FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES.

J. S. BORDWELL is Local Agent for all kinds of Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, Roses, Flowers, &c., from the best Nursery in the state of New York.

Snow storm to-day Mud adorns our streets. This is the Centennial Year. Township election will soon be here.

It is said that during the recent warm weather the trees have budded. The Auditors are now settling with Treasurer Windfelder.

This is not much of a year for sleigh riding. Squire Bailey looks down his nose now because marriages are so scarce.

Coal dealers are out of humor with this weather. Jack frost has made his appearance again in this region.

"Old Probabilities" has knocked the calculation out of our weather prophets. Company H paraded the streets on New Year's Day.

Go to the ADVOCATE office for fine job work. The Auditors' Settlement will be published during the month of February.

Try the ADVOCATE this year. A few dollars spent for a county paper is a profitable investment.

There will be a Tricennial Assessor and two assistants elected at the Spring election. The boys now have to wait until the girls ask them. It is leap year you know.

Jacob McCauley, the new County Treasurer will have his office in the Court House in the room once occupied by the ADVOCATE office.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Inasmuch as this is the Centennial Year, and moreover ye quill driver of ye ancient newspaper, yeelp ADVOCATE, is sadly in need of funds to purchase some of the necessities of life, and withal to pay for some that he has already, and has also other expenses and little money, we would suggest to the said editor's numerous patrons to think if they have not a stray dollar or two belonging, not to themselves which they might send to the rightful owner the said patient editor. In other words pay up that we may pay our debts. The present volume will end on March 1st and we hope all delinquents will square their accounts by that time.

LET IT BE RECORDED.—The first of January came this year pleasant and delightful. At midnight the roaring of the gudgeon and ringing of bells made night hideous. We awoke and imagined it to be the fourth of July. No snow was on the ground and mud reigned supreme in our streets. While we are basking in warm sunshine and summer weather we are told that in more southern latitudes snow and ice abound where the like has never been known before. Is it possible that our Centennial year will witness a complete turn about in the climates of the universe. At present writing we have had four beautiful summer days in the month of January. P. S.—We may change our mind about this weather business in our next issue.

COMMISSIONERS' CLERK.—On Monday and on Tuesday the new Board of County Commissioners were puzzled as to who should be their clerk for the ensuing year.

The following names were proposed. Geo. Ed. Weis, James Rogan, and L. H. Garner, of St. Marys; C. S. Luther, of Fox; J. D. Fullerton, W. S. Horton, M. S. Kline, J. K. Whitmore, and Henry A. Parsons Jr. of Ridgway. Geo. Ed. Weis of St. Marys seemed at first to be the successful applicant, until the question of salary was raised when he declined, (or his friends for him) to take less than $550. The Commissioners had already decided not to give more than $500 to any man. A compromise was finally effected by the Commissioners agreeing to give the office to a Democrat the first year, a Republican the second and a Democrat the third.

With this understanding W. S. Horton was chosen as the Democrat candidate for the first year at a salary of $400. Mr. Horton is at present Deputy Prothonotary, and is every way qualified to perform the important duties of Commissioners' Clerk. We wish him success.

Heretofore the salary of Commissioners' Clerk has been $800 a year, and we think the new board of Commissioners are to be congratulated on saving the county $400 a year. We believe that retrenchment will now be the order of the day, as it should be, and we may hope, ere the three years for which the Commissioners are elected are up, to see Elk County orders at par, a consummation most devoutly to be wished.

Our old friend Levi Eitrope was in town the other day and we are sorry to learn is suffering from a painful swelling on his neck.

Company H, will hold a Social Hop at Maginnis' Hall on Friday evening. A general invitation is extended to all Tickets one dollar.

A San Francisco Grand Jury has refused to indict a girl for shooting the man who disgraced her.

They have arrested a man in Nevada for leasing his wife by the month to the highest bidder.

A Norristown girl declares that it just doubles the value of a kiss to have to borrow it from under a moustache.

A Large Number of rare and valuable books next week at the New York Store. Call there for a Descriptive Price List.

A Detroit widow was found weeping by the body of a dead jackass explained her agitation by the remark that when she saw the departed animal the memory of her poor dead husband came upon her with irresistible force.

At Salt Lake the other day a young lady from the interior entered a store, and called for a pair of stockings. The clerk politely asked her what number she wore. "Why, two, you darned fool; do you suppose I am senescent or e tarantula? How many do you suppose a two-legged hair-pin like me would wear?"

We have received from the Home Insurance Co, 135 Broadway New York, a Centennial Calendar, handsomely illustrated, and with descriptions of some of the principle events which occurred in the years of the struggle for American Independence. It is in fact the handiwork of the artist of the century. H. M. Powers is the agent of the "Home" for this place. We also notice their assets are $5,500,000.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS.—Last Monday Messrs. W. H. Osterhout, Geo. Reischer, and Michael Weidert qualified as County Commissioners; W. H. Hyde, and R. I. Spangler as County Auditors. Mr. Rothrock, Republican Auditor elected did not put in an appearance. The bond of Jacob McCauley as Treasurer, in the sum of $40,000, was approved. J. S. Hyde, and Meredith Bros. are the bondsmen. Mr. Rothrock made his appearance on Tuesday and was sworn in.

Joseph Bark, City Treasurer of Buffalo, has decamped, being a defaulter to the amount of $320,000. His bonds amount to $350,000.

It has been agreed that the Plymouth Church council demanded by Mrs. Moulton shall convene Tuesday, January 18.

Another collision between whites and blacks is reported to have taken place at Clinton, Miss. The military have been called out.

Negotiations are pending with Austria with regard to the construction of a direct railway between Vienna and Constantinople.

The recent "Labor Reform Convention" at Tyrone turns out to have been a fraud. Only about twenty-five delegates were in attendance.

New York, December 24.—The reports received here of Tweed's arrival in Cuba are credited by most of the police officials. It is hardly probable that the Sheriff will make any attempt to arrest him, as there is no extradition treaty with Spain.

Superintendent Walling thinks the news is likely to be true. The report is that he reached Havana in the steamer "Thyrin." He probably sailed about December 4th.

The Sheriff still holds to the opinion that his wholen person has not left the vicinity of New York city.
