Isaac Horton and the Advocate.

In the ADVOCATE issued week before election, we took occassion, in an article labeled "A Lie Nailed" to say that, we heard that stories were circulated, in the interest of Mr. Horton, to the effect that Mr. Wensel was a deserter etc. At the time of the publication of the above mentioned article, we believed the story to be true, and only published it because we thought

Since then we have been convinced that the story was circulated to miure Mr. Horton by some one in the interest of some one else, not Mr. Wensel, however, and that Mr. Horton nor his friends for him had no hand in the matter. We make this statement in justice to Mr. Horton, and not to secure his favor, as he has already stopped his subscription to the ADVOCATE. which he had a perfect right to do.

We might add if we have incurred the displeaure of any one - through our support of Mr. Wensel, we are sorry for it, although under the same circumstances we should "do as we have done."

A STRANGE potato was found at Nunda recently, which the Dansville Advertiser describes as follows: "It was dug in that town, weighed about three pounds and contained within itself a very singular thing. A stemlike something protruding from one end was seen to move as if it had life. The potato was cut open, and the stem was found to be the tail of a something inside which seemed to be half potato and half animal. It was about as large as a mouse, of a brown color, was shaped like a potato, with indentions like potato eyes, and ye' seemed to be composed of animal flesh and had life and motion! No one had seen anything at all resembling it. It was to be taken to Rochester and shown

WELCOME OH SUNSHINE! Come in the Spring; with thy golden wing Brush from the earth its cover of snow, Fan thou the embers of li.e to a glow, Bring back the birds to carol and sing: Welcome, O Sunshine, welcome in spring.

GLORIOUS SUNSHINE Come in the Summer; with thy pallet and Paint us the mountains in their azure mist. Paint us a cloud which thou 'hast kissed' Spread o'er the sky its evening blush,

And tinge it at neon with a ruddy flush, FRUITFUL SUNSHINE? Linger in Summer with ripening ray; Brood ore the ccops of upland and plain, Give to the farmer his ripered grain, Give to the ox his well carned hay. Rule then the earth with thy loving sway

GOLDEN SUNSBINEL Jome in the Autumn with thy golden rod, Turn with its touch turn the corn yellow, Turn with its touch, turn the fruit mellow, Sentter the brown leaves on the sod, 98 Ripen the clover in its tiny pod.

MERRY SUNSHING Stay through the Winter, keep us in cheer, Lough at the snow, laugh at the frost, Turn them to diamends, bought without

98 Loose from their prison the river and mere, And melt with thy pity the frozen tear, Give us the aid of thy subtle ski 1. Build us the oak, build us the pine, Mingle the san for the truitful vine; Juices that nourish, juices that kill

99 Fresh from thy wondrous retorts distil, PAITHFUL SUSSILINE! 96 | Bring to us, back from the greedy sea Water to christen the earth with rain, Water to fill the river again. Bring it in dews for the thirsty tree,

Bring it in clouds abundant and free. REALING SUNSIL NE Vis't the sack, visit the sad; At thy smile through window or door, At thy step on the chamber floor,

DEATH FROM FALLING DOWN STAIRS .- We mentioned in last week's issue, the death of Michael Kearney. from falling down stairs, while under the influence of liquor. His death occured shortly after midnight on Wednesday. An inquest was held upon his body by 'Squire Cummings, acting coroner. The jury was composed of Geo. Dickinson, O. B. Fitch, J. D Fullerton, O. B. Grant, L. S. Garritt and T. J. Wheeler, the verdiet of which was "that the said Kearney was in a state of intoxication and fell down the stairs at the boarding house of Dickinson Bros., in Ridgway township; and further, that the injury produced by the full was the cause of his death. We would hereby express our feelings of censure against the person or persons who furnished the liquor to produce the state of intoxication he was in." The body of
