

An Exciting Scene.

An incident occurred on the Union Pacific express train from the West, on the passage between Ogden and Omaha, that created a scene of consternation, and some very excited and lively scenes.

At about 2 o'clock in the morning, says the Omaha Herald, when the train was at Ogallala, a passenger got aboard of Omaha, a passenger who took a berth in the Pullman sleeping cars.

At Ogallala the great shipping point for cattle on the line of the Union Pacific, and at times a great many cattle dealers are there.

Cultivate Early the Habit to Work.

There is scarcely anything of greater importance to a young man than that he should acquire early the habit of regular application to some pursuit.

Persons who are not of an indolent nature live on from day to day, from month to month, from year to year, without accomplishing worth while.

They wonder that others are successful, and they remain stationary. The difficulty with them is that although they are not particularly averse to labor, they have never learned how to work to advantage.

At the end of every week, regularly review your work. Consider just how much you have accomplished. If you are satisfied with what you have done it will bring to you a feeling of repose and content.

Finally, let nothing—no matter what—doubt or discouragement, glory in a result and invincible will!

Reader, if you observe them you will be delighted with the result in your own individual case.—Ledger.

The Empire of Japan.

The empire of Japan is composed mainly of four considerable islands lying in a crescent shaped form off the northern coast of the continent of Asia.

The population being only about 120,000,000, the island of Honshu, the main island (on all our maps marked Japan), with an area of about 90,000 square miles, and a population of about 2,500,000; then, out of the narrow winding strait called the Inland sea from the southern edge of Honshu, is Shikoku.

The entire area of the empire is not far from 150,000 square miles, and the population, as reported in the census of 1874, is 33,110,825. The entire area of the empire is about equal to that of New England and Middle States, the population somewhat exceeding that of Great Britain, and approximating that of France.

London Sheriffs. A London paper says: The livermen of the various companies of the city of London assembled in pursuance of an ancient custom in Guildhall for the purpose of electing the sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the ensuing year.

It didn't seem right. A resident of Detroit, the Free Press says, was in the city of Detroit, and he and an old woman, was hired to work on a dirt for a yard on Beaubien street, and when his work was completed the owner of the premises handed him a check for $7.50.

Breaking the Child's Will. No art is so useful in the management of young children (and is any art so neglected) as that of avoiding direct collision.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

Retaining Confidence—Reviving Trade.—A few weeks more years will have elapsed since the breaking out of the panic of 1873.

The panic of 1873. The panic of 1873 was a general one, and it was not until the latter part of the year that the tide began to turn.

What percentage of these failures are fraudulent it is difficult to say; but that numerous unscrupulous debtors avail themselves of the facilities which are afforded by generous creditors to rid themselves of indebtedness, is a fact.

The great falling off of our foreign imports denotes one phase of this economy. The foreign imports at the port of New York alone fell in 1874 to $85,032 in 1873 to $399,000,872.

What a check on the bank, slowly remarked the man. "Specimen I go down there and he says this document is an order on a hardware store!"

A Visit to Mura-Y.

On Friday, says a correspondent writing from Turkey, I disguised myself as a Turk for my satisfaction, a fatness beginning to develop in the black top coat and a white waistcoat made me sufficiently like an officer of the Sublime Porte.
