Hayes' Letter of Acceptance. A BRIEF REVIEW OF LIVE ISSUES-ONE PRES IDENTIAL TERM-A FIRM STAND ON THE CUR-

RENCY QUESTION-CIVIL SERVICE REFORM. Cincinnati, July 9-- The following is the letter of Governor Hayes accepting the Republican nomination for the Presidency:

Columbus Ohio, July 8, 1876,-Hon, Edward McPherson, Hon. Wm. A. Howard, Hon. Jos. H. Rainey, and others, Committee of the Republican National Convention.—Gentlemen: In reply to your official communication of June 17, by which I am informed of my nomination for the office of President of the United States by the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati, I accept the nomination with gratitude, hoping that under Providence I shall be able, if elected, to execute the duites of the high office, as a trust for the benefit of all the people. I do not deem it neccessary to enter upon any extended examination of the declaration of the principles made by the convention. The resolutions are in accord with my views, and I heartily concur in the principles they announce. In several of the resolutions, however, questions are considered which are of such importance that I deem it proper to briefly express my conviction in regard to them. The fifth resolution adopted by the convention is of para mount interest. More than forty years ago a system of making appointments to office grew up, based upon the maxim "to the victors belong the spoils." The rule, the true rule that honesty, capacity and fidelity constitute the only real qualifications for office, and that there is no other claim gave place to the idea that party services are to be chiefly considered. All parties in practice have adopted this system. It has been essentially modified since its first introduction,

It has not however, been improved.

CIVIL SERVICE.

At first the President, either directly or through the heads of departments made all the appointments but gradually the appointing power in many cases passed into the control of members of Congress. The offices in these cases have become, not merely rewards for party services, but rewards for services to party leaders. This system destroys the independence of the separate department of the government. It tends directly to extravagance and official incapacity. It is a temptation to dishonesty. It hinders and impairs that careful supervision and strict accountabilty by which alone faithful and efficient public service can be secured. It obstracts the prompt removal and sure punishment of the unworthy. In every way it degrades the civil service and the character of the government. It is felt, I am confident, by a largy majority of the members of Congress to be an intolerable burden and an unwarrantable hindrance to the proper discharge of their legitimate duties. It ought to be abolished. The reform should be thorough, radical and complete. We should return to the principle and practice of the founders of the government, supplying by legislation when needed that which was formerly an established custom. They neither expected nor desired from the public officer any partisan service. They meant that public officers should owe their whole service to the government and to the people; they meant that the officer should be secure in his tenure employed to establish this reform.

by an Executive who is under no purpose, if elected, not to be a candidate for election to a second term. THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

On the currency question I have frequently expressed my views in the United States relating to the payment of the public indebtedness, the legal tender notes included, as constituting a pledge and moral obligation of the government, which must in good faith be kept. It is my cona revival of confidence and business as a certainty.

and to a return of prosperity; that uncertainty can be ended in but one way, the resumption of specie payment; but the longer the instability connected with our present money system s permitted to continue the greater will be the injury inflicted upon our conomical interests and all classes of society. If elected I shall approve very appropriate measure to accomplish the desired end and shall oppose my step backward. The resolution with respect to the public school system is one which hould receive the hearty support of the American people. Agitation upon Hiram Eisenman Collector Dr. this subject is to be apprehended un-til by constitutional amendment the "am't. of duplicate "1875, 2 376 09 til by constitutional amendment the schools are placed beyond all danger of sectarian control or interferance. Hiram Eisenman Collector Cr. The Republican party is pledged to secure such an amendment. The resolution of the convention on the subject of the permanent pacification of the country and the complete protection of all its citizens in free enjoyment of all their constitutional rights, is timely and of great importance.

CONDITION OF THE SOUTH. The condition of the Southern States attracts the attention and commands the sympathy of the people of the whole Union in their progressive recovery from the effects of the war-Their first necessity is an intelligent and honest administration of government, which will protect all classes of citizens in all their political and pricate rights. What the South most needs is "peace" and peace depends upon the supremacy of law. There can be no enduring peace if the constitutional rights of any portion of the people are habitually disregarded. A division of political parties resting merely upon distinctions of race or upon sectional lines is always unfortunate, and may be disastrous. The welfare of the South alike with that of every other part of the country depends upon the attractions it can offer to labor, to immigration and to capital but laborers will not go and capital Unpaid orders in favor of will not be ventured where the constitution and the laws are set at defiance and distraction, apprehension and alarm take the place of peace-loving and law-abiding social life. All parts of the constitution are sacred and must be sacredly observed the parts that are new no less than the parts that are old. The moral and material prosperily of the Southern States can be most effectually advanced by a hearty and generous recognition of the rights of all by all, a recognition without reserve or exception. With such a recognition fully accorded it will be practicable to promote by the influence of all legitimate Average number of months agencies of the general government the effort of the people of those States to obtain for themselves the blessings No. male teachers employed. of honest and capable local government. If elected, I shall consider it not only my duty, but it will be my ardent desire to labor for the attainment of this end. Let me assure my countryment of the Southern States that if I shall be charged with the duty of organizing an administration, it will be one which will regard and cherish their truest interests the interests of the white and of the colored people both From collectors..... and equally, and which will put forth its best efforts in behalf of a civil From County treasurer...... policy which will wipe out forever the distinction between North and South in our common country, With a which will secure purity, experience, efficiency and economy, a strict regard for the public welfare solely in appointments, and the speedy, thorough and unsparing prosecution and punishmet of all public officers who betray official trust; with a sound currency, with education unsectarian and free to all, with simplicity and frugality in public and private affairs, and with a fraternal spirit of harmony pervading the people of all sections and classes, we may reasonably hope that the second century of our existence as a nation will, by the blessing of God, be pre-eminent as an era of good feeling and a period of progress, prosperity and happiness. Very respectifully your fellow-citizen.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED Ham to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A.
