WILCOX NOTES.

WILCOX, PA., Sept. 18th, 1876. Polly-ticks keep very quiet here. A. B. Preston returned here from Philadelphia on Saturday evening. Hon. Jackson S. Schultz of New York is in town, he is a staunch Republican, he thinks Tilden's chances very slim in New York.

Ross says "J" caught a woodchuck last week, "korrect," if Ross had been visible the next day when it (the woodchuck) was served up he might have had a slice. The Republican Primary Meeting was held at Martin Sowers' Hotel on Saturday evening, A. B. Preston, was called to the chair and J. D. Parsons elected Sec'y. A motion was made to elect delegates by acclamation instead of by ballot, motion carried, and Capt. John Ernhout and Joseph Tambine were unamously elected delegates to the County Convention, with instructions to do what might seem to the best interest of the party. The business of the meeting being over Mr. A B. Preston made a few remarks on the political outlook, which he thinks is very flattering for Hayes & Wheeler He attended a Hayes & Wheeler meeting at Philadelphia last week, it was estimated that twenty thousand people were present, and that it is the general opinion that with due effort, on the part of the Republicans, notwithstanding the fact that Peter Cooper will take a good many Republican votes, that we shall be triumphant in November.

Governor Hayes will celebrate his fifty-fourth birthday in October Tilden, the perjurer, is what they call him now, instead of the reformer. The reform club of New York has endorsed the nomination of Governor

Morgan. The Hon, Ben, Wood, of New York city, has bet $400 against $2000 that Hayes will carry New Jersey. The Eric Republicans are raising poles all over the county, and the campaign there is fairly on its legs. Speeches are being delivered in In-

The emblems of the Hayes and Wheeler club at York are a pitchfork and wheel—to pitch into the canvass and wheel out a heavy vote.

The Democratic city officers of Baltimore have been assessed two per cent, of their salaries for campaign purposes, and some of them are com-plaining about this kind of "reform." Allen, Thurman and Pendleton are astonished when they read in eastern Democratic papers that "Hayes has no record." Who was it that whipped us so confoundedly? they ask. us so confoundedly? they ask.

The other day the St. Louis Republican, one of Tilden's supporters, printed on its editorial page Father Ryan's tribute to "The Conquered Banner." The Atlanta (Ga.) Commonwealth, on the 30th ult., gave a prominent place to a series of verses eulogistic of John Wilkes Booth.

General J. M. Tuttle, of Iowa, says he is constantly receiving from ex-soldiers who refuse to support Tilden and Hendricks. Indeed, he says, "I don't see how an intelligent soldier can do anything else, as the rebels and opperheads are now running the party their own way.'

South Carolina Democratic papers are printing the rebel war records of their candidates for State officers. Of one it is said that "he participated in the grand movement of Gen. Jackson hurling McClelland's advance forces back into Maryland," and that his was "a military career of which any Carolinian might be proud."

Rev. Barnar Sears, agent of the Peabody Fund, has written to North Carolina, where a Democratic official stole the fund, as follows: money due to your schools has long been in the hands of ex-Supt. Pool. But to save you and your teachers from further embarrassment, I will pay it a second time and look to Mr. Pool to refund. It is noteworthy that the General

James B. Steadman who is believed to him by the Democrats. He was merely a have projected the now exploded story private in the rebel army, and claims to relative to Governor Hayes' tax return, was wrong about .35 accounts when General Grant moved him from the New Orleans Collectorship. Appearances are that the Republicans can elect Hayes without carrying Indiana in October, but upon the whole they should carry Indiana. We are indeed of the opinion that when a party fights to win a national battle should carry all the States within its power.-Cincinnati Commercial. "The Democrats chose Seymour with their eyes open-chose him be-cause of his objectionable record, and declared then that they could not hope for success with anybody else, and the people will now take them at their word."-New York Tribune. The Democrats have been bragging very loudly that Governor Tilden has saved New York some five million dollars in decreased taxes, but it turns out now, as the Comptroller's last reof liquidation, and that the cost of Mr. Tilden's State administration is just as costly, if not more than any preceding. Our South Carolina correspondent is almost sure the Democrats will carry that State at the approaching election. We presume there is no doubt of it. The Southern Confederacy would not be solid without South Carolina. The Republican majority in the State will be overcome, as in Mississippi. The Derringer policy will prevail. That is the reason why port shows, that this reduction is simply due to the extinguishment of the State debt in the ordinary course there is such a howl about bayonets. -Cincinnati Commercial. This sentiment from a Mississippi paper reminds us of something Wasn't such talk common in 1860? 'If the coming election demonstrates that the sentiments of the Republican party are the sentiments of the North then let the South make her arrangements to let the North severely alone. We believe we will find within our borders sufficient of patriotism and ability to devise some means of rendering ourselves independent of those who hate and would destroy us.' The Democratic candidate for the Presidency is worth about five millions of dollars. Some of his partial friends will not put the figure less than six millions. He has been in the enjoyment (especially since the abolishment of the income tax) of an income exceeding three hundred thousand dollars a year. He has had a net return from his Lake Superior iron mines of more than a quarter of a million dollars in one year. He will be able to live comfortably without the Presidential salary and perquisites .- Cin. Com.

The New York Sun having stated that Hon. Carl Schurz, in writing to a friend in Washington, had said that in Ohio the German vote was arrayed against the Republicans, and he had doubts whether Hayes would carry the State, a friend of the ex-Senator telegraphed him yesterday about the Sun's story, asking for the facts and the privilege of making his reply publie. The following is Mr. Schurz's reply: Michigan City, Ind., Sept. 12, 1876. I wote no such letter, and entertain no such opinion. Ohio seems to me sure for Hayes. Use this as you
