ENTERED AT THE POST-OFFICE AT RIDGWAY, PA., AS SECOND CLASS

Republican National Ticket for 1880

FOR PRESIDENT. GEN. ULYSSES S. GRANT. (Subject to decision of Republican National Convention,)

-About 5 o'clock last Friday afternoon at Rixford, William Holt, familiarly known as Romeo, met with a very distressing accident. He was, engaged in lowering a light torpedo in Cavenaugh's water well, where some obstruction prevented the descent. Instinctively he bent over the well and continued to drop 'the dangerous explosive past the impediment. While thus engaged it exploded. Holt's skull was factured and one of his eyes blown out. He is in a very critical condition, and his recovery is considered doubtful -Mc Kean Miner.

-Pittsburg, October 22-Three little girls named Stellie, Lillie and Mary The Last Ditch for the Rebel Dunn, the daughters of John Dunn, this morning obtained possession of a railway torpedo, which they attempted to open by pounding it with a boulder. An explosion followed which fatally injured Stolla, aged 3 years. A fragment struck Lillie in the face, cutting out one eye, and, it is thought, destroying the sight of the other. The Union is a Nation and not a Mary, the eldest, aged 7, who handled the torpedo excaped with no more serious injury than badly lacerated hands.

Washington Oct.24--The Treasury department has transferred an additiona l $10,090,000 in gold to the assay office at New York to facilitate foreign exchange. The San Francisco mint is now engaged in coining small gold pieces to supply the demand. The Philadelphia mint is working principully in silver dollars. It is expected, however, that the Treasury will be able to purchase sufficient silver for delivery at San Francisco to enable that mint to relieve Philadelphia of For 1880 let the order be to move the dollar coinage. The latter mint will then work on small gold pie ces.

-Two Illinois farmers, who had a large crop of wheat to sell, went to Chicago and frequented the Board of Trade rooms, which is a resort for speculators in produce. There attention was attracted by an old man who constantly talked and gesticulated all by himself. They made his acquaintance, and he told them that his strange conversation was with spirits, who kept him informed as to the future of the market. He said that he lacked the money to take advantage of these supernatural points, but would sell them at a reasonable price. The far mers at once put him on a liberal salary, and only lost faith in him when he stole a diamond pin from one of them. The fact that he had swindled many others speculators was then divulged.

Death of Zach. Chandler.

Senator Zachariah Chandler was found dead in his bed at the Grand Pacific Hotel in Chicago last Saturday morning, Nov. 1. A dispatch says he had been speaking for some time in Wisconsin. On Friday evening he addressed an immence audience at Me Cormick's Hall, in Chicago, and jority 1,600. spoke with his usual carnestness, after the meeting when he, Senator Logan, and Hon. Jesse Spaulding were sitting in his room engaged in conversation. Senator Chandler complained of indigestion. His land county, official, gives Barr 447 friends then bade him good-night and left. That is the last time the Senator was seen alive. Next morning when the office boy called him there was no response. As upon repetition silence still prevailed, the clerk effected an entrance through the transom and found that the Senator was dead. The body was not quite cold, and a phy- Berks county. The democratic masician who was present decided that death occurred about three hours previous to the discovery. Mr. Chandler was born at Bedford, New Hampshire, Dec. 10, 1813, being therefore nearly 66 years of age at his death. He went early to Detroit and amassed a fortune of two millions in the dry goods trade and real estate speculation. He held numerous offices, such as Mayor of Detroit, Governor of Michigan, U. S. Senator and Secretary of the Interior. His first election to the Senate was in 1857, when he succeeded Lewis Cass, a Democrat. He was reelected twice, serving consecutively until 1875, when Gen. Grant appointed him Secretary of the Interior. For the fourth time he was chosen Senator, and took his seat on the 22 of February, 1879, in place of Senator Christiancy who had resigned. His term would have expired on the 3d of March, 1882.
