the City of Washington—Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire fronts on two of the public squares; from these drawings, it is proposed to erect two centre and four corner buildings, as soon as possible after this Lottery is sold, and to convey them when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A neat deduction of five per cent. will be made to defray the necessary expences of printing, &c. and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be erected within the City of Washington.

The drawing will commence as soon as the Tickets are sold, or at all events on fortunate numbers are not produced within two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the management of 24 gentlemen approved by the commissioners for the City of Wash-oath.

JOHN HOWARD, Esq. L. L. D.
F. R. S.

Embellished with a striking likeness of that Citizen of the World.

By JOHN AIKEN, M. D.
To which is subjoined an ODE inscribed to John Howard, by William Hayley, Esq.

FROM realm to realm, with crest or crescent crown'd,
Where'er mankind and misery are found, O'er burning sands, deep waves, or wilds of snow,
Great HOWARD journeying seeks the house of woe.

Down many a winding step to dungeons dank, Where anguish howls aloud, and fetters clank:
To caves bestrew'd with many a mould'ring bone,
And cells, whose echoes only learn to groan;
—Onward he moves!—Disease and death retire,
And murr'ring demons hate him, and admire.

UNITED STATES.

NEW-YORK, September 11.

Mr. Randolph's letter published Tuesday together with the President's correspondence with the Governor of this state, bode no good to Governor Simcoe. Indeed it is presumed that Gen. Wayne on the one side, and the Genesee Woodmen on the other, will be able to give a good account of certain expeditions into the United States, and fully to maintain the statu quo; pending our foreign negotiations.

The moderation of the Executive is equally conspicuous in negotiation with foreign and domestic enemies. To resort to arms only as the last expedient, either to repel foreign invasion or suppress domestic rebellion, marks the mild genius of our government and the patriotism, the humanity, and fatherly affection of our President.

HARRISBURGH, Sept. 8.

Pursuant to the request in the Oracle of the 1st inst. a very respectable number of the citizens of Harrisburgh and its vicinity, met on Friday afternoon, at the court house in this borough; and after expressing their general sentiments of esteem and veneration for the happy constitution under which we live, and our detestation of every unconstitutional mode of attempting to procure a redress of grievance, by opposition to any acts of government: Some dissatisfaction appeared respecting the excessive laws and the wages of the officers of the federal government; but considering the danger at this time least any proceedings therein might be construed into countenancing, or in the least approving of the outrages lately committed in several counties more Westward-ly therefore the meeting broke up without coming to any resolutions on the occasion at so critical a juncture.

[By desire]

Notice is hereby given, that the business relative to the excise law, and other matters, published in our last paper, is postponed until Monday next, when a numerous meeting of the country gentlemen, and others are expected to assemble at the Court-House in this town.
