Washington Letter.

[From our regular Correspondent.] Washington, D. C. Jan. 3, 1889. Our New Year opened up as bright and balmy as a May day. The sun shone brillianatly, and the beautiful weather was enjoyed to the fullest extent by our callers. Even our "oldest inhabitants," who, in resistance to modern innovations, are as tenacious and unyielding as the Bourbous, generally succumbed to the seductive influences offered by the clerk of the weather and our handsome ladies, and joined in the throng of callers, whose earriages rolled through the streets from early morning till late in the evening. In ante bellum times there was no observance of New Year's day as a holiday wherever slavery obtained. The slave began his round of gaiety on Christmas eve and ended it with New Year's morning, going then to work precisely as on other days of the year. The master himself conformed to the custom, and nowhere in the South was it observed as a day of rest or leisure. Hence the custom of devoting it to calling on friends, and thereby keeping alive old memories and friendships, came here since the war as an innovation which our native old fogies have resisted and condemned, though with anaually lessened columns, until now a mere corporal's guard refuse to open their house and usually hospitable boards to their acquaintance. These we will bury, with their prejudices, in another year or two, and then Washington may be regarded as wholly rejuvenated. The White House is of course, the

THE SUN FOR 1880.

THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January 1 until December 31 will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people. As a newspaper, THE SUN believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keen well will enable its readers to keep well breast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time the greatest interest to the greatest number-that is, the law controlling its daily make-up. It now has a circu-lation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read THE SUN; and they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs, THE SUN believes that the guide of policy should be common sense inspired by genuine American principle and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization, or interest. It is for all, but of none. It will con-tinue to praise what is good and re-probate what is cvil, taking care that its language is to the point and plain. beyond the possibility of being mis-understood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface; it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser with two cents. It hates injustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abhors frauds, pities fools, and deplores nincompoops of every species. It will continue throughout the year 1880 to chastise the first class, instruct the second and

The glitter of gold and decorations is seen on all sides, even 1 to 2 o'clock, when the doors are opened to the common cit izen, who pour into the mansion with a jam and crowd that is fearful to weak nerves and costly dresses. The inserior of the White House was never more tastefully decorated. The corridors bloomed with potted plants, whose fragrance filled the air. Flags were arranged in various forms in all she parlors, and their folds, as well as the chandeliers and mirrors, were festooned with flowers and evergreens. The Marine Band discursed its sweetest strains. The President and Mrs. Hayes, with her assistants, "received" in the blue parlor. The toilettes of these ladies' as well as those of the ladies of the foreign legation, were thirty (180) rods more or less to a post very rich and beautiful, and the "re ception" throughout may be taken as a decided success in number and splendor. The parlors of the Cabinet offl sers were also thronged. There were many gay scenes about the city, for half the world, the ladies kept open house, and the other half was out calling. The lists of ladies who would seceive, which our papers published. covered nearly all our elite and "small or fry," and right well was the day employed. Our ladies generally discountenanced the dispensing of liquors, and, as a consequence less inebriation was seen than in the past.

The day, however, had with it some canguinary aspects. A colored man opened the bloody ball by shooting another negro to death and dangerously wounding two others. These three men were in the murderer's drinking saloon, and becoming boisterous a quarrel ensued, out of which grew the deadly assult. About midday syoung lady named Horton attempted to kill Senator Morgan's (of Alabama) son, but inflicted only a slight wound in his shoulder with her pistol. She was immediately under improvement with a young arrested, but was perfectly cool through orchard growing thereon with a good out the whole affair and examination at | spring of water, &c. police headquarters. Miss Horton came here from Alabama last summer and entered suit against young Morgan for breach of promise and seduction. Her story of wrongs suffered at his hands 1.9 Gauful one, and, if true it is no wonder she is inclined to take sum- and mary law into her own hands.

And THE SUN makes no bones of telling the truth to its friends and about its friends whenever occasion arises for plain speaking.

These are the principles upon which THE SUN will be conducted during he year to come.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigflance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contest of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drifts of public sentiment, will all bear directly effectively upon the twenty-fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. Four years ago next November the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was thwarted by an abominable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 1880? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant and insolent Administration intrenched at Washington. THE SUN did som thing toward dislodging the gang, and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves to place from which they were driven by the indignation of the peo-ple. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring the answer to these momentous questions. The SUN will be on hand to chronicie the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit them clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.

Thus with a habit of philosophiel good humor in looking at the minor affairs of life, and in grate things a steadfast purpose to maintain the rights of the people and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressors. THE SUN is prepared to write a truthful, instructive, and at the same time entertaining history of 1880.
