Lachawannock.

A LARGE body of LAND on this river and its waters, is now for fale to Settlers only, on moderate terms, and at a tong credit.

The foil is remarkably fertile, and numerous fireams of water are interspersed through the whole country.

The main river flows through one tract of about thirty thousand acres; and is with the exception of one obstruction, navigable to the Susquehannah.

Spring Brook Creek, which with its branches, waters another tract of about forty thousand acres of good Land, empties itself into the Lachawannock, about twelve miles from the Susquehannah.

It affords numerous Mill seats, & in its course creates large bodies of well watered meadow ground.

ed meadow ground.

The other tracts are interfected by creeks of confiderable importance.

Several Mills are already erected for the accommodation of the fettlers.

Roads are cut in different directions, towards the most convenient markets.
