

Old Friends. The old old friends! Some changed; some buried; some gone out of sight...

FASHION REPEATS ITSELF.

I, Robert Ogden, at twenty-four, was a tolerably good-looking youth, with a position in Wells & Banker's wholesale store as bookkeeper at a salary of seventy-five dollars per month...

I hurried at once to her home and found her waiting for me. You don't say a word about my new suit, she said, as soon as we parted. It just came home as you dressedmaker, and it is quite too stylish for anything...

When overhauled the gray clouds meet, And the air is heavy with mist and rain, She clambers up to the window seat, And watches the storm through the yellow pane...

The Yellow Pane. At the painted window she laughs with glee, And smiles at the clouds with a sweet gladness, And calls to her face, it's sunshine to me, As she presses her lips to the yellow pane...

HUMOR OF THE DAY.

The way to treat a man of doubtful credit is to take no note of him. There ought to be a great many red ears in the corn crop this season; it has been talked about so much.

An old man with the palsy went out to shoot squirrels, taking his son with him to carry the gun. Spraying a half-dozen in a tree the boy took aim, fired and missed several times in succession.

The Blackberry Trade. Southern New Jersey supplies a large proportion of the blackberries that reach the markets of New York, as well as those of Philadelphia. In the township of Hammonton alone there are more than 1,200 acres of blackberry bushes.

They tell a story of a would-be funny broker, who last season adopted a most foolish method of getting even with one of the chronic flirts who are said to make the piazzas here lively later in the season. He obtained half a dozen energetic crabs from the fishing beach, and watching for an opportunity when no one was in a particular tank except the object of his vengeance, he dropped in the crustaceans (way up term for crabs).

How She Got Even. They tell a story of a would-be funny broker, who last season adopted a most foolish method of getting even with one of the chronic flirts who are said to make the piazzas here lively later in the season.

England and the Egyptians. Further dispatches from Alexandria say that the fire in the city was not extinguished until nearly all looting has been stopped. Admiral Seymour organized a police force and occupied the gates of two forts. A force of Germans landed from the fleet to protect the hospital, and a party of Americans, with characteristic enterprise, reestablished a consulate among the ruins of Alexandria.
