

Republican State Convention.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania are requested to assemble, by their delegates, in the Opera House, in the city of Lancaster, at noon, on WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, 1875, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and State Treasurer.

Each Senatorial and Representative district will be entitled to the same representation therein as they are entitled to under the present apportionment of Senators and Representatives in the Legislature.

By order of the Republican State Committee. RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman. A. WILSON NORRIS, Sec'y.

Officers of the State Agricultural Society at Harrisburg, whose means of information are ample, are of the opinion that the late sudden change from mild to cold weather will seriously injure the early fruit, peaches, &c. The warm weather of two weeks ago forced the buds of these trees, and the sudden severe changes it is feared has destroyed the greater portion of them.

The Venango Spectator of the 29th ult., says: "The lumbermen of Jefferson, Clarion, Elk, Forest and Warren counties who float their lumber to the Pittsburgh market on the Allegheny river and its tributaries, are compelled to move on down the Ohio with their rafts. The Pittsburgh lumberjacks are overworked on old stock and there are no buyers. It is certain that the markets of the west are also very poor, and lumbermen are likely to leave heavily on their winter business.

The Clearfield Republican says:—This is the name of the new township created out of parts of Bell, Ferguson and Penn township at the March term, and the Court ordered an election to be held at the hotel occupied by Samuel Hulman, in said township, on the 11th day of May, 1875, for the election of the necessary township officers.

We learn that the Board of Pardons has recommended the pardon of Thomas Waple, who was convicted in 1871 of placing obstructions on the railroad track, near Wallacetown, and sentenced to seven years imprisonment. They also recommended the pardon of David Ball, convicted in 1869 of "murder in the second degree," for killing a man named Seath, and sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

THE COAL REGION.

Pottsville, Pa., May 16.—To-day, near Hamburg, St. Michael's Lutheran and Reformed Church was dedicated. A large concourse of people came from the surrounding country to attend the dedication. During the services a fire broke out in a grove where a large number of horses and carriages were tied to trees. The ground being thickly covered with leaves and brush, the fire spread with great rapidity.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

At Shenandoah last night a strange man entered the house of Eli Hoas in mistake. Hoas discharged two shots at him, the last one taking effect near the heart. The man is in a critical condition and cannot recover.
