TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF ELK COUNTY .-- On the second day of November next will conclude the Presidential campaign which deteranines what the administration for the next four years shall be; whether the party which has by heroic effort in thought, word and deed, done so much for mankind and our common country, which has emblazoned on its banner so plainly that he who runs may read, VICTORY ON THE FIELD, VICTORY IN THE FORUM OF THOUGHT, VICTORY IN GOVERN-MENTAL ADMINISTRATION : whether the Republican party with its record of great achievements standing out in bold relief, gilded by the sunlight of prosperty, truth, and loyalty, shall continue to control the executive branch of our government, or, whether the Democratic party which has steadily, and firmly opposed free government, free thought and free speech; which opposed to the last every patriotic and philanthropic measure for the betterment of a poor and downtrodden race; which has been universally wrong on all great public measures for the last twenty years, and now with banners drooping to the dust in shame and defeat, it erles out in the agony of despair, let not our past deeds be remembered against us, let oblivion ever keep our record from free men. We have done wrong in the past and now in sackcloth and ashes will we repent if but one ray of hope be given that our pen-Itence and humility be rewarded with power, that our feet may be washed by boys in blue.

ten years, is very important to all Johnson twenty years ago and against Judge Wetmore ten years ago and was defeated. He is a hard money Democrat and has represented his party in the Legislature and Constitutional Convention, and is therefore legal ability. One objection to his election is his age. The Ledger (we thought indiscreetly) made this objection public, so we can properly allude to it. Of course a man is not to blame for growing old. It may be his misfortune, but we certainly don't want it considered any man's fault. But it is a serious question in a case like this for the people to consider. They should at least understand the facts. While the Democratic papers generally say he is 65, he is in . fact in his 69th year. The chances for active, hard service required in a growing district like this for ten years are clearly not the best. Those who remember the trouble we had growing out of Judge Galbraith's infirmities, and in Elk county the infirmities, of Judge White, will understand this. Another objection we have heard urged by Greenbackers is his connection with the "Railroad monopolies!" He is director in the Lake Shore comany and a standing attorney for the Dunkirk road. Whether he could be impartial in cases between a poor laorer for his only cow and that 'bloated Democrat. bondholder," Vanderbilt, is a question for his five Greenback endorsers. We are surpried that they overlooked itespecially since they vote from principle purely! On the other hand our candidate,

Hon. Wm. D. Brown, is 57 years old and just in his prime. He is thoroughly a lawyer untrammeled by any business associations, and just right to take a judgeship where hard work for | Democrat. many years will be required. Of course we can't, as the Ledger suggests, insure his life for ten years, but all can see that in the natural course of events his chances are much the best. We repeat that without any disparagement of Judge Brown's character or ability, or however well we may like him personally, we cannot always safely overlook the fact that the years as they

The Democratic newspapers and speakers have made much ado over the fact that Gen. Butler, John W. Forney, Gen. A. L. Pearson, of Pittsburgh riot notoriety, and others have joined the Hancock army. The Re-publicans seem to make little capital of such things as they occur in every campaign more or less in all places. The Republicans have as much or more of this kind of campaign thunder than their opponents. A few of those are ex-Governor Austin Blair, of Mich., who spoke here for Tilden four years ago, Col. J. M. Scovel, of New Jersey, Gen. Jack Casement, of Painesville, who ran against Garfield for Congress in 1876. Hon. Porter Sheldon, of Jamestown, N. Y., a Tilden elector; John J. Whitney manufacturer, Dr. prominent citizens of Jamestown, N.Y. Gen. McComb, of New Castle; Judge Agnew, of Beaver, and D. D. Bruce, Esq., one of the leading lawyers of Allegheny county, who presided at The Erie Herald, Wm. L. Scott's personal organ, has just been detected in forging bogus soldier flop papers. The Herald had flopped a member of Gen. Banks' personal staff, who was located at Kane, Pa., but Gen. Banks and nobody else, knows such a man. Another bogus flopper was located at Pittsburgh, while on Monday of last week the Herald published a letter purporting to come from a veteran of the Eighty-third Pennsylvania Regi ment. The reunion of the veterans was to take place at Erie on the following day, and the writer of the let-ter thought the occasion a very happy the nation. "I left an arm at Vicksburg, and am ready to leave another for Hancock and the Union," says the letter was read and denounced as a fraud, because the Eighty third was never within 800 miles of Vicksburg, and the only six men of the Eighty

The interior is finished mostly in Eastlake style, very simple, but still pretty and effective. On the mantle in the re-ception room, opposite each other, are panel portraits of both General Garfield and General Hancock. The walls have some tasteful pictures, but these, as in everything else about the place denote that its owner is not rich enough to possess all the good things that his heart may crave. The pride of his home is doubtless his venerable come to pay their respects to her illustrious husband. THE DEMOCRATIC ASSAULT ON THI INTERESTS OF LABOR.

The protective tariff, enacted by Republican congress in 1861, Is an object of especial attack this year, and day after day such paragraphs as the Democrats have put into their national platform a clause which guarantees the treading down of protection, if the party should come into power. In New Jersey, whose industrics have been developed by the tariff, the manufacturers are seriously alarmed. Letters from Trenton and New Brunswick show that in the pottery, hosiery, rubber goods, paper hangings and other factories, the more intelligent and energetic among proprietors and men are forming asso ciations and agitating the question of maintaining the tariff They consider the welface of both themselves and the people of the State at stake. THE GOOD OLD TIMES."

The Democrats are fond of talking of a return to the good old times. Here is a specimen of them, furnished by a member of the "Old Residents" association of Pittsburgh" a few weeks since:

"When a lad, sixty years ago, we could buy a barrel of superfine flour for a silver five-frank plece; the com-mon retail price was $1 per barrel; wheat 12] to 20 cents per bushel; good beef in the market 11 to 2 cents a pound. Sheep were killed for their pelts and the carcasses were burnt. I have my father's book to show that a man, Francis Radeliff, worked for him for years for $5 per mouth, half cash and half store pay. He had a wife and seven children to support. He rented three good rooms on the first floor for 25 cents per month, $3 for rent per year; and when the land-lord raised the rent to 371 cents old Radeliff never forgave him. Coals were sold and delivered at 2] to 2¹/₂ cents per bushel."

DO YOU WANT TO RETURN TO THEM. Commenting on the foregoing a cor-respondent says : "Farmers and work-cept justices of the peace who shall free traders prate about and sure to of the United States, or of any city or F for 'revenue only ne if a ta once more placed on our imports ? Do | missioned officer or otherwise, a subyou, workingmen, wish to go back to the price of labor in those times, with shall be employed under the legisla-their long hours? Think of it, $60 per tive, executive or judicial departments year, and half in store pay, with cotton cloth at thirty cents per yard and calico at forty-five and fifty cents; and also any member of Congress, or those were the good old times, when a of the State Legislature, and of the si spinning-wheel and loom were as leet and common councils of any city necessary in the household as a fireplace, and the mother of a family was district, is by law incapable of holda veritable slave. Do you farmers want to go back to the time when you could not get more than twelve and a half to twenty per bushel for your wheat, one cents. and a half to two cents per pound for your beef, and nothing for your mutfor. Can you not afford to pay the tax that the free-traders claim has been put on manufactured articles by the tariff, when you get 500 per cent, advance over the highest price of the good old times?" Free trade means the leveling of all labor to the level of the lowest labor. The free-traders of England say, "to give capital a fair remuneration, the price of labor must be kept down." Capital is king, land is held in reverence, property is sacred, machines must be cared for, houses insured, animals fed; it is only humanity that falls so low that professors of economy under free-trade, scarce give it thought, "and man becomes a drug, and population a nuisance," according to the London Times. Wake up, farmers and workingmen. your interest are at stake-on the one side peace and prosperity; on the other, pauperism and want. Free trade gives you the latter - protective tariff, the former. Choose for yourselves, but do so with your eyes open.
