Henry A. Parsons, Jr., -

THURSDAY, JAN. 12, 1882

ENTERED AT THE POST-OFFICE AT RIDGWAY, PA., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

-Sixteen thousand acres of white pine timber land was recently sold in Clinton county for $20,000.

-An engine of a steam thresher blew up in a barn in Chillisquaque townsnip, Northumberland county. last week, burning the barn and instantly killing a man by the name of Keefer, from Union county.

-The National Board of Health at Washington reports one hundred and twelve deaths from small pox in New York during the week ending January 10, twenty-three deaths in Philadelphia, one new case in Erie, Pa., and six new cases in Maline, Ill., are reported.

-Reading, January 10. -The principal topic of conversation in the court honse row offices to-day is an alleged error discovered on the books of the county commissioners of nearly $25,-000. When the old commissioners went out of office last week the debt was put down in round numbers at $141,000. This morning the new commissioners' clerk says he finds the county indebtedness after an examination of the books to be $164,000.

-Subscriptions for the Garfield Memorial Hospital, in Washington, now amount to $80,000, a large part of which is paid in. The committee has received $400 from the Khedive of Egypt through Consul General Wolfe, who writes that he expects to supplement this with a further subscription of $1,000. The minister of Paris and the American consuls at other points are also receiving subscriptions for this object.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected prep-HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and slear by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from faming out, as it stimu-lates and nourishes the hair-glands. stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical Hair Dressing ever used, as it requires fewer applications. as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A.
