bridge. An Indian Scout is a strong picture, showing the red man with all ever been seen in print. DHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS.

A prominent New York physician lately complained to Dundas Dick, about his San-dalwood Oil Capsulas, stating that sometimes they cured miraculously; but that a patient of his had taken them for sometimwithout effect. On being informed that several imitations were made and sold, he inquired and found that his patient had been taking capsulas sold in bottles, and not DUNDAS DICK & CO'S.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO., take this method of protecting "Oil of Sandalwood" from this disrepute.

PHYSICIANS who once prescribe the Capsulas will CONTINUE TO DO SO, for they contain the PURE OIL in the BEST AND CHEAPEST form. OIL OF SANDLEWOOD is fact super-seding every other remedy, sixty Capsules ONLY being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight days. From no other medicine can this result be had. DICK'S SOFT CAPSULES solve the prob lem long considered by many eminent phy sicians, of how to avoid the nausea and dis gust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to detract from, if not destroy, the good effects of many valuable remedies Soft Capsules are put up in tin-foil and neat boxes, thirty in each, and are the only capsules prescribed by Physiciaus.

THESE WERE THE ONLY CAP-SULES ADMITTED TO THE LAST PARIS EXPOSITION.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring Gray on Faded Hair to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimu-lates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
