THE SUN FOR 1881.

Everybody reads The Sun, In the editions of this newspaper throughout the year to come everybody will find:

1. All the ward's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprollable expediture of time and eye-sight. The Sus long ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fulness and unsatisfactory brevity.

brevity.
II. Nuch of that sort of news which de II, Nuch of that sort of news which depends less upon its recognized importance than upon its interest to mankind. From morning to morning The SUN prints a continued story of the lives of real men and women, and of ficir deeds, plans loves, lates, and troubles. This story is more varied and more interesting than any romance that was ever devised.

II. Good writing in every column, and freshness, originality, accuracy, and decorum in the treatment of every subject.

IV. Homest comment. This SUN's habit is to speak out fearlessly about men and things.

V. Equal candor in dealing with each political party, and equal readments to commend what is praiseworthy or to rebuke what is blamable in Democrat or Republican.

vI. Absolute independence of partisan or VI. Absolute independence of partisan or ganizations, but unwavering loyalty to tr benneratie principles. The SCS believe that the Government which the Constitution that the Government which the Constitution gives us is a good one to keep. Its notion of duty is to resist to its utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up another form of government in place of that which exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decide this supremely important contest. The SUN believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Rings for imperial power.
