HEALTH OF PHILADELPHIA.—The report of the mortality in Philadelphia for the year just closing, shows there were fewer deaths this year than last. There were 16,736 deaths in the year ending December 28, 1874, and but 15,393 down to that date this year, a decrease of 1,343. This shows a better average condition of health this year than last so that if 1874 is to be remembered beyond other years on account of its financial misfortunes and business depression, there is at least to be placed to its credit the fact of a decreased mortality. From the monthly statistics published, last summer appears to have been comparatively one of the healthiest summers we have ever had, and to this fact is chiefly owing the smaller number of deaths.

"DON'T KISS THE BABY."—This adjuration comes from the Scientific American. The danger it finds in the kissing of babies is, that diphtheria may be given to them by an adult who has the disease in such a mild form that he (or more probably she) treats it only as a cold. The American admits that it would be absurd to charge the spread of diphtheria entirely to the practice of "child-kissing," but says that it is hard to conceive of any mode of propagation more directly suited to the spread of the infection. It is so natural for good men and good women to kiss bright little children and it is a sign of good will and affection so readily understood by the babies that they might after all suffer more from living without either kisses or diphtheria than from dying with both.

New Orleans, January 4.—The proposed compromise in the State Government is now said to have been based upon a private understanding by which Antoine, Lieutenant Governor, and Brown, Superintendent of Public Education, both colored, were to give way to Penn and Luther, and the Kellogg government. At present there is little prospect of its being effected. The entire forces of the White League were yesterday secretly ordered to meet to-day at their armories at six a. m. with twenty-five rounds of ammunition and twenty-four hours' rations. The State House to-day is garrisoned by a strong force of police and the State militia. The Conservatives returned will then be allowed to take their seats as quietly as possible and form a quorum. Several days will be allowed for this purpose. If they persist in remaining out the Governor will issue a proclamation ordering a new election in their respective districts. Prominent White Leaguers disclaim any intention to take a part in to-day's proceedings.

A Republican member of the Legislature named Terrebonne was killed last night in a personal difficulty.

A band of robbers has just been broken up in Paris. They called themselves "Chevaliers des Cravattes Vertes," and were known to one another by a peculiar green neck-tie which each wore. The band contains 143 members of young men of good family connections, and were commanded by a former Captain of the Commune, named Godard. Early in December, one of the band, named Gassnier, was arrested in the act of committing a robbery. He showed the white feather, and told the agent of the police where to find some of his comrades. Godard, the leader, and fifteen of his associates in crime were arrested, and the detectives were now on the trail of forty-nine others. In the pocket of each of the robbers was found the green neck-tie, the badge of the order.

From the last report of the Vermont Fish Commissioners it appears that 2,000,000 young shad were distributed last year.

ROBT. GERRIT SMITH died in New York on Monday, after a short illness, at the age of 78 years. For more than half a century Mr. Smith has been known to the nation and the world as a philanthropist. He was a leader in the anti-slavery movement, an active temperance man, and a prominent member of the American Peace Society. He gave his money and lands to the poor without stint, and he lived to see much good come of his liberal charities.

Harrisburg, Jan 4.—The Democratic members of the House held a caucus this afternoon, at which Mr. Patterson, of Allegheny county, was nominated for speaker, and Mr. Woolver, of Lehigh, for chief clerk. At the caucus of Republican senators, Mr. Cutler, of Erie, was nominated for speaker, and Mr. Russel Errett for chief clerk.

The true name of the victim of the Des Moines mob was Charles Henry Howard Nelson. His father is a wealthy metal broker in New York City. When but sixteen years of age he was sent to college, but soon joined a traveling minstrel troupe. He was the champion banjo player of the United States. He had not visited the home of his parents for the past eight years, and at the time of his death was thirty-eight years of age.

Memphis, January 4.—Particulars of the murder of the Borum family, of Shannon, Mississippi, have just been received. They show that the murderers called Borum to the door on Saturday night week past, and then shot him. They then entered his wife, and killed her and two children, aged two and nine years, and also killed a negro boy. They robbed the house of seven hundred dollars and then escaped after firing it. No clue to the perpetrators is yet found. Great excitement prevails.

A very extensive as well as valuable mine was discovered early last summer by S. E. Townsend, Francis Honeyman and A. Wiseman, near the base of the range of mountains lying on the southwest side of Clover Valley, Nevada, about one mile from the residence of Honeymoon. The vein in question is a large and well defined one, and runs nearly north and south, inclining to the west, carrying a uniform width of vein matter of some four to five feet. The specimens or plates of glass that have been extracted from the mine are from twelve to fourteen inches square, without a scratch or blemish. The texture fine and the appearance is clear and transparent, although the mine is only opened to a few feet in depth. The greater the depth obtained the clearer and more elastic is the glass found to be.

PHILADELPHIA.

INAUGURATION OF HON. W. S. STOKELY CENTENNIAL MAYOR.

Philadelphia, January 1.—To-day Wm. S. Stokely, Mayor elect, was inaugrated Centennial Mayor. The assemblage was very large, and included the Judges of the Courts, members of Congress and Councils, and other dignitaries. The Common Council chamber, where the inauguration took place, was beautifully decorated and great eclat was added to the occasion by the fact that Mr. Stokely will be the Centennial Mayor. The inaugural address contained many strong points, and were well received. He said the work of preparation for the Centennial exhibition was progressing very satisfactorily, and on every side the interest appears to be increasing and its success becoming more assured.

NEW YORK.

MAYOR WICKHAM'S MESSAGE — THE CITY'S DEBT—IMPROVEMENTS SUGGESTED.

NEW YORK, January 4.—The Board of Aldermen met at noon to-day, and the Mayor's message was read. It states it is impossible to give the amount of the debt of the city. The Comptroller's statement shows the total debt, less sinking fund, to be one hundred and fifteen million dollars. There is also a floating debt of ten to twenty millions. The message also suggests a change in the method of levying taxes. The city's creditors must be paid promptly; the public works should be pushed rapidly, which can be done without increasing the debt; the Riverside park and the Morningside avenue should be completed; this will give work to many now idle and suffering. A new bridge is necessary for the increased travel over the Harlem river, less money should be expended on Central Park; new docks should be pushed forward, and the new court house should be completed. The police department should be relieved of street cleaning, several taxes should be stringently collected. The Tombs should be altered. Rapid transit is necessary and the Harlem River tunnel should be rapidly pushed; also the Brooklyn bridge. The above are the most important points of the message

The apple crop of Connecticut in 1874 was worth $2,000,000.

Eight hundred thousand more women than men in England!

The New Haven lady who recently bequeathed $25,000 to her pastor was Mrs. Josephine Hillhouse, and the lucky man is the Rev. Dr. Harwood, rector of the Episcopal Church.

The general suspension of furnaces and forges in Pennsylvania has thrown about 17,000 workmen out of employ.

The cost of supporting the paupers of Great Britain is about $60,000,000; those of the United States about $10,000,000.

An extended strike of miners in East Flanders, Belgium, has just terminated.

The proprietor of a Boston eating-house advertises "sacred clam chowder every Sunday evening."

Queen Victoria carried off the first prize for pigs and Herefordshire heifers at the Christmas cattle show in London.

The manufacture of iron for the new custom house, of Chicago, employs 240 men.

It is estimated in Brooklyn that there are now three times as many men out of employment in that city as was the case at the same time last year.

By the will of a Baltimore gentleman, just deceased, $40,000 are appropriated to the Theological Department of the University of Boston, and $10,000 to the charitable institutions in Baltimore.

The Park Commission of Boston have prepared a report, in which they recommend the establishment of a series of parks around the city, all of them connected by a broad boulevard.

A lady says critics are like drunken men whose breath indicates what liquor they have been imbibing. As she reads, she can tell whether in the last week they have been reading Macaulay or De Quincy or Carlyle.

Oliver Downing, a well known Boston architect has just died on the day of the funeral of his wife, he being ninety years old, and she eighty-seven, and they have lived together sixty-seven years.

A distinguished contralto is reported to have said: "A young girl in her training must make a covenant with her eyes, and not look upon a man. I am now thirty-two years of age, and have never yet had time for beaux. I shall sing for at least four years."

The frequency of incendiary fires has induced the Boston fire underwriters' union to take steps to remedy the evil by preventing them if possible, or devising some means to detect the guilty parties. The movement has resulted in the appointment of detective Bagley to investigate the origin of all fires. This is irrespective of whether claims for losses are made on the company or not, and is in the event of fires the causes for which are not satisfactorily explained to the committee, the adjustment of losses to be suspended for further investigation by the companies. Much is expected from the arrangement.

APPLETONS AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA—that the revised, and elegantly illustrated edition of this work, now being published, a volume of 800 pages once in two months, is the best Cyclopedia in America, is certain. No library is complete without it. It is a complete one in itself. It only costs $3 a month to get it in leather binding. The best and cheapest library in the world.

The brewers of Cincinnati are using corn meal and rice flour mixed with the usual barley malt in making lager beer. At least these substances go there in large quantities, presumably for that purpose, although neither of the brewers will admit that he is a consumer. Rice is cheaper than barley, as it contains more starch, but it imparts to the beer an unpleasant aftertaste. Corn gives a peculiar sweetness that is disliked by most beer drinkers. Any adulteration of lager is resented by the western Germans, and consequently there is much excitement in Cincinnati.

Captain E. B. Ward, of Detroit, a very large vessel owner, and proprietor of rolling mills and silver smelting works at Wyandotte, and a large mine owner, dropped down in the street at 10:50 this morning, and expired in ten minutes. The cause of his death is supposed to be apoplexy.

Just think, if you swear off using tobacco and wearing clothes after the 1st of January you can save $5 per week at least, and $5 per week for 1,000 years is $260,000.—Detroit Free Press.

Fairly Won.

Edward Payson Weston has at last given all his rivals and chaffers back seats. Last week, on Saturday night, at the Rink in Newark, New Jersey, he fairly and fully accomplished the trying feat of walking five hundred miles in six days. He did his work in about twenty-four minutes less than the six days, averaging a mile every fourteen minutes and fourteen seconds. The feat has never been accomplished before in this country. When he concluded he was in fine physical condition, fully as good as when the start was made. The citizens of Newark are to present him with a costly gold watch and $1,000, as a testimonial to his pluck, endurance and determination to keep on till he succeeded. Boys, here is a good lesson for you. Weston has been sneered at, laughed at, and given all manner of names; but he kept on trying, till at last he has fairly walked into the fullest measure of success. It is the long pull that wins. Not the long pull at the whiskey bottle, but the determined, persistent effort that brings the best reward. Such work rears mammoth shops, establishes profitable enterprises, builds up living newspapers, awakens the attention of the people, secures fortunes, accumulates knowledge and stamps the enduring man as one possessed of good material.

We congratulate the plucky pedestrian on the fair accomplishment of his task. No horse in the world could endure such an effort, and we doubt if there is another man in the world possessed of such excellent staying qualities.—Pomeroy's Democrat.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the pills which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves the virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper in each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
