The advertisers insisted that the advertisment should be transfered also. The publishers refused and offered the advertisers $4,000. They declined, and have instituted a suit for $50,000 damages. This is an Indication of the value they put on advertising. Moreover, the publishers can afford to pay a handsome sum should the verdiet be against them, since the clothiers will be obliged to show the extent of damages done from the loss of advertising. This is the first time, we believe, that such an Issue has been raised in court, and the result will be expectantly awaited. Of course the damage claimed, $50,000, is excessive. But the difference between the cost of an ad, and the verdict must be the measure of the profits of advertising judicially determined. That is the essence of the suit and, the bigger the that figure. A Miracle.

Whenever there is an extraordinary occurrence-a team runs over a child without harting it: a mechanic falls from a third-story window, and in a week after he is at work again, we are 8, T. J. Shaffer vs. Thomas Tosler, want to exclaim, "what a miraele!" So when Mrs 'P. S. Ererline, then of Allegheny City, Pa., had been sick with Consumption for a very long time, had been told by several of the best physicians of that city that her time was but for a few hours, that she must die, and when the use of but one bottle of Peruna in a week's time 1.
