ANOTHER TERRIBLE ACCIDENT

WILCOX NOTES.

WILCOX, PA., Aug. 7, 1876. I saw a request in your paper for a correspondent from this place, and I thought although I am not much on the correspondence, I would try and give you a few items. As this is a very in about two weeks. quiet town, locals are, of course, scarce. J. L. Brown, Esq , and family have gone to the Centennial. Col. A. I. Wilcox is in town. He arrived home from Bradford on Sunday morning, where he has been attending to his oil interests.

A. T. Aldrich, Esq., has some specimens of millet, raised on his farm, one mile north of this place, on land that was never manured, five feet high, and he says there is some taller than that. Who says there is no farming and in Jones township?

The Tanning and Lumber Co's store was broken into on Thursday night, and some knifes, razors, and clothing were taken. The thieves effected an entrance through a window into the office, and broke the glass in the door, tween the office and store, and then, reaching through, unbuttoned it and went in. It is supposed to have been some tramps that were prowling around the day before.

On Saturday night some suspicious characters were seen around town, and some of the citizens formed themselves into a vigilance or detective force, and watched around town until two or three oclock in the morning. They detected one man skulking about in the rear of Martin Sower's premises, but he took leg bail, and they failed to THERE will be a Centennial dog catch hin; and, although they failed to catch any thieves, they did not fail to have lots of fun-

There was quite an excitement here last week over a crazy Dane, who imagined himself to be the Lord Jesus Christ, and that he owned the whole town. He succeeded in considerably frightening some women and children. Going into one house he ordered the lady of the house to move, giving ten minutes to pack up and leave, as he wanted to move the house into the creek. After this he left the house, and was soon taken care of by some of his own countrymen.

The new oil well is progressing as fast as possible. They have the engine and boiler moved to the new site, onehalf mile west from the Schultz well, and will have the derrick up this week, and will probably be ready to commence drilling in ten days or two weeks. It is to be hoped that the land owners about this section will chuck full of pluck and day's work, and that they may succeed is the earnest wish of every one.

SUDDEN DEATH AT REDBANK .- On Wed-"My flour barrel sounds like a base nesday of last week, an unknown laboring man, about five feet eight inches high, and thirty years of age, with black mustache dead along the shores of the Clarion | and upper left front tooth out, got off No. River. Thursday Mr. John T. Spencer killed a rattlesnake on Bean Farm, near Titusville, which measured eight eet and three inches in length, and sported nineteen rattles. The reptile was undoubtedly an old settler. We learn, from the Lewistown Gazette, that a number of trout caught in the mountain streams thereabout last week proved to be unfit for eating, being full of a red worm which is frequently found under the skin. The water louse is also said to be unusually destructive this year. Messrs. Jones & Brinker, of Fairmount, Clarion county, have received the contract to furnish 750,000 brick, Salamanea by January 1, 1877. Work will probably be commenced on it District Attorney Milliken, of Hollidaysburg, and Alderman Poffenberger and Levi Knott, of Altoona, have all been arrested for receiving money from Mrs. Thos. Hicks, of Altoona, in settlement of a whiskey case which they had no legal right to settle. They were held in $1,000 bail each to answer the charge at Court. Milliken is also under a $00 bond to answer a similiar charge preferred against him by Alex. Mock. A singular accident occurred in Sugar Valley last week to the daughter of Mr. Jacob Keister. The facts, as stated to us, are that during a thunder storm last week, while the young lady was seated at a sewing machine a strok of lightning occured, and she was so stunned that she did not entirely recover for at least twenty-four hours thereafter. The strange feature of the occurrence is, that there is no evidence of the lighting having struck anywhere in the vicinity.-Lock Haven Democrat.

We have not been quite so fortunate learned that that section has been visited by repeated fine showers, greatly to the advantage of vegetation, help the boys, as they are laboring and the replenishing of streams and men not overstocked with capital, but springs. The corn in that county looks very fine and promises a good yield. The tobacco crop is looking exceedingly well, and there seems to be a larger acreage than usual planted. The matter has excited much indignant notice around Cochranton, more particularly as it is one of the incidentals growing out of the Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 3.—This city was electrified this morning by the announcement that Thomas Conyngham, son of the late Judge Conyngham, and of the most respectable connections, had committed geries amounting in the aggregate to $200,000. The rumor was found to be Washington, August 1.—The President, in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress approved posed he has fled. The forged paper is said to have been distributed in banks of this city, Pottsville, Phila-deiphia, and other places. The Second National Bank of this city is reported a loser to the extent of $75,-000. It is said that his relatives propose to settle the matter, and great pains were taken to suppress the facts. Rumor said last night that steps have been taken for Conyngham's arrest The disastrous affair was brought about by unfortunate investments in coal and iron property, and heavy and unlucky Wall street speculations.

The Oxford Press says the impression has generally prevailed that the depth of the Susquenanna river at McCall's Ferry has never been ascertained, and some even assert that the river is bottomless at that point. This s incorrect. We have been informed by Enoch Swayne, of London Grove township, Chester county, that he made a measurement of the river at the above place about the year 1840, with a sounding line which he obtained in Baltimore, and the depth was 446 feet. Mr. Swayne said he had read when a boy an account of the un-known depth of the river, given by Asher Miner in the Chester and Delaware county Federalist, (now the West Chester Village Record,) who made a visit to McCall's about 1814, ANOTHER TERRIBLE ACCIDENT 5,5000 families, who live in 9,000 tenc-FROM NITRO-GLYCERINE.—On Tues-day last, as a man named Clawson. was cholera infantum in any of the tenedrawing up one of Sweatt's patent torpedoes from a well on the John A. A good sign. Rutherford B. Hayes was nominated June 17th, and yet up to this date no charges have been raised against him. Even his old antagonist, Allen, is forced to admit that, "aside from his politics, Hayes is a good man."
