Lachawannock.

A LARGE body of LAND on this river and its waters, is now for sale to Settlers on moderate terms, and at a long credit. The soil is remarkably fertile, and numerous streams of water are interperfused through the whole country.

The main river flows through one tract of about thirty thousand acres, and is without exception of one obstruction, navigable to the Susquehanna.

Spring Brook Creek, which with its branches, waters another tract of about forty thousand acres of good Land, empties itself into the Lachawannock, about twelve miles from the Susquehanna.
It affords numerous Mill seats, & in its course creates large bodies of well watered meadow ground.

Several Mills are already erected for the accommodation of the settlers.

Roads are cut in different directions, towards the most convenient markets.

The county town is not more than 12 miles distant from many parts of the settlement.

The Susquehanna affords an easy and safe navigation to Middleton, from whence the Canal to Schuylkill extends the communication to the city.

Another means of connection with Philadelphia, is by the Delaware, from which the distance in several places is about thirty miles.

The proprietors combining their own interest with that of the inhabitants, are disposed to erect works of public utility, open roads, &c. and in every 100 acres of land, a tract of one hundred acres is allotted for a School, and one hundred acres for the first resident clergyman of any denomination of Christians.

For further particulars apply to George Eddy,

Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, July 9.

Letters directed to George Eddy, at Philadelphia, or this place to Thomas Eddy, at New York, relative to this business, will be duly answered.

JUST PUBLISHED, And for sale at Mathew Carey's Store,

No. 118, Market Street, Price half a dollar, embellished with a striking likeness of Mr. Margot, The TRIAL OF MAURICE MARGOT, Before the High Court of Justiciary at Edinburgh, on an indictment for SEDITIOUS PRACTICES.

“OF the many remarkable trials which the present extraordinary system of criminal jurisprudence in G. Britain and Ireland has brought before the public eye; this certainly is most entitled to universal regard and attention. It develops, more fully than any publication extant, the latent views and objects of the British convention; and proves incontestably, that judicial prosecutions (or persecutions) and detentions are now more the result of the present order of things, than any old fashioned attachment to the laws or the constitution. Add to this, that it holds up to the wonder and admiration of mankind, the late of the county aforesaid, returnable to the firm, manly, and patriotic conduct of this devoted victim—this ‘Second Sydney,’ as he has justly and deservedly been called, who in the course of one of the longest trials we know of, unassisted even by a single day in January next, judgment will be member of the long robe, evinced such a depth of legal and constitutional knowledge; and, in a speech of four hours length, displayed such a blaze of eloquence and first rate abilities, as astonished the court—and, strange to relate! even new involuntary applause from the venal and time-serving creature of a corrupt government.”
