"Cold!"

They say that she is cold, but they say what they do not, esnot know. The very flowers that hang from the girdle of spring were growing under the snow.

If beyond the moonlight she heard it, All his heart was intent on this when he heard a sound which made him start.

to apprehend in her? She seemed strangely gentle. Her voice was very low and had in it a subtle inner music which went right to the hearer's heart.

was something in him that Rainger mistrusted and disliked. "You live here alone?" questioned the new-comer.

The next day, with a force of keepers, Dr. Prince presented himself at Rainger's cottage.

The Chairs of Noted Senators. Daniel Webster resigned his seat in the United States Senate on July 21, 1850, says a Washington paper.

Why a Duel was not Fought. Opposite the city resides Mr. J. M. Harvey, a gentleman who has lived a very adventurous life.

HIS TRUST

When Mr. Tom Rainger, who described himself as a traveling photographic artist, was not on the road, he lived absolutely alone in a humble cottage on a wide patch of land adjoining Thornton Common.

Again his wife seemed to be looking at him out of those eyes. His wife's voice seemed to whisper through the room: "You must keep her and be a father to her for my sake."

When she awoke she was again the gentle, trusting, childlike Kate. "What if such a fit should take her in the daytime?" thought Rainger.

He walked up and down, sorely distracted as to what he should do. Suddenly he stopped in his walk and exclaimed, "Yes, better even than that to give her up to them."

Garibaldi's Character. The battle of the Volturmo, the flight of the king and the siege of Capua followed in rapid succession.

Her Eyes Unsealed. Those who have read Wilkie Collins' "Poor Miss Finch," says the Rochester (N. Y.) Post, will readily recall Lucilla's misfortune—blindness from birth, caused by cataracts.

The Cravat. An English trade journal gives this account of the early days of the cravat: In 1636 a foreign regiment arrived in Paris, in the dress of which one characteristic was much admired by the people—a neck-wraper or scarf of muslin or silk for the officers,
