Washington Letter.

[From our regular Correspondent.] Washington, D. C., March 22nd.

The 46th Congress is now assembled in extra session. It was a pretty close shave with our Democrat friends in organizing the House of Representatives, but they pulled through by the skin of their teeth, as it were, and position second only to that of Presiparty was very pronounced, and at one time seemed likely to be sufficient to defeat him in the caucus, but his superior skill at political wire pulling, with a combination of favorable circumstances, saved his bacon. It may be claimed as a Tilden victory, or a hard-money victory; but in my opinion it is neither. The only real issues that entered into the contest among the Democrats were Randall and anti-Randall, and the question whether the party deemed it expedient to place an ex-Confederate in the chair. The question was settled by the ex-Confederates themselves mostly voting in favor of a northern man.

The proceedings in organizing were tame enough, and hardly repaid the crowds who filled the galleries and Libellant. corridors almost to suffocation. It was one o'clock when the election of Speaker was proceeded with. Mr. Clymer nominated Samuel J. Randall; Mr. Frye nominated Hon. James A. Garfield, and Rev. Gilbert De La Matyr nominated Hon. Hendrick B. Wright, of Pennsylvania. When the name of Bradley Barlow, of Vermont, was called, he voted for Judge Kelley, of Pennsylvania. When Blackburn Mr. Frye nominated Hon. LOCAL NEWSPAPERS!

Many persons suppose this list to be composed of CHEAP, low-priced newspapers. The fact is quite otherwise. The Catalogue states exactly what the papers are. When printed in Roman letters it is neither the best nor the only paper, but is usually a very good one, notwithstanding. The list gives the population of every town and the circulation of every paper. IT IS NOT A CO-OPERATIVE LIST. IT IS NOT A CHEAP LIST. At the foot of IS NOT A CHEAP LIST.
