An interesting fact regarding the loss and destructon of fractional currencys by which the government is the gainer, is developed in the case of the three and five cent notes. The issue of been issued $602,000 of the denomination of three cents, and $570,000 of the five cent series, and, although over six years have elapsed, there are still outstanding $92,000 in three cent notes, and over $187,000 of the five

Washington, Oct., 25- Thirty thousand cigars were recently seized in a tobacco store of this city on the alleged ground that the owner had failed to comply with the requirements of existing revenue laws It appeared that he has had the larger portion of cigars manufactured for him in Baltimore The charge against him is that be tailed to brand the boxes with his name and the collection district in which he resides. As a matter of fact the boxes were stamped, but not with a "hot branding-iron," as the law requires. Upon a presentation of the facts in the case by Mr Loughran, it was decided by Commissioner Pratt that it the person who manufactured the eigars in Baltimore can satisfy the department that he has heretofore complied with the law and meant no intentional violation in the matter of branding as executed by him, the department will release the stock detained if in addition he will properly stamp the seized boxes It is probable the matter will be satisfactorlly settled to-morrow._

The following good joke is got off on Sam Bowles, who will probably laugh as heartily over it as anybody: "The other day, Sam Bowles went to church, in Springfield, Mass., and, feeling the effect of his severe editorial labors through the week, fell to napping, Byand-by he was awaken by the preacher, who struck his desk and shouted: 'Who shall be able to stand up in the presence of the Lord on that awful day?" And Sam Bowles, rising in his pew, remarked: "Charles Francis Adams is the only man that can do it; and I nominate him for the position."

In the Repoldsville hunting match of October 5th there were forty-eight hunters engaged-twenty-four on each Jacksonville, Fiorida, via New York, by side. They killed three hundred and forty-three heads of game as follows: 110 red squirrels, 182 black and grey squirrels, 31 pheasants, 7 pigeons, 5 woocceks, 1 rabbit, 2 wood chucks, 1 poreupine, 2 large owls, 1 chicken hawk and I receoon.

Leaving out the porcupine this, according to our tally list, will foot up eight hundred and forty-three points, Game is evidently more abundant in that section than this, as our seventy men only killed seven hundred and ten points,-Rafisman's Journal.

The Governor of Pennsylvania will doubtless join in the recommendation of the President and issue his proclamation naming the same day. THE NEW POSTAL CARDS-Most people, we thick, must have been disappointed at the appearance of the new postal cards, after the praise with which they were beheralded. It was even aunounced that the "the Postmaster General was in receipt of a multitude of congratulations" on their elegance; and this may be true, as some people compliment on everything, especially where a dispenser of patronage is concerned. The cards cannot be called hand-ome in any respect, but they have the great advantage over the old style of presenting better surface for writing upon; as this after all, is the main consideration in the matter, the new cards must be accounted an improvement But in the way of appearance something much better could be schieved, and doubtless one day will be.

Large quantities of provision are sent from New York to Cuba, and all the steamersare so full and so much more room demanded by the owners of freight now on and that several more steamers will be sent out within the next fortnight. It is supposed that when the additional seven thousand troops land from Spain that the export of provisions will double.

He was arrested, but a mob took him out of jail on Eriday night and hanged him to a telegraph pole. the chefiff with a posse arrived and cut him down in time to save his life, but the mob were determined, and at four o'clock yester-lay morning they took him out again, and finally stopped his murdering proclivities by hanging him until dead.

From the statistics pow being made up to accompany the Postmusters General's report, it is ascertained that the total numin a short time and hence this move is ber of letters sent to the dead letter office during the last fiscal year was 3,640,797. Many of these letters contained money, checks, jewelry, photographs, and other articles of value: The total amount of bankable funds enclosed was about three goods at and below cost to enable both and a half million dollars, of which over rich and poor to obtain goods at very three millions were delivered to the owners.

Among the smaller but significant President Grant Las issued his pre- indications of the revival of business postage stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards were sold to the amount of $2,005,000, being the largest sale ever made by the department within the time mentioned.
