Free Neck Men.

Principle rises above the din of party cry and the designs of bad, bold men. The Republican party, although yet young in years, has at times suffered from the unwholy and based actions of the men, who, raised to the pinnacle of great power, have abused the trust reposed in them and instead of serving their masters—the people—have put on the semblance of detraction and sought by abusing their place to make themselves the "boss" of the situation. All through the old Keystone State the free press, the ones not wearing the collar marked "federal office," or "bread and butter," is raising the cry, that wrong is being committed in the name of Republicanism and calling upon the free neck men to stand by the right at the polls. The stench of the "bosses" cauldron rising in black clouds of misrule and corruption to the skies, may hide for a time the purile forms of those men who by official gain still strive to follow after those who own the flesh pots, but the wind of popular indignation will raise a breeze that shall ere long dispell these thick vapors, and leave in nakedness those simpering cowards who have not the backbone to be men. As we have said before, "the people are long suffering and kind." But, when the storm breaks the "bosses" great and small will be wise to stand firm under. Little abuses, as in the matter of sending a delegate at the behest of a few men to represent the many, and the making the holding of a petty post-office depend on the faithfulness of the incumbent in obeying orders, are abuses to be sure, but the existence of a "boss" system in itself is a far greater abuse, and all together should be thrown down and rooted out. No party is fit to exist in this free country unless it guarantees to each individual member the right to have a voice in, and a knowledge of all public party matters. This back room, up stairs, wire pulling business won't do. Even "Little Bosses" must be made to understand that the people have rights which they are bound to respect. And that they cannot forever trample under foot the eternal principle of free thought. Steady then, men, along the whole line, and attest by your earnestness, your devotion to the real, living issues of pure Republicanism. Let the free necked men but take the matter in hand and the acyophants with collars on will soon become a thing of the past.

The National Republican League, which was organized two years ago with the view of opposing the efforts of the "bosses" to commit the Republican party to the Third Term movement at Chicago, has issued an address to the Independent Republicans of the State, calling upon them to take united action in opposing the political "bosses" in the coming State election. The address states that the calling of the Convention "at the unnecessarily early period of May," when there are but ten counties out of the sixty-seven in the State in which the people will have an opportunity of electing delegates on the issues before the party, is an insult to thinking men, to ask them "to be bound by such devices to political action fraught with the gravest evils to their party and their country." The number of Independent voters, the address declares, who are opposed to "boss" rule, was shown in the 50,000 supporters of Mr. Wolf in the imprudent campaign of last November, and that "the better elements of the party are ripe for revolt against the insolent domination of the few men who aspire to be despots. For the purpose of organizing this disaffection, the National Republican League invites the formation of affiliated associations in all the townships in the State, and to put themselves in communication with each other, and with the League," so that when the May Convention meets we may speak to it with a united voice, bidding it to throw off the yoke of the "bosses" if it does not wish to incur defeat by causing a third ticket to be put in the field."—Look Haven Journal.

Candidates Must Pay the Printer. A case of importance was recently decided in the Centre county court. The suit was instituted by Editor Kurtz against a man named Alexander, who had been a candidate for office and then refused to pay for complimentary notices given in the paper during the campaign. The complimentary editorials were not ordered by Alexander, but the court held that political papers are expected to do their utmost in furthering the interest of the candidate of their party, and the candidates so served are bound to pay the editor for his labor.

If the Democrats may be believed, the Republicans are in some confusion on account of the loss of the Pacific States in 1884 through the President's veto. The Democratic prophets forget that President Garfield was averse to Chinese immigration, and therefore should have been a popular candidate in the Pacific States, but that he lost them nevertheless.

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Manfield, Ohio, Nov. 24, 1881. Gentlemen—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters, and have now taken one bottle and a half and all about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. I can justly be called the king of medicine.
