Lachawannock.

A LARGE body of LAND on this river and its waters, is now for sale to Settlers only, on moderate terms, and at a long credit.
The soil is remarkably fertile, and numerous streams of water are interspersed through the whole country.

The main river flows through one tract of about thirty thousand acres, and is with the exception of one obstruction, navigable to the Susquehanna.

Spring Brook Creek, which with its branches, waters another tract of about forty thousand acres of good land, empty itself into the Lachawannock, about twelve miles from the Susquehanna.

It affords numerous Mill seats, & in its course creates large bodies of well watered meadow ground.

The other tracts are intersected by creeks of considerable importance.

Several Mills are already erected for the accommodation of the settlers.

Roads are cut in different directions, towards the most convenient markets.

The county town is not more than 12 miles distant from many parts of the settlement.

The Susquehanna affords an easy and safe navigation to Middleton, from whence the Canal to Schuylkill extends the communication to the city.

Another means of connection with Philadelphia, is by the Delaware, from which the distance in several places is about thirty miles.

The proprietors, combining their own interest with that of the inhabitants, are disposed to erect works of public utility, open roads, &c. and in every six miles square, a tract of one hundred acres is allotted for a School, and one hundred acres for the first resident clergyman of any denomination of Christians.

For further particulars apply to George Eddy.
Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne County,
Pennsylvania, July 9.

Letters directed to George Eddy, at Phi-adelphia, or this place, or to Thomas Eddy, at New York, relative to this business, will be duly answered.

necessary conclusion, that slavery is *imprac-

Christiana Mills
For Sale.

ON Monday the first day of September next at 8 o'clock in the evening, at the Coffee House in the city of Philadelphia will be sold by public vendue, two tract or pieces of land situated in White Clay Creek hundred, New Castle county and state of Delaware; one of which contains about sixty acres of highly improved land, on it are a large two story brick dwelling house, a convenient brick barn, with stabling and a carriage house underneath, an excellent kitchen for drying corn; and the well known mills called Christiana Mills (late Paterson's) which being at the head of the tide on Christiana river, and but about half a mile from the landing, is conveniently situated for carrying the articles manufactured at the mills by water to Philadelphia.—This property being close to the road leading from Elkton to Christiana bridge, and at the head of the tide, with many other attendant advantages, render its situation for

The latter tract containing 175 acres, is about one mile from the mills and is chiefly woodland, which being contiguous to tract suitable for the purposes of the mills.

tioned estates will be sold are—one thousand pounds to be paid on executing the deeds, and seven hundred and fifty pounds

Price half a dollar, embellished with a

The TRIAL
OF

Maurice Margat,
Before the High Court of Judiciary at Edinburgh, on an indictment for SEDITIONARY PRACTICES.

"OF the many remarkable trials which the present extraordinary system of criminal jurisprudence in G. Britain and Ireland has brought before the public eye; this certainly is most entitled to universal pe-tential and attention. It develops, more fully than any publication extant, the latest views and objects of the British convention; and proves incontrovertibly, that judicial prosecutions for persecutions and de-cessions are now more the result of the present order of things, than any old fashioned attachment to the laws or the constitution. Add to this, that it holds up to the wonder and admiration of mankind, the firm, manly, and patriotic conduct of this devoted victim—the Second Sydney, as he has justly and deservedly been called;
who in the course of one of the longest trials we know of, assailed ever by a single member of the long robe, evinced such a depth of legal and constitutional knowledge, and in a speech of four hours length, displayed such a blaze of eloquence and firm rate abilities, as astonished the court—and strange to relate I even drew involuntary applause from the venal and time-serving creature of a corrupt government."
