J. P. Marston, of Warren, is said to be very ill, and there is little hope of his recovery.

William Luther, 17 yesterday, gave a birthday party at M. S. Kline's last evening, which is said to have been a very enjoyable affair by those who attended.

The Forty-seventh Congress met in Washington on Monday. Joseph Warren Keifer, Rep., of Springfield, Ohio, was elected Speaker, and Edward McPherson, of Pennsylvania, Clerk. The House thus passes again into Republican control. Let's all rejoice.

The temperance meetings at the M. E. Church continue with unabated interest. Hundreds have taken the pledge in answer to the urgent appeals of Major Scott. Last Sabbath evening the church was packed with the largest audience ever in the building.

The platform scale in front of Schoening's block is now ready and in order for weighing all kinds of merchandise for the public. Any article from two pounds to 5 1/2 tons can be weighed. The weighing beam is in Settle's hardware store, so that weighing can be done at night or any other time quickly and accurately.

A pontoon bridge was laid across the river at Hall's farm by the Rochester and Pittsburgh R. Co., at a point opposite a heavy cut on that road. A large number of teams are now at work hauling the dirt across the river to fill in on Dickinson's flat where a trestle work has stood for some time. The work is being pushed with great energy here as it is along the entire line of the Rochester and Pittsburgh, excepting of course between Johnsbury and Ridgeway where a trestle has been declared between the rival companies until April 1st.

The four days musical convention closed on Friday evening with a grand concert in the Opera House. Of the solo parts none were received with so much enthusiasm as those by Miss Belle McClintock, and deservedly so. Miss McClintock has a remarkably pure voice and her command of it is worthy of all praise. The audience which had before been unresponsive to a noteworthy degree was fairly carried away with her selection from the opera, "Lucia de Lammermoor," and on their emphatic demand the singer gracefully repeated, and if possible increased the enthusiasm by the manner in which she sang "Three Fishers." A second encore was demanded and given.—Erie Herald.

Miss McClintock will sing at an elocutionary and musical entertainment for the Institute at Ridgeway on Tuesday evening January 3rd, 1882. Reserved seats at Messenger's drug-store.

Two young men who move in the best Austin society, went on a spree not long since. After they were under way one of them said in an inebriated tone of voice.

"Let's bid each other good night, Bill."

"Why, you ain't going home, already? It's right in the shank of the evening."

"Of course. I'm not going home now, but after awhile we won't know each ozer from a shade of sole-leather, sho let's shay good night, right now before it's too late."

They embraced.

Mrs. S. W. Miles, will please accept our thanks for relics, and mementoes of the Yorktown Centennial celebration. A party from this section viz: Mrs. S. W. Miles, Mr. B. Jones, Miss Mary Flicke, and Martin Perrin, Miss Jeannette Davis, Mrs. Mat Shanley, attended the celebration at Yorktown, in October, Mrs. Miles, visited friends at Elmira, and Binghampton, N. Y., and other places, returning on November, 22d. Among the mementoes is brick and plaster from the famous House of Burgesses, and from Mary and Williams College founded in 1660, a circle of chinquapins, evergreens from Yorktown, all of interest from association with historic grounds. A piece of granite from the Yorktown monument is also among the collection.

HORTON—ROGERS.—At the M. E. Parsonage, Ridgeway, Pa., by Rev. S. M. Clark, on Wednesday, Dec. 7, 1881, Mr. Lon. S. Horton, of Horton township, to Miss Eleanor E. Rogers, daughter of U. W. Rogers, of Fox township.

May peace, prosperity, and wealth be theirs until Death doth interpose to break the happy union, which event we hope may not happen until both, at the end of life, like ripened sheaves, are ready for the harvester.

DIED.

REED.—On Saturday, Dec. 3d, 1881, Mrs. Hattie, wife of Dan Reed, of typhoid pneumonia.

Deceased was sick but a few days having attended the funeral of her mother, on Nov. 23, and doing a washing the Monday after. She was buried on her 29th birthday. The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church last Sunday and were largely attended, the interment taking place in the new cemetery. A little daughter about one year old is left without a mother, and a husband deprived of an affectionate wife. The sympathy of the community is with the friends in their sad affliction.

Bold Robbery.

Wednesday before Thanksgiving, Nov. 23, the house of George Foust, in Horton township was entered in broad daylight and robbed of $250 in cash. Mrs. Foust, was bound in the house, and her son bound in the barn, when the house was ransacked. Mr. Foust was absent from home at the time. Although efforts have been made to catch the villain, all have been without success, and no doubt by this time he is far away.

Curious Remarks on the Bible. Here is something which will prove of much interest to many; it was gathered up by a widow lady aged 65 years: "The Bible contains 3,556,489 letters; 510,997 words; 31,172 verses; 1,189 chapters; 66 books. The word 'and' occurs 46,227 times; 'Lord, 1854; 'revere' only once, and that in the 11th Psalm. The 27th verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra contains the alphabet. The 19th chapter of the 2d book of Kings and the 37th chapter of Isaiah are alike. The first man recorded as buried in a coffin was Joseph, 50th chapter of Genesis and 26th verse. Nowhere but in the 1st chapter of Timothy is the word grandmother mentioned. Two particularly fine chapters to read you will find are the 2d of Joel and the 26th of Acts. There is no name or word of more than six syllables in the Holy Bible."

The election in Pennsylvania next year will be for a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of Internal Affairs, a Justice of the Supreme Court, 25 State Senators for four years, 201 Members of assembly for two years, 27 members of congress, and important local officers in every county in the State. The fight for Governor and other state officers, and for members of the senate and house, will be the most hotly contested ever known in Pennsylvania, both as regards the nomination as well as the election of these officers. The twenty-five state senators to be elected will have a vote for United States Senator in January, 1884.—W. Williamsport G. & B.

At the time of the explosion the gauge showed only 80 pounds of steam, but the boiler was old and rotten. A small break occurred, near where Mr. Black was seated, which threw him off the arch and his head was badly cut by coming in contact with some old irons. The hot steam covered Mr. Black and upon removing his clothes after being taken to his home, the skin and portions of flesh from the body came off. He lingered but a few hours after the accident.—Potter Enterprise.

Thousands Leaving Germany. Berlin, Dec. 4.—The cause of the debate on emigration in the Reichstag yesterday was an item in the home estimates for 18,000 marks, which was to be used to discourage emigration from Germany to the United States. Baron Von Bötticher, Secretary of State, in reply to a Deputy who lamented that the emigration statistics of the present year already reached the unprecedented number of 200,000, incidentally stated that the Government hoped to introduce the promised bill on the subject early in the spring. A Liberal Deputy, who said he lived for a long time in the United States, declared that Germans were attracted thither by the certainty of finding everything which they vainly asked for from their Government at home.

The Supreme Court.

HOW IT REDISTRIBUTED THE REFORM ADJOURNMENT.

Pittsburg, Nov. 28.—The Supreme Court adjourned yesterday after making an order changing the Supreme Court districts of the State. The action was in pursuance of authority conferred by the act of May 5, 1876, which empowers the court to change and transfer any of the counties of the commonwealth from any of the districts of said court. The order transfers the following counties from the Middle to the Eastern district: Bedford, Blair, Cumberland, Centre, Columbia, Clinton, Clearfield, Cameron, Elk, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Lancaster, Lycoming, Lebanon, Millin, Montour, Mifflin, Northampton, Perry, Potter, Snyder, Tioga, Sullivan, Union, Warren and York.

COUNTIES TRANSFERRED. The following counties are transferred from the Western to the Eastern district: Armstrong, Butler, Cambria, Clarion, Crawford, Fayette, Forest, Indiana, Lawrence, Mercer, and Somerset. By reason of the said transfer the Middle, and Eastern districts of the Supreme Court shall hereafter stand as composed of the following counties, viz:

The Western district—Allegheny, Beaver, Greene, Jefferson, Yehango, Westmoreland and Washington.

The Middle district—Adams, Dauphin, and Franklin.

The Eastern district—Armstrong, Bucks, Butler, Bedford, Blair, Bradford, Berks, Cambria, Clarion, Crawford, Carbon, Chester, Cumberland, Centre, Columbia, Clinton, Clearfield, Cameron, Delaware, Erie, Elk, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Indiana, Juniata, Lawrence, Lehigh, Lebanon, Luzerne, Lackawanna, Lycoming, Lancaster, McKean, Mercer, Millin, Monroe, Montgomery, Montour, Northampton, Northumberland, Philadelphia, Perry, Potter, Pike, Schuylkill, Somerset, Susquehanna, Snyder, Sullivan, Tioga, Union, Wayne, Wyoming, Warren, and York.

TERMS OF THE COURT. The terms of the court in the districts are fixed as follows: That of the Western district commences on the first Monday of October and continues four weeks.

That of the Middle district commences on the twenty-first Monday following the first Monday of January and continues one week.

And the Eastern district term commences on the third Monday of November and continues until the commencement of the term in the Middle district.

The rest of the order, which is quite lengthy, fixes the return day for the various counties. The sentiment among the members of the bar is that of emphatic disapproval. The western district, which had nineteen counties, has been stripped of all but seven, and the fees of the Prothonotary, General Sweeney, will be proportionately reduced.

WHAT ATTORNEYS SAY. The attorneys consider the order unwarranted by any existing state of affairs, and altogether unnecessary. They say it was done to please the Philadelphia influence and virtually makes but one supreme court district in the State. It is a fact that outside of Allegheny county the members of the bar are in a majority over the western district were a unit in favor of the change. Justices Gordon, Trunkay and Sterrett refused to assent to the order, so it was made by the other four justices in opposition to their judgment. They expressed it for the reason that it would be inconvenient and expensive for many suitors and lawyers to attend the sessions of the court in Philadelphia. Many suits are pending over the matter and talk of applying to the legislature for a remedy such as the redistricting of the State by act of assembly.

Three New Bridges. [Clearfield Republican.] The commissioners have contracted for the building of three new bridges. One across the river near this borough, in the place of the Goodfellow bridge, which was blown down last fall; a second one across Clearfield creek near the mouth of Potts' run, on the line between Knox and Woodward townships, which will be an open wooden structure, 142 feet long, and will cost $1,700. The abutments and other stone work are being put up by local subscriptions, except probably $300, which the county will be called upon to pay, making the total cost to the county about $2,000. The third one will be thrown across Clearfield creek at Calport (Reilly postoffice), in Becarras township, and will be 100 feet in length, to be of wood, similar to the Potts' run structure, and will cost the county about $1,200. The citizens in the vicinity of this bridge have agreed to put up the abutments. The Goodfellow bridge will be replaced with an open iron one 208 feet long, two spans, and put up a little below the old Boggs Fording, to avoid the two railroad crossings and that miserable hill between the old and new location encountered heretofore by all the upriver and western travel. The Pittsburgh Bridge Company have the contract for putting up this latter structure—stone work and all—for $8,366. The two wooden bridges are to be built by C. S. Palmer & Son, of Stroudsburg, Pa., who put up that portion of the market street bridge for the Shaw estate, which was blown down last fall. We learn that the contractors will go to work just as soon as the weather will permit. These bridges are as absolutely necessary as a barn is on a good farm. No toll to pay or snow to shovel into them when you go through with a loaded sled.

Almost Young Again. My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostrations, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family.—A lady in Providence, R. I. —Journal.

"Deer Slayers."

This is a good name, and the editor of the Ocoola Reveille tells all in this way: "George Kyser and his friend Winters have proven themselves the deer slayers of the season in these parts, having killed four of the finest-favored monarchs of the forest up to the present time. These old hunters kill with the rifle altogether, and are greatly incensed at the jay-hawkers who hunt with the smooth-bore or musket, and fire buck-shot. 'A law should be enacted,' said one of them to us, the other day, 'to prevent this mode of hunting, which has now become so common.' 'These fellows,' said he, referring to the buck-shot hunters, 'seldom kill a deer; but wound a powerful number among them; and we find numbers of dead ones through the woods that have been wounded by these fellows' buck-shots, but got away only to die a lingering death, of no good to anyone. Then, if they do kill a deer in this way, it is so torn up that the one-half of it has to be thrown away. I tell you it is cruelty to dumb animals, and those guilty of the practice should be arrested under that law, if there is no other, to protect these poor innocent victims. We seldom kill a deer now that we don't find either a buck-shot in it, or that it has been wounded at one time by them. It is a much worse practice than hunting with dogs, and yet there is a law against that.' We thought there was sound logic in what he said."
