Distant Subscribers

For this Gazette, are hereby respectfully requested to pay up their Subscriptions to the first of January next. The Editor will be under the necessity of considering those who do not then renew their Subscription by paying Six Months in Advance, as declining to take the Paper any longer.

As there is a considerable Sum due from remote Subscribers for the late half Weekly Paper published by the Editor, he most earnestly requests those who may be delinquent, to take the earliest opportunity of remitting him the balance they may respectively be indebted—the sums are individually trifling—the want of the Aggregate is severely felt.

A Frenchman who is well acquainted with mercantile business, and who understands the French and Latin languages, with a good knowledge of the English tongue, would wish to engage with a merchant: or as a tutor to a private family, either in Town or Country.

cautioned not to credit Fanny, wife of the Subscriber, as I will not pay any debt of her contracting, from the date hereof.
