Lachawannock.

A LARGE body of LAND on this river and its waters, is now for sale to Settlers on moderate terms, and at a long credit. The soil is remarkably fertile, and numerous streams of water are interpermeated through the whole country. The main river flows through one tract of about thirty thousand acres, and is without exception of one obstruction, navigable to the Susquehanna. Spring Brook Creek, which with its branches, waters another tract of about forty thousand acres of good Land, empties itself into the Lachawannock, about twelve miles from the Susquehanna. It affords numerous Mill seats, & in its course creates large bodies of well watered meadow ground. The other tracts are intersected by creeks of considerable importance. Several Mills are already erected for the accommodation of the settlers. Roads are cut in different directions, towards the most convenient markets. The county town is not more than 12 miles distant from many parts of the settlement. The Susquehanna affords an easy and safe navigation to Middleton, from whence the Canal to Schuylkill extends the communication to the city. Another means of connection with Philadelphia, is by the Delaware, from which the distance in several places is about thirty miles. The proprietors combining their own interest with that of the inhabitants, are disposed to erect works of public utility, open roads, &c. and in every ten miles square, a tract of one hundred acres is allotted for a School, and one hundred acres for the first resident clergyman of any denomination of Christians. For further particulars apply to
George Eddy,

FOR SALE,
BY MATHEW CAREY, No. 118, Market-Street,
An Essay on Slavery,
Designed to exhibit in a new point of view its effects on morals, industry, and the peace of Society. Some facts and calculations are offered to prove the labor of freemen to be much more productive than that of slaves that countries are rich, powerful and happy in proportion as the laboring people enjoy the fruits of their own labor; and hence the necessary conclusion, that slavery is impolitic as well as unjust.
PRICE 25 CENTS.

Christiana Mills
For Sale.
ON Monday the first day of September next at 8 o'clock in the evening, at the Coffee House in the city of Philadelphia will be sold by public vendue, two tracts or pieces of land situated in White Clay Creek hundred, New Castle county and state of Delaware; one of which contains about sixty acres of highly improved land, on it are a large two story brick dwelling house, a convenient brick barn with stabling and a carriage house underneath, an excellent kiln for drying corn; and the well known and called Christiana Mills (late Pater-son's) which being at the head of the tide on Christiana river, and but about half a mile from the landing, is conveniently situated for carrying the articles manufactured at the mills by water to Philadelphia.—This property being close to the road leading from Elkton to Christiana bridge, and at the head of the tide, with many other attendant advantages, render its situation for the milling business to very valuable, as to be equalled by few and excelled by none.
The latter tract containing 175 acres, is about one mile from the mills and is chiefly woodland, which being contiguous to water carriage to the city of Philadelphia, must be of increasing value, especially as there is a quantity of large timber in said tract suitable for the purposes of the mills.
The terms upon which the above mentioned estates will be sold are—one thousand pounds to be paid on executing the deed, and seven hundred and fifty pounds per annum, with interest for the remainder or proportionably for each part.
Indisputable titles will be made for the property, by

The TRIAL
OF
Maurice Margarot,
Before the High Court of Judicature at Edinburgh, on an indictment for SEDITIONOUS PRACTICES.

"OF the many remarkable trials which the present extraordinary system of criminal jurisprudence in Great Britain and Ireland has brought before the public eye; this certainly is most entitled to universal perusal and attention. It develops more fully than any publication extant, the latent views and objects of the British convention; and proves incontrovertibly, that judicial prosecutions (or persecutions) and detentions are now more the result of the pre-habited order of things, than any old fashioned attachment to the laws or the constitution. Add to this, that it holds up to the Lands and Tenements of Junius Martin, wonder and admiration of mankind, the late of the county aforesaid, returnable to the firm, manly, and patriotic conduct of the third Tuesday in July last. NOTICE his devoted victim—this 'Second Sydney,' is hereby given to the said Junius Martin, as he has justly and deservedly been called; that unless he appear and file special bail to who in the course of one of the longest trials we know of, unafflicted even by a single day in January next, judgment will be pronounced of the long robe, evinced such altered against him by default, and the goods and chattles, lands and tenements so attached, sold for the satisfaction of such of his creditors as shall appear to be justly entitled to any demand thereon, and shall apply for that purpose, according to the form of the statute in such case made & provided in time-serving creature of a corrupt government."
