Should any rations be required at any pla-es, or within other diffricts, not specified in these proposals, the price of the same is to be hereafter agreed on between the United States and the contractor.

The rations to be supplied are to consist of the following states.

the following articles, viz.

One pound of bread or flour,
One pound of beef, or $ of a pound of pork,
One quart of falt. Two quarts of vinegar,
Two pounds of foap,
One pound of candles,

The rations are to be furnished in such quantities, as that there shall at all times, during the said term, be sufficient for the confumption of the troops at each of the faid posts, for the term of at least three months in advance, in good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is to be understood in each case, that all losses sustained by the deproducions of the enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid for at the prices of the articles contracted. of the articles captured or deftroyed, on the depositions of two or more persons of creditable characters, and the certificate of a commissioned officer, ascertaining the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.

The contract for the above supplies will be made either for one year, or for two years, as may appear eligible. Persons disposed to contract will therefore confine their offers to one year, as they may form their propositions so as to admit an election of the term of two years.

The offers may comprise all the places which have been specified, or a part of them only to the control of the cont them only.

It is also Desired, that proposals may be offered for supplying at the two posts of Fort Washington and Pittsburgh all the rations necessary for the main Army, its detachments and the Gartsons above mentioned during the said year 1795. The provisions &c. which will be received at Pittsburgh will be those which shall be necessary for the troops at that place and at the posts north, north-west and, in the vicinity, on the west thereof. The provisions which will be received at Fort Washington will be those which shall be required for the remainder of the posts, for the principal detachments and for the main Army. The expense and trouble of safe keeping unpacking and issuing the provisions deliverable under this second form of the propositions, will be saved to the Conractors. The exact proportion of the whole supplies, which will be required at each of the two Posts of Fort Washington and Pittsburgh will be determined at the time of executing the contract. the time of executing the contract.

whiter and it takes the ink more freely than the genuine paper.

The O. in the word Company is smaller than the M. and other letters of that word, so that a line extended from the top of the O, to touch the top of the M. would extend considerably above the range of the whole word.

In the word United the letters are nar-rower and closer together than the rest of the bill.

The i and f in the word promise are not parallel, the finclining much more torward

The engraving is badly executed, the ftrokes of all the Letters are ftronger and the devi e in themargin particularly is much coarfer and appears darker than in the true bills. Some of the counterfeits bear date in 1791—Whereas the Bank was not in operation till December, and no five dollar bills were issued in that year.

Towerty Dollar Bills of the Bank of North America.

ALL that have appeared have the letter B. for their alphabetical mark.

They are printed on a paper nearly fimilar to that of the counterfeit Five Dollar Notes above described; the engraving is better executed, and they approach nearer to the appearance of the genuine bills.

The fine ruled lines through the word Twenty, in the body of the bill, are in number thrateen in the genuine bills, and but twelve in the counterfeits.

The word Company is much like the same word in the Five Dollar Bills as described above, the being less than the m, and others following.
