16,739 Prizes
33,261 Blanks
50,000 Tickets at 3 dollars 450,000

This Lottery will afford an elegant specimen of the private buildings to be erected in the City of Washington—Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire fronts on two of the public squares; from these drawings, it is proposed to erect two centre and four corner buildings, as soon as possible after this Lottery is sold, and to convey them when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A next deduction of five per cent. will be made to defray the necessary expences of printing, &c. and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be erected within the City of Washington.

The drawing will commence as soon as the Tickets are sold, or at all events on Monday, the 22nd of December next: The money prizes will be payable in thirty days after it is finished, and any prizes for which fortunate numbers are not produced within twelve months after the drawing is closed are to be considered as given towards the fund for the University, it being determined to settle the whole business in a year from the ending of the drawing and to take up the bonds given as security.

The real securities given for the payment of the Prizes, are held by the President and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the Lottery. The drawing will be under the management of 24 gentlemen approved by the commissioners for the City of Washington, for the time being, and acting on oath.

S. BLODGET.
* * Tickets may be had at the Bank of Columbia; of James West & Co. Baltimore; of Gideon Denison, Savannah; of Peter Gilman, Boston; of John Hopkins, Richmond; and of Richard Wells, Cooper's ferry.

F. R. S.

Embellished with striking likenesses of that Citizen of the World.
By JOHN AIKEN, M. D.
To which is subjoined an ODE inscribed to John Howard, by William Hayley, Esq.

FROM realm to realm, with craft or crescent crown'd,
Where'er mankind and misery are found,
O'er burning sands, deep waves, or wilds of snow,
Great HOWARD journeying seeks the house of woe.
Down many a winding step to dungeons dank,
Where anguish swells aloud, and fetters clank:
To caves beneath'd with many a mould'ring bone,
And cells, whose echoes only learn to groan;
—Onward he moves!—Disease and death retire,
And murr'ring demons bate him, and admire.

TO BE SOLD,
By THOMAS DOBSON,
AN
Alphabetical List
OF THE DUTIES

Payable by law on all Goods, Wares, and Merchandise imported into the United States of America, after the last day of June 1794, distinguishing the rates payable on those imported in ships or vessels of the United States—and the rates payable in foreign ships or vessels, including the additional duties, to which the respective articles are liable.

Pennsylvania Militia.
THE MILITIA, now preparing to assemble at the different places, appointed by the Governor, orders, of the 13th inst. will have to furnish themselves with provisions for their march to the respective places of rendezvous, for which they will be paid the price allowed for the rations by the United States. On their arrival at the said places appointed for assembling, rations will be furnished them.

ARMS ACCOUTREMENTS,
TENTS, and CAMP-KETTLES, will be furnished by the United States to the several corps, at the respective places appointed for them to assemble, on their commanding officer's making return of the officers and men composing their corps, as they may arrive, for which purpose the greatest expedition will be used to forward the necessary supplies.

FORAGE will also be provided for the cavalry and officers horses which are entitled to forage, and the same will be paid for at the established price, from the time of their collecting in their respective counties until their arrival at the several places appointed for assembling.

Each complete company will be allowed a four horse waggon to carry their camp equipage; and the same for the field officers of each regiment; which the several commanding officers are requested to engage to serve for the expedition, and they will be paid at the rate of thirty-five shillings per day for each four horse waggon, and driver, furnishing their own subsistence. To accommodate them as far as possible, orange will be laid in at the different places appointed for assembling, and delivered at the prime cost to such as choose to apply for it; and in case the general arrangements should make it necessary to furnish them with forage after they leave Carlisle, an equitable rate will be settled in establishing the price of hire then to be allowed.

As the tents, with their poles, camp-kettles and equipage must in all events be conveyed in the waggons allowed to each corps, it will be necessary to restrict the loading waggons allowed to companies with baggage as much as possible.

OLD AMERICAN COMPANY.
Messrs. HALLAM and HODGKINSON respectfully inform the public in general, their Theatre will open Monday, Sept. 12 when Mrs. MEIMOTH, formerly of Drury Lane and Covent Garden, and last from Dublin, will make her first appearance.

The House has been fitted up and decorated at a very considerable expence, and no pains spared to produce such novelty, both of pieces and performers as may render the Old American Company worthy a share of that patronage which hitherto it has been their pride both to possess and merit.

Mons. QUENET, principal ballet master from Paris and Madame GARDIE will make their appearance a few days after the commencement in a new Grand Pantomime—also Mr. and Mrs. MARRIOT from the Theatre, Edinburgh; Mr. RICHARDS from Dublin, Mr. NELSON from the Theatre, Richmond; Mr. MUNTO from Goodman's Fields; and Mr. CARR of the Antient Concertos London, who will make his first entrance on any stage in a principal singing character.

Applications on Business within my Agency for supplying with provisions the Militia lately called into service—may be made in this city to Messrs. Wheeler and Miller, at the corner of Market and Fourth streets.
