Richard Johns) In the Chancery Cours John Wells and State of Maryland,
Mordecai Cole. May 26th 1794.

The Complainant hath filed his hill, for the purpose of obtaining a decree, to well in him a complete legal title to two tracts of land, lying in Baltimore to two tracts of land, lying in Baltimore county, one called Painters-Level, containing 100 acres, the other called Profpect containing 100 acres, the other called Profpect containing 100 acres. He states, that the said John Wolks on the 16th day of March 1774 contracted to sell the said land to the said Mordecai Cole, & executed to him a bond for conveyance, that the said Cole; on the same day, executed to the said Wells a bond for the parent of the purchase money amounting to $f$ 675 Pennsylvania currency, that the said Cole hath since discharged the whole of the purchase money, and hath assigned to the complainant the said bond for conveyance; that the said Wells hath never executed a deed; agreeably to his contract but hath removed out of the state of Maryland, and now resides in the state of Kentucky.

It is thereupon, and at the request of the complainant, adjudged, and ordered, that he procure a copy of this order to be inferted teast fix weeks successively, before the first day of August next, in the United States Gazette at Philadelphia, to the intent, that the said John Wells may have notice of the complainant's application to this court, and may be warned to appear here, on orbefore the first Tuesday in October next, to shew cause wherefore this court should not proceed to decree, agreeably to the swarp of the complainant, and to the act of assemble, for such cases made and provided.
