Editorial Notes

MAIL robberies in Texas are of al most daily occurrence, and the rob-bers seem to have excellent facilities for getting away with their plunder.

SECRETARY SHERMAN WIll resume specie payments, according to act of Congress, on Jan. 1st, 1879. Preparations are being made to carry the act into full effect.

GENERAL LONGSTREET, of the late confederate army, testified in Fitz John Porter's case. He explained the strength and position of Jackson's forces and of his men.

TIMES are improving. Ira B. Wright, defaulting treasurer of South Hadley, Mass., has been found guilty of embezzling $29,000, and sentenced to five years in the State prison. Times are improving.

THE tramps, the tramps. Out in Ohio they are destroying the reapers and harvesters, and the farmers talk of doing some shooting, and yet work is plenty in the harvest field at $1,50 per day. The tramps, the tramps.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal is rather severe on the Pennsylvania legislature. It says: "Having turned O'Connor out of the Ohio legislature for having been in the penitentiary, they should now, in accordance with the eternal fitness of things, turn Bullard out of the penitentiary for having been in the Pennsylvania legislature.'

DISPATCHES from Portland, Oregon, report several Indian outrages, among which is the killing of Captain Sperry and nearly all his command killed or wounded at Willow Springs, thirty miles south of Pendleton. Extermination may be called uncivilized, but its the only medicine that will civilize savages.

A DISPATCH from San Francisco gravel. General Sutro entered the Savage works from the tunnel and a general followed and a general jollification ensued.

THE Board of Health of the city of New York has issued a circular in relation to sunstroke, which is of especial importance at this time, giving both the cause and the cure, as well as the means of prevention of this terrible visitation. Sunstroke is caused by excessive heat, and especially if the weather is "muggy." It is more apt to occur on the second, third or fourth day of a heated term than on the first. Loss of sleep, worry, excitement, close sleeping-rooms, debility, abuse of stimulants predispose to it. It is more apt to attack those working in the sun, heard all the evidence and rendered eleven in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon. On hot days wear thin clothing. Have as cool sleepingrooms as possible. Avoid loss of sleep and all unnecessary fatigue. If working indoors, and where there is artificial heat—laundries, &c.—see that the room is well ventilated. If working in the sun, wear a light hat-not black, as it absorbs heat—straw, &c., and put inside of it on the head a wet cloth on a large green leaf; frequently lift the hat from the head and see that the cloth is wet. Do not check prespiration, but drink what water you need to keep it up, as prespiration prevents the body from being overheated. Have, whenever possible, an additional shade, as a thin umbrella when walking, a canvas or board cover when working in the sun. When much fatigued do not go to work, especially after eleven o'clock in the morning on very hot days, if the work is in the sun. If a feeling of fatigue, dizziness, headache or exhaustion occurs, cease work immediately, lie down in a shady and cool place; apply cold cloths to and pour cold water over head and neck. If any one is overcome by the heat, send immediately for the nearest good physician. While waiting for the physician, give the person cold drinks of water or cold black tea, if able to swallow. If the skin is hot and dry, sponge with or pour cold for having listened to music by pointwater over the body and limbs, and apply to the head pounded ice wrapped followed her for a considerable disin a towel or other cloth. If there is tance he was captured by a constable no ice at hand, keep a cold cloth on the but not before he had struck the officer head, and pour cold water on it as well as on the body. If the person is pale, very faint and pulse feeble, let him in-

New Dog and Sheep Law.

An act for the taxation of dogs and protection of sheep in this Common-wealth was passed by the Legislature of 1878. It contains ten sections, and the following is an abstract of its pro-

Section 1 provides for a tax of fifty cents on each female dog, to be collected and paid to the County Treasurer, who is to keep a separate account of the amount received from each district.

Section 2 provides that as eturn a statement of the number of dogs kept by persons in their district, with the names of the owners.

Section 8 provides that persons havng sheep killed by dogs shall make complaint thereof to a Justice of the Peace, stating where, when and by whose dog the damage was caused, whereupon the Justice shall summon the owner of the dog, and if he does not appear and settle the loss, then the Justice shall appoint three persons to appraise the damage, which is to be paid out of the sheep fund by the County Commissioners and afterwards to be recovered by the owner of the dog, if he be known. If not known the payment of the loss is to be made from the sheep fund. Sections 4 and 5 provide for the payment of losses sustained, by the County Treasurer, and the recovery of the money afterwards from the owners of the dogs causing the loss.

Section 6 provides that all dogs in Commonwealth shall hereafter be personal property, and their owners shall be liable for the damage they do, and for the costs and attorney's fees for collecting losses if suits have to be carried into court.

Section 7 fixes the fees of Justices of the Peace and Appraisers under the Section 9 provides that this act shall not repeal the provisions of any existing special laws in relation to the same subject.

Section 10 provides that this act shall not go into into effect in any county until the act has been published and a voting to be "for the sheep law," and 'against the sheep law." No election as to its acceptance or rejection shall be taken oftener than once in two Cr. By am't paid for

DEATH ON THE RAIL.-Last Sun day morning as the train coming north on the Dunkirk road was passing Jake Smith's, a mile or two below town, the engineer saw a man well dressed but with no hat on standing by the track. As the train approached he stepped in says, about 11 o'clock Monday night ahead of it, and was thrown violently connection was made between the into the ditch from the cowcatcher. Sutro Tunnel and 1,650 foot level of The train backed up, found him dead the Savage mine. A strong draft of air at once poured into the mine, with his head badly crushed, and left a man in charge of the body. An inblowing out the miners' lanterns and quest was held by Justice D. W. C. filling the Savage drift with dust and James, who summoned the following mith, G. F. McNett.

From papers in the pocket of the deceased, and from evidence of a young man who recognized the body, t appears that his name was Hiram L. King, living about a mile this side of Sugar Grove. It seems that King and his wife have not fived happily together of late, having separated four weeks ago. He was considered a little 'flighty" at times, was feeling blue and had been heard to threaten suicide. On Saturday evening he put on his best clothes and came towards Warren. He had a little money in his pocket and a razor out of the case. The jury and especially between the hours of the following verdict: "That Hiram L. King, deceased, came to his death by voluntarily throwing himself in front of the moving train going north on the D. A. V. & P. R. R. on the morning of July 7, 1878, in Conewango township, about two miles below Warren, which act on part of deceased was committed while laboring under a fit of emental derangement." - Warren

-A few days ago Mr. Hancher, of Liberty, Tioga county, and wife, were out riding, and while going down hill the horse ran away, throwing Mr. Hancher out and fatally injuring him. The deceased was sixty years old.

-The tramps in Erie county resort to every species of rascality, and are a terror to people in the rural districts, who are compelled to put guards on their premises at night to prevent trespass, robbery and incendiarism.

-Hugh Brown, of Erie county, while incoxicated, proceeded to whip his house-keeper. A. Thornton, a neighbor, endeavored to prevent his purpose from being carried out, when Brown shot him in the face with a double barreled gun.

-An organ grinder at Pottstown endeavored to compel a woman to pay ing a pistol at her. After having
